You and Yours Naomi Shihab Nye, 2013-12-20 In You and Yours Naomi Shihab Nye continues her conversation with ordinary people whose lives become through her empathetic use of poetic language extraordinary Nye writes of local life in her inner city Texas neighborhood about rural schools and urban communities she's visited in this country as well as the daily rituals of Jews and Palestinians who live in the war torn Middle East The Day I missed the day on which it was said others should not have certain weapons but we could Not only could but should and do I missed that day Was I sleeping I might have been digging in the yard doing something small and slow as usual Or maybe I wasn't born yet What about all the other people who aren't born Who will tell them Balancing direct language with a suggestive aslantness Nye probes the fragile connection between language and meaning She never shies from the challenge of trying to name the mysterious logic of childhood or speak truth to power in the face of the horrors of war She understands our lives are marked by tragedy inequity and misunderstanding and that our best chance of surviving our losses and shortcomings is to maintain a heightened awareness of the sacred in all things Naomi Shihab Nye poet editor anthologist is a recipient of writing fellowships from the Lannan and Guggenheim foundations Nye's work has been featured on PBS poetry specials including NOW with Bill Moyers The Language of Life with Bill Moyers and The United States of Poetry She has traveled abroad as a visiting writer on three Arts America tours sponsored by the United States Information Agency In 2001 she received a presidential appointment to the National Council of the National Endowment for the Humanities She lives in San Antonio Texas

The Rooster's Wife Russell Edson, 2005 For the past 40 years Russell Edson has been producing a body of work unique in its perspective and singular in its approach He is arguably America's most distinguished writer of prose poems Here are contorted Darwinian narratives of apes and monkeys exhibiting absurdly human behavior along with his usual menagerie of elephants horses chickens roosters dogs mermaids and mice Along with his trademark humor The Rooster's Wife finds Edson contemplating age mortality and immortality as well Of Memory and Distance It's a scientific fact that anyone entering the distance will grow smaller as he proceeds Eventually becoming so small he might only be found with a microscope if indeed he is found at all But there is a vanishing point where anyone having entered the distance must disappear entirely without hope of his ever returning leaving only the memory of his ever having been But then there is fiction so that one can never really be sure if one is remembering someone who vanished into the distance or simply who had been made of paper and ink Russell Edson has been called a surrealist comic genius a magician of metaphor and imagination He is all of these and a philosophical poet whose zany expeditions into the twisted labyrinths of logic resemble Lewis Carroll's adventures through the wonderlands of paradox and illusion Perhaps that is why even people who do not read significant amounts of contemporary poetry can immediately appreciate the playful accessibility of Russell Edson's writing What he pulls out of the hat of the subconscious is always unpredictable immediate and surprising Russell Edson's books include The Very Thing That Happens 1964 The Childhood of an Equestrian 1973 The Tunnel Selected Poems 1994 and The House of Sara Loo Rain Taxi Chapbook Series 2002 He lives in Darien Connecticut

The Owner of the House Louis Simpson, 2014-07-01 Few poets have so artfully confronted American life as Louis Simpson Persona speakers struggle with everyday issues against a backdrop of larger forces the individual's maladjustment to a culture of materialism and brutal competition the failure of marriage under the pressures of such a society the failure of the American dream Simpson wages a lover's quarrel with the world Louis Simpson has perfect pitch His poems win us first by their drama their ways of voicing our ways of making do with our lives Then his intelligence cajoles us to the brink of a cliff of solitude and we step over into the buoyant element of true poetry Seamus Heaney Educated at Munro College West Indies and at Columbia University Louis Simpson has taught widely most recently at the State University of New York at Stony Brook He is the author of seventeen books of poetry and ten works of prose He has received fellowships from the Academy of American Poetry the Hudson Review the Guggenheim Foundation and received the Pulitzer Prize for Poetry
