Public Libraries,1919      The End of Tradition? Ian D. Rotherham,2014 The threats from global cultural change and abandonment of traditional landscape management increased in the last half of the twentieth century and ten years into the twenty first century show no signs of slowing down Their impacts on global biodiversity and on people disconnected from their traditional landscapes pose real and serious economic and social problems which need to be addressed now The End of Tradition conference held in Sheffield UK was organised by Ian D Rotherham and colleagues It addressed the fundamental issues of whether we can conserve the biodiversity of wonderful and iconic landscapes and reconnect people to their natural environment And if we can how can we do so and make them relevant for the twenty first century The book is in two parts Part 1 A History of Commons and Commons Management and Part 2 Commons Current Management and Problems      Catalogue of Maps, Prints, Drawings Etc. Archaeology, History and Science Marcos Martinon-Torres,Thilo Rehren,2016-09-16 Using a combination of historical archaeological and scientific data is not an uncommon research practice Rarely found however is a more overt critical consideration of how these sources of information relate to each other or explicit attempts at developing successful strategies for interdisciplinary work The authors in this volume provide such critical perspectives examining materials from a wide range of cultures and time periods to demonstrate the added value of combining in their research seemingly incompatible or even contradictory sources Case studies include explorations of the symbolism of flint knives in ancient Egypt the meaning of cuneiform glass texts medieval metallurgical traditions and urban archaeology at industrial sites This volume is noteworthy as it offers novel contributions to specific topics as well as fundamental reflections on the problems and potentials of the interdisciplinary study of the human past      Cultural Severance and the Environment Ian D. Rotherham,2013-05-09 This major book explores commons lands and rights of usage in common traditional and customary practices and the cultural nature of landscapes Importantly it addresses now critical matters of cultural severance and largely unrecognized impacts on biodiversity and human societies and implications for conservation sustainability and local economies The book takes major case studies and perspectives from around the world to address contemporary issues and challenges from historical and ecological perspectives The book developed from major international conferences and collaborations over around fifteen years culminating The End of Tradition in Sheffield UK 2010 The chapters are from individuals who are both academic researchers and practitioners These ideas are now influencing bodies like the EU UNESCO and FAO with recognition by major organisations and stakeholders of the critical state of the environment consequent on cultural severance
