in northern Nigeria Giwa offers a detailed investigation of Zaynab Alkali's The Initiates on gender politics. Similarly Muhammad and Muhammad are concerned with identity and the gender politics in Bilkisu Abubakar's To Live Again and The Woman in Me. The last article in the book jointly written by Yusuf Anwonmeh and Agulonye offers the only viewpoint on children's literature in northern Nigeria. Shehu Musa Yar'adua Marcus G. Ajibade, 1999 Muslim Civic Cultures and Conflict Resolution John N. Paden, 2006-03-30 The question of whether Islam is compatible with democracy may best be answered not from the classical sources or even from the cauldron of Middle East politics but from the lived experiences of Muslim communities around the world. In large and diverse countries the varied political values of different cultures can make or break the democratic experiment. Regardless of their cultural context transitions from military to civilian rule require attention to the grassroots civic cultures that form the foundations of democratic federalism. John Paden, a noted expert on West African and Islamic societies, uses Nigeria as a critical case study of how a diverse country with a significant Muslim population is working to make the transition to a democratic society. Although little studied, the non-Arab Muslim communities of West Africa are an important indicator as to whether Islamic democracy in a diverse nation is possible. Nigeria's success is vital to regional and global stability. As the largest country in Africa with a population that is about half Muslim and half Christian or traditional animist, Nigeria is also the seventh largest producer of oil in the world and has gone through a series of political traumas ranging from civil war to military rule. The current democratic government is trying to balance rule of law concerns at a time when many communal tensions are coming to the surface. Muslim Civic Cultures and Conflict Resolution in Nigeria takes us inside the complex world of Nigerian politics with a focus on the ways Muslim civic cultures deal with matters of leadership and conflict resolution. The book provides an essential context to the current international concern with issues ranging from Shari'a law and communal violence to the broader war on terrorism. It argues that the requirement for regional political cooperation serves as a counterbalance to more extreme forms of political expression. Paden shows that if the Nigerian political model of The Fall and Rise of Political Leaders L. Derfler, 2011-01-31 Olof Palme, Sweden, Olusegun Obasanjo, Nigeria, and Indira Gandhi, India, achieved the pinnacle of political power, fell from or relinquished power, and then after a period in the political wilderness regained it, by placing greater emphasis than that customarily accorded by biographers on the interment that followed their fall and preceded their resurrection, the book describes how what they did, the lessons they learned, and the mistakes made by their successors facilitated their reentry.

Dictionary of African Biography Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2012-02-02 From the Pharaohs to Fanon, Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa's history.
