the same What if you give God the next forty days of your life to find peace in the chaos You can live unstoppable When fear holds on tight remember God travels broken roads looking for those crushed in spirit Wounded hearts on winding backstreets call to him He cannot stay away Like a storm chaser he runs into your tornado It s your broken heart and crushed spirit that he can t resist Drawing inspiration from the last three hours Jesus hung on the cross best selling author and pastor Larry Dugger sheds lights on what to do when you feel trapped in a dark place You can trust God with the impossible This forty day action plan is designed to move you away from anxiety worry and emotional distress It s time for you to stop seeking the predictable in times of crisis God is not predictable He is so much more than stained glass He is creative wild and free to do as he wishes The Political Sociology and Anthropology of Evil: Tricksterology Agnes Horvath, Arpad

Szakolczai, 2019-10-10 This book offers a new approach to the problem of evil through an examination of the anthropological figure of the trickster A lesser known and much more recent term than evil the authors use the trickster to facilitate a greater understanding of the return of evil in the modern era Instead of simply opposing good and evil the figure of the trickster is used to pursue the trajectories of similarities and quasi similarities through imitation After engaging with the trickster as presented in comparative anthropology and mythology where it appears in tales and legends as a strange erratic outsider the authors seek to gain an inside perspective of trickster knowledge through an examination of mythology and the classical world including both philosophers and poets The book then goes on to trace the trickster through prehistory using archaeological evidence to complement the diverse narratives In this way and by investigating the knowledge and customs surrounding evil the authors use the figure of the trickster to provide an unprecedented diagnosis of the contemporary world where external mechanical rationality has become taken for granted and even considered as foundational in politics economics and technologised science The authors advance the idea that the modern world with its global free markets mass mediatic democracy and technologised science represents a universalisation of trickster logic The Political Sociology and Anthropology of the Evil will be of interest to scholars working in the fields of social theory political anthropology and political sociology as well as those interested in the ways in which evil can infiltrate reality Sightlines Leona Theis, 2000

Winner Saskatchewan Fiction Award Saskatoon Book Award Saskatchewan Book Awards The thirteen stories in this debut short fiction collection weave together the lives of a cast of characters from the small community of Flat Hill over a thirty year period from the 1960s to the 1990s Leona Theis uses flashbacks within stories revisits characters at more than one time in their lives and has main characters in one story appear as bit players in another all to build a complex portrait of a group of people who share a single point of departure Flat Hill Relationships and friendships thrive or wither children grow up and move away to the city seniors pass on and time moves everyone relentlessly forward whether they want to go or not No matter how accomplished and subtly rewarding each story in Sightlines is what is finally most remarkable about this book is how the individual stories fit together demonstrating that in Leona Theis s case the whole really is far greater than the sum of its parts A very promising debut by a very talented writer Guy Vanderhaeghe

In Women's Experience Patricia L. Munhall,1994 Looks at the entirety of women s lives tracing the unique social psy chological and physical factors that affect women s health Expert co ntributors examine a wide range of women s experiences from surviving breast cancer to becoming a mother to coping with chronic illness a ll from women s perspectives
