Congress. House, The Last Café in Paris Danniel Paraiso Da Silva,2025-04-09 The Last Caf in Paris A story about love that is lost love that remains and love that is reborn Camila has the perfect life on paper engaged to a stable man with a promising future in sight But everything changes when she finds an old letter from Antoine the Frenchman who broke her heart ten years ago with an unexplained goodbye Driven by impulsive courage and a longing that never went away she sets off for Paris in search of answers and perhaps herself But the city of lights holds more than memories it offers reunions revealing silences and the chance to rebuild what seemed lost Between cafes on street corners unseen letters and promises from the past Camila will discover that true love does not always arrive like a hurricane sometimes it arrives as a simple gesture like the last sip of hot coffee on a cold morning The Last Caf in Paris is a sensitive mature and poetic novel about new beginnings choices and the power of leaving the past alone Brexlit Kristian Shaw,2021-07-29 Britain s vote to leave the European Union in the summer of 2016 came as a shock to many observers But writers had long been exploring anxieties and fractures in British society from Euroscepticism to immigration to devolution to post truth narratives that came to the fore in the Brexit campaign and its aftermath Reading these tensions back into contemporary British writing Kristian Shaw coins the term Brexlit to deliver the first in depth study of how writers engaged with these issues before and after the referendum result Examining the work of over a hundred British authors including Julian Barnes Jonathan Coe Kazuo Ishiguro and Ali Smith as well as popular fiction by Andrew Marr and Stanley Johnson Brexlit explores how a new and urgent genre of post Brexit fiction is beginning to emerge

The American Café Sara Sue Hoklotubbe, 2011-04-15 2012 WILLA Literary Award Winner Best Original Softcover Fiction When Sadie Walela decides to pursue her childhood dream of owning a restaurant she has no idea that murder will be on the menu In this second book in the Sadie Walela series set in the heart of the Cherokee Nation Sadie discovers life as an entrepreneur is not as easy as she anticipated On her first day she is threatened by the town's resident crazy woman and the former owner of the American Caf turns up dead engulfing the caf and Sadie herself in a cloud of suspicion and unanswered questions Drawing on the intuition and perseverance of her Cherokee ancestry Sadie is determined to get some answers when an old friend unexpectedly turns up to lend a hand A diverse cast of characters including a mysterious Creek Indian a corrupt police chief an angry Marine home from Iraq and the victim's grieving sister and alcoholic niece all come together to create a multilayered story of denial and deceit While striving to untangle relationships and old family secrets Sadie ends up unraveling far more than a murder

What is She Like Rosa Ainley, 2016-10-06 In What Is She Like Rosa Ainley looks in depth at how lesbians see themselves and at the questions of identity that have defined and divided the lesbian community Covering the period from the 1950s with its repressive influence on sexuality in general through so called sexual liberation in the 1960s to the freedoms and limitations of lesbian feminism in the 1970s she brings exciting and illuminating perspectives to bear on lesbian lives in the 1990s when lipstick lesbians were the darlings of the mainstream media Ainley deconstructs the bizarre popular myths and stereotypes which often surround the twilight world of lesbianism substituting for them a celebration of the multifarious nature of the lesbian subculture which evolved during the late 20th century In a series of fascinating interviews interspersed with the text over 20 women of varying ages races and backgrounds talk frankly about their lives and lifestyles as lesbians focusing on their own identity in terms of politics leisure pursuits fashion and affiliations

Brunch at Bittersweet Café Carla Laureano, 2019 From the RITA Award winning author of Five Days in Skye comes a sweet romantic treat that will leave you hungry for more Baker and pastry chef Melody Johansson has always believed in finding the positive in every situation but seven years after she moved to Denver she can't deny that she's stuck in a rut One relationship after another has ended in disaster and her classical French training is being wasted on her night job in a mediocre chain bakery Then the charming and handsome private pilot Justin Keller lands on the doorstep of her workplace in a snowstorm and Melody feels like it's a sign that her luck is finally turning around Justin is intrigued by the lively bohemian baker but the last thing he's looking for is a relationship His own romantic failures have proven that the demands of his job are incompatible with meaningful connections and he's already pledged his life savings to a new business venture across the country an island air charter in Florida with his sister and brother in law Against their better judgment Melody and Justin find themselves drawn together by their unconventional career choices and shared love of adventure But when an unexpected windfall provides Melody with the chance to open her dream bakery caf in Denver with her best friend chef Rachel Bishop she's faced with an impossible choice stay and put down roots with the people and place she's come to call home or give it all up for the man she loves Murder in an Italian Café Michael Falco,2024-09-24 Set in beautiful Positano Italy the latest novel in a cozy mystery series featuring a widowed B B owner who discovers a body in one of her bedrooms before opening day Perfect for fans of Mario Giordano and Lorenzo Carcaterra Though she still misses her late husband Carlo Bria couldn't be happier that their dream bed and breakfast Bella Bella is humming along nicely Of course even on the stunning Amalfi Coast things seldom run smoothly Like Bria's mother and mother in law dueling over a suitable communion site for Bria's eight year old son Marco Bria's also juggling the demands of the famous Chef Lugo his producer Massimo and Pippa a member of the production crew who is staying at Bella Bella for a nice long term stay Until Lugo mysteriously dies on camera a victim of apparent murder But finding out who wanted him gone is no stroll on the beach Bria soon learns that Chef Lugo's multi media empire is at a make or break tipping point and Lugo himself had racked up any number of enemies financial professional and very personal Now to save her friend's cafe from a ruined reputation Bria must delve into the glittering surface of false alibis pretty lies and not so glamorous hidden identities to catch a murderer determined to serve up another victim Dark Horizons Tom

Moylan,Raffaella Baccolini,2013-12-02 First published in 2003 With essays by an international and interdisciplinary group of scholars Dark Horizons focuses on the development of critical dystopia in science fiction at the end of the twentieth century In these narratives of places more terrible than even the reality produced by the neo conservative backlash of the 1980s and the neoliberal hegemony of the 1990s utopian horizons stubbornly anticipate a different and more just world The top notch team of contributors explores this development in a variety of ways by looking at questions of form politics the politics of form and the form of politics In a broader context the essays connect their textual and theoretical analyses with historical developments such as September 11th the rise and downturn of the global economy and the growth of anti capitalist movements The Girl from the Docklands Café June Tate,2018-08-23 Southampton 1912 Jessie is made from tough stuff At just 19 after the death of her father she opted not to follow her mother back to Ireland preferring instead to take charge of her own destiny When Jessie marries an Irishman and takes over the running of the cafe she works in it seems as though all the pieces are coming together But when destiny and a pushy local businessman have other ideas everything she has worked for is taken away bit by bit Will she find the strength to keep fighting for the life she wants in the face of personal loss gang bosses and embezzlement Love at On Deck Café Leah Dobrinska, 2022-08-30 In Mapleton love takes a village Julia Derks loves the small town of Mapleton where she grew up and launched her business On Deck Caf What Julia doesn't love is change So when a smooth talking stranger arrives with plans to develop the site of Mapleton's cherished shuttered paper mill she doesn't even try to hide her contempt First impressions aren't everything though Samson Baker has never put down roots He charms people wherever his development firm sends him and he's dealt with his share of pushback from communities unable to recognize the value of growth and change Mapleton is no different There's just one problem and her name is Julia As Samson and Julia's worlds collide sparks as bright as Mapleton's Fourth of July Festival fireworks fly until a damaging secret threatens both their brewing relationship and their livelihoods With everything they've worked for on the line can Julia and Samson reconcile their differences save the caf and have a shot at happily ever after A heartwarming exploration of community integrity and having the courage to change course even in the face of adversity Fans of Enemies to lovers Charming small towns Secrets and self discovery PG rated summer romances will adore Love at On Deck Caf Each feel good book in the Mapleton series is a clean and wholesome standalone read but the books are much more fun when enjoyed in order Book club discussion guides are included at the end of each story Theme Parks, Rainforests and Sprouting Wastelands, 2022-05-16 This lively and fascinating new collection of European essays on contemporary Anglophone fiction has arisen out of the ESSE 3 Conference which was held in Glasgow in September 1995 The contributors live and work in University English Departments in Bulgaria Croatia France Germany Hungary Italy The Netherlands Portugal and Spain as well as in the United Kingdom itself Essays on general theoretical aspects of the subject head and conclude the collection and there are also essays on individual writers or groups of writers such as John Fowles A S Byatt Charles Palliser Peter Ackroyd William Golding Doris Lessing Daphne du Maurier Angela Carter and Christina Stead The performative aspect of the subject matter of these essays is balanced by a locational aspect including utopian and dystopian writing in authors as diverse as Michael Crichton Jenny Diski and Salman Rushdie and the travel literature of Bruce Chatwin These essays show theoretical alertness but no single theoretical position is privileged The aim of the collection is to provide an indication of the range of work being carried out throughout European academe on Anglophone mainly British writing today The Goodbye Café Mariah Stewart, 2020-03-31 From the New York Times bestselling author of the Chesapeake Diaries series comes an irresistible Publishers Weekly novel in her Hudson Sisters series which follows a trio of reluctant sisters who set out to fulfill their father's dying wish and discover themselves in the process California girl Allie Hudson Monroe can't wait for the day when the renovations on the Sugarhouse Theater are complete so she can finally collect the inheritance from her father and move on with her life After all her life and her fourteen year old daughter are in Los Angeles Allie's divorce left her teetering on the edge of bankruptcy so to keep up on payments for her house and her daughter's private school tuition Allie packed up and flew out east But fate has a curveball or two to toss in her direction She hadn't anticipated how her life would change after reuniting with her estranged sister Des or meeting her previously unknown half sister Cara And she d certainly never expected to find small town living charming But the biggest surprise was that her long forgotten artistry would save the day when the theater s renovation fund dried up With opening day upon the sisters Allie s free to go But for the first time in her life she feels like the woman she was always meant to be Will she return to the West Coast and resume her previous life or will the love of this amazing endearing family of women Robyn Carr 1 New York Times bestselling author be enough to draw her back to the place where the Hudson roots grow so deep

Hidden Topographies Raphael Zähringer,2017-04-24 This book examines dystopian fiction s recent paradigm shift towards urban dystopias It links the dystopian tradition with the literary history of the novel spatio philosophical concepts against the backdrop of the spatial turn and systems theory Five dystopian novels are discussed in great detail China Mi ville s Perdido Street Station 2000 and The City 2009 City of Bohane 2011 by Kevin Barry John Berger s Lilac and Flag 1992 and Divided Kingdom 2005 by Rupert Thomson The book includes chapters on the literary history of the dystopian tradition the referential interplay of maps and literature urban spaces in literature borders and transgressions and on systems theory as a tool for charting dystopian fiction The result is a detailed overview of how dystopian fiction constantly adapts to and reflects on the actual world

Literary Anthropology Fernando Poyatos,1988-01-01 The traditional gulf between the theory and practice of literature and the various areas subjoined under anthropology has hindered the development of some very fruitful perspectives in the realm of poetics and the general theory of literature particularly in its narrative forms Poyatos initial idea of literary anthropology as the study of people and their cultural manifestations through their national literatures without doubt the richest source of documentation of human life styles and the most advanced form of our projection in time and space and of communicating with contemporary and future generations has been enriched by the thoughts of a multi cultural group of scholars from both anthropology and literature who at a first symposium on the subject attempted to define this area leaving the way open to many more research possibilities
