Kornwolf, Georgiana Wallis Kornwolf, 2002 Incorporating more than 3 000 illustrations Kornwolf's work conveys the full range of the colonial encounter with the continent's geography from the high forms of architecture through formal landscape design and town planning From these pages emerge the fine arts of environmental design an understanding of the political and economic events that helped to determine settlement in North America an appreciation of the various architectural and landscape forms that the settlers created and an awareness of the diversity of the continent's geography and its peoples Considering the humblest buildings along with the mansions of the wealthy and powerful public buildings forts and churches Kornwolf captures the true dynamism and diversity of colonial communities their rivalries and frictions their outlooks and attitudes as they extended their hold on the land Old Plantation Houses in Louisiana William

Spratling, 1927 Charting the Plantation Landscape from Natchez to New Orleans Laura Kilcer VanHuss, 2021-05-05 Charting the Plantation Landscape from Natchez to New Orleans examines the hidden histories behind one of the nineteenth century South's most famous maps Norman's Chart of the Lower Mississippi River created by surveyor Marie Adrien Persac before the Civil War and used for decades to guide the pilots of river vessels Beyond its purely cartographic function Persac's map depicted a world of accomplishment and prosperity while concealing the enslaved and exploited laborers whose work powered the plantations Persac drew In this collection contributors from a variety of disciplines consider the histories that Persac's map omitted exploring plantations not as sites of ease and plenty but as complex legal political and medical landscapes Essays by Laura Ewen Blokker and Suzanne Turner consider the built and designed landscapes of plantations as they were structured by the logics and logistics of both slavery and the effort to present a facade of serenity and wealth William Horne and Charles D Chamberlain III delve into the political activity of formerly enslaved people and slaveholders respectively while Christopher Willoughby explores the ways the plantation health system was defined by the agro industrial environment Jochen Wierich examines artistic depictions of plantations from the antebellum years through the twentieth century and Christopher Morris uses the famed Uncle Sam Plantation to explain how plantations have been memorialized remembered and preserved With keen insight into the human cost of the idealized version of the agrarian South depicted in Persac's map Charting the Plantation Landscape encourages us to see with new eyes and form new definitions of what constitutes the plantation landscape Lost Plantations of the South Marc R. Matrana, 2009-01-01 The great majority of the South's plantation homes have been destroyed over time and many have long been forgotten In Lost Plantations of the South Marc R Matrana weaves together photographs diaries and letters architectural renderings and other rare documents to tell the story of sixty of these vanquished estates and the people who once called them home From plantations that were destroyed by natural disaster such as Alabama's Forks of Cypress to those that were intentionally demolished such as Seven Oaks in Louisiana and Mount Brilliant in Kentucky Matrana resurrects these lost mansions Including plantations throughout the South as well as border states Matrana carefully tracks the histories of each from the earliest days of construction to the often contentious struggles to preserve these irreplaceable historic treasures Lost Plantations of the South explores the root causes of demise and provides understanding and insight on how lessons learned in these sad losses can help prevent future preservation crises Capturing the voices of masters and mistresses alongside those of slaves and featuring more than one hundred elegant archival illustrations this book explores the powerful and complex histories of these cardinal homes across the South

The Louisiana Houses of A. Hays Town Cyril E. Vetter, 1999-03-01 A Hays Town changed the face of the Louisiana house In a career that includes designing more than five hundred homes he led architects builders and homeowners to embrace the finest elements of Louisiana s architectural past Almost every home built in Louisiana during the last twenty years is in some way inspired by Town s work The Louisiana Houses of A Hays Town honors his legacy as Louisiana s premier residential architect Color photographs of numerous homes including Town s own by Philip Gould combined with an illuminating text by Cyril E Vetter produce a volume that captures the appeal and beauty of the state s finest architectural tradition Born and raised in rural southwest Louisiana Hays Town graduated from Tulane University with a degree in architecture in 1926 and worked for a firm in Jackson Mississippi for many years He established his own successful commercial practice in Baton Rouge in 1939 but in the 1960s Town turned to his abiding passion residential architecture Throughout this chapter of his career he perfected his inimitable style and emerged as one of the most prominent architects in the South Town s residential designs are perceptibly influenced by the diverse culture of south Louisiana His synthesis of the classic Acadian cottage Spanish courtyards and exterior French doors with Creole influenced full length shutters achieves an original confluence of seemingly disparate yet elegantly balanced themes and forms Other Town trademarks include pigeonniers tree alleys thirteen foot ceilings heavy use of such woods as cypress and heart of pine plantation style separate structures and brick floors with a special beeswax finish The Louisiana Houses of A Hays Town illuminates the momentous effect Town has had on the look of Louisiana Crafted from the perspective of two people Vetter and Gould who are not architects but admirers of one man s exceptional talent this delightful book demonstrates that each Town house is a work of art that fits both person and terrain At the door of each home proud owners hang a bronze plaque that says it all A Hays Town Architect
