Love Daniel Wise,1850 Make Your Home in My Love Catherine Skinner Powell,2019-11-13 Are you living as God's burning bush without being consumed Or might you be headed toward burnout We will rediscover the blessing of this mutual love relationship with God overflowing to others as God's sheer gift Could it be that the first and greatest commandment is for our greatest joy and not some mysterious burden to fulfill One metaphor is the vine and the branches from John 15 1 11 Jesus is the vine and we are the branches apart from the vine the branch can do nothing God wants to be our supply our source in an intimate encounter of the finite with the infinite God was the source for these heroes of faith Augustine of Hippo Bernard of Clairvaux Catherine of Siena Ignatius of Loyola John Calvin and Teresa of Avila Using a descriptive process called the Classic Three Ways including the purgative letting go illuminative seeing with the heart and unitive intimacy dating back to around 500 CE we now add a fourth way the unitive active the dance From that dance of mutual love ministry overflows We do it together it is participatory humankind following God's lead It's not a formula It's our living God Arcana Coelestia Emanuel Swedenborg,1870 The Swedenborg Concordance John Faulkner Potts,1898 Summa Theologica: Second Part of the Second Part St. Thomas Aquinas,2018-02-06 The third volume in this epic and classic undertaking by one of the most notable theologians of the Roman Catholic Church This volume features theological considerations towards such topics as Virtues Fortitude and Temperance Graces and States of Life and other important topics that we often take for granted in our thinking in the church and in worship towards God These topics must be carefully considered if we are to ever have a deep understanding and love of the one true God and his son Jesus Christ Summa Theologica, Part II-II (Secunda Secundae) Thomas Aquinas,2021-12-12 Summa Theologica Part II II Secunda Secundae Thomas Aquinas The Summa Theologiae Latin Compendium of Theology or Theological Compendium also subsequently called the Summa Theologica or simply the Summa written 1265 1274 is the best known work of Thomas Aquinas c 1225 1274 and although unfinished one of the classics of the history of philosophy and one of the most influential works of Western literature It is intended as a manual for beginners in theology and a compendium of all of the main theological teachings of the Church It presents the reasoning for almost all points of Christian theology in the West The Summa's topics follow a cycle the existence of God Creation Man Man's purpose Christ the Sacraments and back to God courtesy of wikipedia com This is part 2 2 Secunda Secundae In a chain of acts of will man strives for the highest end They are free acts insofar as man has in himself the knowledge of their end and therein the principle of action In that the will wills the end it wills also the appropriate means chooses freely and completes the consensus Whether the act be good or evil depends on the end The human reason pronounces judgment concerning the character of the end it is therefore the law for action Human acts however are meritorious insofar as they promote the purpose of God and his honor By repeating a good action man acquires a moral habit or a quality which enables him to do the good gladly and easily This is true however only of the intellectual and moral virtues which Aquinas treats after the manner of Aristotle the theological virtues are imparted by God to man as a disposition from which the acts here proceed while they strengthen they do not form it The disposition of evil is the opposite alternative An act becomes evil through deviation from the reason and from divine moral law Selected Works Saint Fulgentius (Bishop of Ruspa),1997 This volume gives English readers for the first time an opportunity to study a representative selection of the writings of this early sixth century author It also presents Fulgentius s biography the Life for the first time in English The Priority of Love Timothy Patrick Jackson,2003 This book explores the relation between agape or Christian charity and social justice Timothy Jackson defines agape as the central virtue in Christian ethical thought and action and applies his insights to three concrete issues political violence forgiveness and abortion Taking his primary cue from the New Testament while drawing extensively from contemporary theology and philosophy Jackson identifies three features of Christian charity unconditional commitment to the good of others equal regard for others well being and passionate service open to self sacrifice for the sake of others Charity prescribed by Jesus for his disciples and named by Saint Paul as the greatest theological virtue is contrasted with various accounts of justice Jackson argues that agape is not trumped by justice or other goods Rather agape precedes justice without the work of love society would not produce persons capable of merit demerit and contract the elements of most modern conceptions of justice Jackson then considers the implications of his ideas for several questions the nature of God the relation between Christian love and political violence the place of forgiveness and the morality of abortion Arguing that agapic love is to be construed as a gift of grace as well as a divine commandment Jackson concludes that love is the eternal life that makes temporal existence possible and thus the first Christian virtue Though foremost a contribution to Christian ethics Jackson s arguments and the issues he takes up will find a broader readership
