Kuoshu, 2010-12-23 Metro Movies Cinematic Urbanism in Post Mao China takes readers on a comprehensive tour of the urbanization of Chinese cinema Focusing primarily on movies from the end of the twentieth century it is the first single authored work to explore the relationship between the changes in Chinese society caused in part by the advent of postsocialism the growth of cities and globalization and the transformation of Chinese cinema Author Harry H Kuoshu examines such themes as displacement cinematic representation youth subculture the private emotional lives of emerging urbanites raw urban realism and the allegorical contrast of the city and the countryside to illustrate the artistic richness and cultural diversity of this cinematic genre Kuoshu discusses the work of director Huang Jianxin whose films follow and critique China s changing urban political culture He dedicates a chapter to filmmakers who followed Huang and attempted to redefine the concept of art films to regain the local audience These directors address Chinese moviegoers disappointment with the international adoption of Chinese art films their lack of interest in conventional Chinese films and their fascination with emerging audio video media A considerable amount of attention is given to films of the 1990s which focus on the social changes surfacing in China from the trend of hooliganism and the Beijing rock scene to the arrival of an urban pop culture lifestyle driven by expansionist commerce and materialism Kuoshu also explores recent films that confront the seedier aspects of city life as well as films that demonstrate how urbanization has touched every fiber of Chinese living Metro Movies illustrates how cinematic urbanism is no longer a genre indicator but is instead an era indicator revealing the dominance of metropolitan living on modern Chinese culture It gives new insight into contemporary Chinese politics and culture and provides readers with a better understanding of China s urban cinema This book will be an excellent addition to college film courses and will fascinate any reader with an interest in film studies or Chinese culture Dark Kingdom Firestar, 2007-12 The year following my diagnosis of breast cancer having a total mastectomy and chemotherapy I felt as if I was out at sea in the midst of a storm The faster I ran from the darkness and turmoil the closer it came I was frightened but learned to depend on the energy of the Universe Accepting my new body image was very difficult Due to my insecurities low self esteem and self confidence I placed my marriage in jeporady I had to learn to trust in the positive energy of the Universe to help me heal I needed to allow God and His angels to take me in their hands and carry me Depending on the power of the Universe established inner strength and courage to be a survivor We have a choice in how we react and respond to situations the lessons that life presents to us Learning to let go of certain feeling and situations is difficult but it makes each day more peaceful and comfortable Everything happens for a reason and it is up to us to learn from the lessons which are presented to us You can be a survivor when you accept that being a survivor is a state of mind which is dictated by you and not others I realized that guilt and shame are wasted energy and I was loved and can love others Everyone s path in recovery and rediscovery will be different We cannot compare ourselves to others We are individuals with different childhood experiences different backgrounds personalities and with different support systems I hope that Journey to New Beginnings gives you a sense of comfort and hope Each year will be another path of learning experiencing the joys of living and life enjoying the extraordinary in the ordinary Drafts, Fragments, and Poems Joan Murray,2018-02-06

The first appearance of this award winning writer s work since the 1940s this collection which includes an introduction by John Ashbery restores Joan Murray s striking poetry to its originally intended form Though John Ashbery hailed Joan Murray as a key influence on his work Murray s sole collection Poems published after her death at the early age of twenty four and selected by W H Auden for inclusion in the Yale Series of Younger Poets has been almost entirely unavailable for the better part of half a century Poems was put together by Grant Code a close friend of Murray s mother and when Murray s papers long thought to be lost reappeared in 2013 it became clear that Code had exercised a heavy editorial hand This new collection edited by Farnoosh Fathi from Murray s original manuscripts restores Murray s raw lyricism and visionary lines while also including a good deal of previously unpublished work as well as a selection of her exuberant letters
