Discourse and Communication Teun A. van Dijk, 2011-07-13 No detailed description available for Discourse and Communication

Multimodal Film Analysis John Bateman, Karl-Heinrich Schmidt, 2013-06-17 This book presents a new basis for the empirical analysis of film Starting from an established body of work in film theory the authors show how a close incorporation of the current state of the art in multimodal theory including accounts of the syntagmatic and paradigmatic axes of organisation discourse semantics and advanced layout structure builds a methodology by which concrete details of film sequences drive mechanisms for constructing filmic discourse structures The book introduces the necessary background the open questions raised and the method by which analysis can proceed step by step Extensive examples are given from a broad range of films With this new analytic tool set the reader will approach the study of film organisation with new levels of detail and probe more deeply into the fundamental question of the discipline just how is it that films reliably communicate meaning

Women and Images of Men in Cinema Andreas Hamburger, 2018-05-08 Women and men in cinema are imaginary constructs created by filmmakers and their audiences The film psychoanalytic approach reveals how movies subliminally influence unconscious reception On the other hand the movie is embedded in a cultural tradition Jean Cocteau's film La Belle et la Bête 1946 takes up the classic motif of the animal groom from the story of Cupid and Psyche in Apuleius The Golden Ass originally a tale about the stunning momentum of genuine female desire liberates it from its baroque educational moral a girl's virtue and prudence will help her to overcome her sexual fears and turns it into a boyhood story inside the ugly rascal there is a good but relatively boring prince at least in comparison to the monsters of film history In the seventy years since it was made La Belle et la Bête has inspired numerous interpretations and has been employed by theorists of all genres and interests

Hermeneutics of the Film World Alberto Baracco, 2017-10-09 This book identifies a new methodological strategy for the interpretation of film philosophizing Many recent works in film philosophy adopting the approach identified with the term film as philosophy have considered film as capable of doing philosophy Focused on the basic relationship between film and filmgoer the proposed method is founded on the concept of the film world Combining Merleau-Ponty's and Ricoeur's philosophies and reconsidering Goodman's theory of worldmaking the film world becomes the hermeneutic horizon from which film philosophical thought can emerge The book shows how Ricoeurian methodology has the potential to provide a valuable resource for film studies by inviting scholars to consider film interpretation in terms of film world hermeneutics

The History of Cartography, Volume 6 Mark Monmonier, 2015-05-18 For more than thirty years the History of Cartography Project has charted the course for scholarship on cartography bringing together research from a variety of disciplines on the creation dissemination and use of maps Volume 6 Cartography in the Twentieth Century continues this tradition with a groundbreaking survey of the century just ended and a new full color encyclopedic format The twentieth century is a pivotal period in map history The transition from paper to digital formats led to previously unimaginable dynamic and interactive maps Geographic information systems radically altered cartographic institutions and reduced the skill required to create maps Satellite positioning and mobile communications revolutionized wayfinding Mapping evolved as an important tool for coping with complexity organizing knowledge and influencing public opinion in all parts of the globe and at all levels of society Volume 6 covers these changes comprehensively while thoroughly demonstrating the far reaching effects of maps on science technology and society and vice versa The lavishly produced volume includes more than five hundred articles accompanied by more than a thousand images Hundreds of expert contributors provide both original research often based on their own participation in the developments they describe and interpretations of larger trends in cartography Designed for use by both scholars and the general public this definitive volume is a reference work of first resort for all who study and love maps

The Film of the Islamic State Yorck Beese, 2024-05-27 The film of the so called Islamic State is part of the still relatively opaque history of radical Sunni Islamist video propaganda a field in which it is simultaneously its strongest exponent Through its imports of aesthetics in the age of digitalization and the concurrent deprofessionalization of film this violent propaganda film has interestingly drawn attention for its seeming likeness to Hollywood film an odd comparison that the Islamic State itself opposes through its own filmic antagonisms to commercial cinema In an intermittent attempt at attacking cinematic illusionism it has made increasing use of cinematic devices in order to communicate its violent and anti humanist ideology and has thereby entered a state of filmic self contradiction This book analyzes and uncovers the mechanisms and dynamics of ideological communication in the Islamic State s videos through a combined historical and neoformalist approach making them predictable for future researchers

The Pragmatics of Discourse Coherence

Helmut Gruber, Gisela Redeker, 2014-11-15 Over the past four decades discourse coherence has been studied from linguistic psycholinguistic computational and applied perspectives This volume identifies current issues and under researched topics in the pragmatics of discourse coherence Nine studies from various disciplines address the realization and signalling of coherence relations in various genres and languages their acquisition and use by first and second language learners and university students the relationship between coherence relations and genre specific discourse structure and extensions of the coherence paradigm to multimodal discourse and visual art This collection will be of interest to researchers from linguistics applied linguistics psychology communication and multimodal semiotics
