Mills College Yearbook 1930:

China Yearbook ,1943 Includes Who s who section California and the Making of Modern Sport Joel S. Franks,2025-09-30 This book examines the importance of California a socio cultural economic and political powerhouse in the history of modern sport It argues that California has had a profound influence for better or worse on the way that not only America but also the wider world plays sport and spends money to watch others play The book traces the history of sport in California from the mid nineteenth century to the present and looks at how the state s historical development its climate and its unique racial and ethnic demographics have influenced sport at the elite level and in the wider community It considers the importance of spatial politics and cultural citizenship in the development of Californian sport and tells the story of how franchises such as the 49ers and the Lakers as well as individual athletes such as Jackie Robinson and Billie Jean King have had a profound influence on the way their sports have been consumed across America and in the wider world The book also takes a close look at the impact of mega sporting events in the Californian story providing historical context for the LA 2028 Olympic Games and tracing the full arc of the Californization of modern sports This is fascinating reading for anybody with an interest in sport history American history social and cultural history or the relationship between sport and wider society American Women's Track and Field, 1895-1980 Louise Mead Tricard,1996-01-01 In 1895 the Vassar College Athletic Association ignored the constraints placed on women athletes of that era and held its first ever women s field day featuring competition in five track and field events Soon colleges across the country were offering women the opportunity to compete and in 1922 the United States selected 22 women to compete in the Women s World Games in Paris Upon their return female physical educators severely criticized their efforts decrying the evils of competition Wilma Rudolph s triumphant Olympics in 1960 sparked renewed support for women s track and field in the United States From 1922 to 1960 thousands of women competed and won many gold medals with little encouragement or recognition This work is a history based on many interviews and meticulous research in primary source documents of women s track and field from its beginnings on the lawns of Vassar College in 1895 through 1980 when Title IX began to create a truly level playing field for men and women The results of Amateur Athletic Union Women s Indoor and Outdoor Track and Field Championships since 1923 are given as well as full coverage of female Olympians Catalogers' and Classifiers' Yearbook ,1937 Current Biography Yearbook ,1971 Catalogers' and Classifiers' Yearbook American Library Association.
