Declensions of the Self Jean-Jacques Defert, Trevor Tchir, Dan Webb, 2009-10-02 This work is a collective reflection on the modern self as a narrative Modernity as a metamorphic conglomeration of permeating discourses new practices and institutional forms a historical unfolding of centrifugal and centripetal discursive dynamics of regulation and normalization offers limitless grounds for a critical investigation The modern self both as the revelation of the inner self and as a reflection of the collective arises from the dialogical interplay within the intersubjective communicative space of social discourse The bestiary proposed in this series of articles attempts to rethink the spectacle consisting of modern dichotomies by which the self is declined along ontological metaphysical and ethical premises the real and the ideal the said and the unsaid the rational and the irrational the bound and the free the familiar and the exotic the universal and the particular self and world The reader is therefore encouraged to engage in a multiple reading of the articles presented in this collection As individual scholarly pieces of inquiry these articles provide thoughtful insights into the inexhaustible topic of modernity and the modern subject they tell stories of the past the present and of a prospective future As academic works however they also reflect and or unsettle disciplinary paradigms and scholarly practices from which they acquire legitimacy and visibility they conform apply reconfigure and or experiment with new grounds by borrowing from an eclectic mix of various thinkers their tools and their axiomatic propositions that constitute their theoretical and critical apparatus This exercise is ultimately an introspective journey in which we are placed not only as the spectator the one who gazes through the bars but also the spectacle the beast subject to the gaze finding itself in a predicament of which the subject itself is the architect

The Eight Susan Saint Sing, 2010-03-11 A fascinating look at the 2008 Harvard Varsity Crew Team and the university's legendary history of accomplished rowers The Eight is a thrilling behind the scenes look at a group of young men who have given up nearly everything to transform themselves into the best team possible at arguably the world's most venerable rowing institution Harvard crew Through a blend of journalistic writing and historical narrative Saint Sing highlights their struggles and triumphs as she follows them through the spring season of 2008 This exclusive competitive world is illuminated as never before as the athletes race for the collegiate national championship and one former member achieves a historic first for Harvard a gold medal at the 2008 Olympic Games What these men go through physically to earn a seat in the Harvard first eight is just the beginning The real test of their mettle is the inner athlete called upon to make their dreams a reality in this very tense and dramatic world Susan Saint Sing's The Eight chronicles the drama of a full season of elite college racing including the bitter personal struggles and the team's pursuit of excellence
