The Empress and the Heavenly Masters Luk Yuping, 2016-02-16 Over twentyseven meters long the Ordination Scroll of Empress Zhang 1493 is an important Ming Dynasty Daoist artifact from the San Diego Museum of Art's collection that records the imperial ordination of Empress Zhang 1470 1541 consort of the Ming Dynasty Hongzhi emperor r 1488 1505 by Zhang Xuanqing d 1509 the fortyseventh Heavenly Master of the Zhengyi institution This book uncovers the history of imperial ordinations through a detailed examination of the scroll's transcriptions and the meticulously painted images of celestial beings as well as the influences of the Daoist leaders known as the Zhengyi Heavenly Masters Thriving in Crisis Dewei Zhang, 2020-05-19 Late imperial Chinese Buddhism was long dismissed as having declined from the glories of Buddhism during the Sui and Tang dynasties 581 907 In recent scholarship a more nuanced picture of late Ming era Buddhist renewal has emerged Yet this alternate conception of the history of Buddhism in China has tended to focus on either doctrinal contributions of individual masters or the roles of local elites in Jiangnan leaving unsolved broader questions regarding the dynamics and mechanism behind the evolution of Buddhism into the renewal Thriving in Crisis is a systematic study of the late Ming Buddhist renewal with a focus on the religious and political factors that enabled it to happen Dewei Zhang explores the history of the boom in enthusiasm for Buddhism in the Jiajing Wanli era 1522 1620 tracing a pattern of advances and retrenchment at different social levels in varied regions He reveals that the Buddhist renewal was a dynamic movement that engaged a wide swath of elites from emperors and empress dowagers to eunuchs and scholar officials Drawing on a range of evidence and approaches Zhang contends that the late Ming renewal was a politically driven exception to a longer term current of disfavor toward Buddhism and that it failed to establish Buddhism on a foundation solid enough for its future development A groundbreaking interdisciplinary study Thriving in Crisis provides a new theoretical framework for understanding the patterns of Buddhist history in China 陈朝天 chao tianle, 2025-01-20 Recalling the chaos in the Chinese music scene in later generations Shen Lang decided to rectify the Chinese music scene Transgressive Typologies Doran Doran, 2020-10-26 The exceptionally powerful Chinese women leaders of the late seventh and early eighth centuries including Wu Zhao the Taiping and Anle princesses Empress Wei and Shangguan Wan'er though quite prominent in the Chinese cultural tradition remain elusive and often misunderstood or essentialized throughout history Transgressive Typologies utilizes a new multidisciplinary approach to understand how these figures' historical identities are constructed in the mainstream secular literary historical tradition and to analyze the points of view that inform these constructions Using close readings and rereadings of primary texts written in medieval China through later imperial times this study elucidates narrative typologies and motifs associated with these women to explore how their power is rhetorically framed gendered and ultimately deemed transgressive Rebecca Doran offers a new understanding of major female figures of the Tang era within their literary historical contexts and delves into critical questions about the relationship between Chinese historiography reception history and the process of image making and cultural construction

Courtesans, Concubines, and the Cult of Female Fidelity Beverly Bossler, 2020-10-26 This book traces changing gender relations in China from the tenth to fourteenth centuries by examining three critical categories of women courtesans concubines and faithful wives It shows how the intersection and mutual influence of these groups and of male discourses about them transformed ideas about family relations and the proper roles of men and women Courtesan culture had a profound effect on Song social and family life as entertainment skills became a defining feature of a new model of concubinage and as entertainer concubines increasingly became mothers of literati sons Neo Confucianism the new moral learning of the Song was significantly shaped by this entertainment culture and by the new markets in women that it created Responding to a broad social consensus Neo Confucians called for enhanced recognition of concubine mothers in ritual and expressed increasing concern about wifely jealousy The book also details the surprising origins of the Late Imperial cult of fidelity showing that from inception the drive to celebrate female loyalty was rooted in a complex amalgam of political social and moral agendas By taking women and men s relationships with women seriously this book makes a case for the centrality of gender relations in the social political and intellectual life of the Song and Yuan dynasties Chanting the Medicine

Buddha Sutra Criddle, Reed, 2020-01-01 This edition comprising a sound recording transcription and English translation provides a record of the Liberation Rite of Water and Land as a resource for the study analysis and further exploration of both the Medicine Buddha Sutra and the accompanying liturgical service The editor created it at the invitation of Fo Guang Shan monastery and it outlines both the textual and musical elements of the service Designed as a chantbook it is intended to be a tool for all those who wish to participate in the vocal elements of the service from the uninitiated monastery visitor to musical ensembles that might use these musical fragments as inspiration for appropriately staged performances It is especially conceived for non Chinese speaking monastics in the Buddhist college and or those who have experience reading Western musical notation Peking Susan Naquin, 2001-01-15 The central character in Susan Naquin s extraordinary new book is the city of Peking during the Ming and Qing periods Using the city s temples as her point of entry Naquin carefully excavates Peking s varied public arenas the city s transformation over five centuries its human engagements and its rich cultural imprint This study shows how modern Beijing s glittering image as China s great and ancient capital came into being and reveals the shifting identities of a much more complex past one whose rich social and cultural history Naquin splendidly evokes Temples by providing a place where diverse groups could gather without the imprimatur of family or state made possible a surprising assortment of community building and identity defining activities By revealing how religious establishments of all kinds were used for fairs markets charity tourism politics and leisured sociability Naquin shows their decisive impact on Peking and at the same time illuminates their little appreciated role in Chinese cities generally Lacking most of the conventional sources for urban history she has relied particularly on a trove of commemorative inscriptions that express ideas about the relationship between human beings and gods about community service and public responsibility about remembering and being remembered The result is a book that will be essential reading in the field of Chinese studies for years to come The Figurative Works of Chen Hongshou (1599-1652) Tamara Heimarck Bentley, Hongshou

Chen, 2012 Despite the importance of Chen Hongshou 1599 1652 as an artist and scholar of the late Ming period until now no

full length study in English has focused on his work Author Tamara H Bentley takes a broadly interdisciplinary approach treating Chen s oeuvre in relation to literary themes and economic changes and linking these larger concerns to visual analyses In so doing Bentley sheds new light not only on Chen but also on an important cultural moment in the first half of the seventeenth century when Chinese scholar artists began to direct their work towards anonymous public markets
