Facilitating Technology Transfer through Partnership Tom McMaster, E. Mumford, E.B. Swanson, B. Warboys, David Wastell, 2016-01-09 The primary aim for this book is to gather and collate articles which represent the best and latest thinking in the domain of technology transfer from research academia and practice around the world We envisage that the book will as a result of this represent an important source of knowledge in this domain to students undergraduate and postgraduate researchers practitioners and consultants chiefly in the software engineering and IT industries but also in management and other organisational and social disciplines An important aspect of the book is the role that reflective practitioners and not just academics play They will be involved in the production and evaluation of contributions as well as in the design and delivery of conference events upon which of course the book will be based Diffusion of Innovations, 5th Edition Everett M. Rogers, 2003-08-16 Now in its fifth edition Diffusion of Innovations is a classic work on the spread of new ideas In this renowned book Everett M Rogers professor and chair of the Department of Communication Journalism at the University of New Mexico explains how new ideas spread via communication channels over time Such innovations are initially perceived as uncertain and even risky To overcome this uncertainty most people seek out others like themselves who have already adopted the new idea Thus the diffusion process consists of a few individuals who first adopt an innovation then spread the word among their circle of acquaintances a process which typically takes months or years But there are exceptions use of the Internet in the 1990s for example may have spread more rapidly than any other innovation in the history of humankind Furthermore the Internet is changing the very nature of diffusion by decreasing the importance of physical distance between people The fifth edition addresses the spread of the Internet and how it has transformed the way human beings communicate and adopt new ideas Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science Allen Kent, 2000-12-21 This encyclopaedia of library and information science explores business information visualization It offers guidance for research and practice to Virtual Reality Modelling Language VRML Business Models and Cognition Kristian J. Sund, Robert J. Galavan, Marcel Bogers, 2020-11-30 This collection reflects emerging research on the cognitive dimensions of business models and business model innovation Numerous scholars have over the past decade point to the promise of cognition theories to clarify business models This collection takes stock and provide examples of new developments
