Models Of The Church:

Models of the Church Avery Dulles, 1991-08-01 There is today a dramatic reexamination of structure authority dogma indeed every aspect of the life of the Church is held up to scrutiny Welcoming this as a sign of vitality Avery Dulles has carefully studied the writings of contemporary Protestant and Catholic ecclesiologists and sifted out six major approaches or models through which the Church's character can be understood as Institution Mystical Communion Sacrament Herald Servant and in a recent addition to the book as Community of Disciples A balanced theology he concludes must incorporate the major affirmations of each The method of models or types observes Cardinal Dulles can have great value in helping people to get beyond the limitations of their own particular outlook and to enter into fruitful conversation with others Such conversation is obviously essential if ecumenism is to get beyond its present impasses This new edition includes a new Appendix and Preface by the author

Models of the Church Avery Dulles, 1985 Models for Scripture John Goldingay, 2004 Looks at the task of interpreting Scripture as witnessing tradition authoritative canon inspired word and experienced revelation

A Charismatic Model of the Church David Y.T. Lee, 2018-06-11 Edward Irving 1792-1834 has been known as a controversial pastor theologian in nineteenth century Britain particularly given his belief that Christ took on sinful flesh in His incarnation This book focuses on Irving's teaching of the church as the body of Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit and the eschatological community in holiness It explores Irving's emphasis upon the exalted humanity of Christ after His resurrection in relation to the church Such a Christ-centred and Spirit-empowered concept of the church has relevance to the twenty first century church in China as the Chinese church leaders attempt to reconstruct a contemporary theology of the church Models of Jesus Revisited John F. O'Grady,1994 With this revised version of his Models of Jesus O Grady makes available a classic work that offers an extensive treatment of various models of Jesus that are not only possible but actual in the church today The author first surveys models of Jesus in the New Testament then examines six contemporary models of Jesus Models of Priestly Formation Declan Marmion,Michael Mullaney,Salvador Ryan,2019-06-25 The preparation of new priests for ministry currently faces closer scrutiny than at any time since the Reformation and the importance of effective priestly formation has perhaps never been clearer in the entire history of the Church In Models of Priestly Formation some of the world s leading experts on the topic consider priestly formation since Vatican II explore current best practices internationally and imagine what the future of such formation might look like The book promises to become an essential reference for every person involved in priestly formation and for anyone interested in understanding better how it is carried out and how those who do it think about their task The eBook edition includes four additional essays Models of the Eucharist, Second Edition Irwin, Kevin W.,2020 In this book updated with the texts of the third edition of the Roman Missal Kevin Irwin reflects on the jewel in the crown of Catholicism the celebration of the Eucharist His book theological pastoral and contemporary is essentially concerned with issues about the Eucharist that face us today decades after the truly historic and unprecedented revisions that took after the Second Vatican Council Some of these concerns are the result of unforeseen developments about the Eucharist resulting from other factors for example the decline in numbers of clergy which has led in some places to Sunday celebrations without the Mass Other concerns arise from a lack of proper catechesis about the Mass and a keen desire to understand why and how the Eucharist is at the center of Catholic life In addition to being expressly theological this book is also expressly pastoral in that it is a reflection on the life lived by the church as it enacts the Eucharist and seeks to live out what the Eucharist celebrates The book is aimed at the audience of educated Catholics who seek a deeper appreciation of what the Eucharist is and who want to appropriate that understanding in the way they live their lives This book will be of particular interest to pastoral ministers both those present and those in training and the communities of faith whom they serve An Introductory Dictionary of Theology and Religious Studies Orlando O. Espín,James B. Nickoloff,2007 Spanning the gamut from Aaron to Zwingli this dictionary includes nearly 3 000 entries written by about sixty authors all of whom are specialists in their various theological and religious disciplines The editors have designed the dictionary especially to aid the introductory level student with instant access to definitions of terms likely to be encountered in but not to substitute for classroom presentations or reading assignments Publisher

Models of the Church Avery Dulles,2002 The Art of Dialogue Ineke de Feijter,2007 Media and culture are deeply intertwined in contemporary society Religions have problems relating to this media culture which is shaped by media processes and conditioned by digital media and interactive forms of communication Media set the agenda and they profoundly challenge religions both with respect to their public communication and their very existence and public relevance. People increasingly use media for shaping their religious identity and their search with respect to questions of ultimate meaning. Barely any theological studies exist that reflect on religious policies and their subsequent praxis in the field of communication. The author analyzes Christian policy views and identifies the main problems and opportunities in relating to media culture. Being and Building up the Church in My Father's Home Alozie Oliver Onwubiko, 2020-06-03. The rehabilitation by St. Pope Paul VI of African traditional religions and cultures has made them more objective for theological and anthropological reflection. And the reflecting subject is a native African himself. And the repatriation of missiology into ecclesiology in the Catholic Church in the 21st Century is a new development and the result if it is what we have before us in this book. Here personal native anthropological and theological experience has combined with in-depth reading of the African novelists' necessarily biased distillation of African culture has nourished thinking and reflection at a new level in terms of ecclesial implications of living Christianity authentically and being and building the Church in my father's home. Models of Evangelism Priscilla Pope-Levison, 2020-10-27. Many sincere Christians dismiss evangelism due to enduring evangelistic caricatures. This book helps readers move beyond those caricatures to consider thoughtfully and practically how they can engage in evangelism whether it's through one-on-one conversations, social media, social justice, or the liturgy of worship services. At once biblical, theological, historical, and practical, this book by a seasoned scholar offers an engaging, well-researched, and well-organized presentation and analysis of eight models of evangelism. Covering a breadth of approaches from personal evangelism to media evangelism and everything in between, Priscilla Pope-Levison encourages readers to take a deeper look at evangelism and discover a model that captures their attention. Each chapter introduces and assesses a model biblically, theologically, historically, and practically, allowing for easy comparison across the board. The book also includes end-of-chapter study questions to further help readers interact with each model. The Church: A Guide for the Perplexed Matt Jenson, David Wilhite, 2010-10-14. A Convergent Model of Renewal C. Wess Daniels, 2015-02-20. A Convergent Model of Renewal addresses a perceived crisis for faith traditions: How do we continue to value tradition while allowing for innovative and contextual expressions of faith to emerge? How do we foster deeper participation and decentralization of power rather than entrenched institutionalism? Drawing on insights from contemporary philosophy, contextual theology, and participatory culture, C. Wess Daniels calls for a revitalization of faith traditions. In A Convergent Model of Renewal, he proposes a model that holds together both tradition and innovation in ways that foster participatory change. This convergent model of renewal is then applied to two case studies based in the Quaker tradition: one from the early part of the tradition and the second from an innovative community today. The model, however, is capable of being implemented and adapted by communities with various faith backgrounds. Faith Seeking Understanding Daniel L. Migliore, 2004-06-14. Daniel Migliore's Faith Seeking Understanding has been a standard introduction to Christian theology for more than a decade. The book's presentation of traditional doctrine in freshly contemporary ways its concern to hear and critically engage new voices in theology and its creative and accessible style have kept it one of the most stimulating balanced and readable guides to theology available This second edition of Faith Seeking Understanding features improvements from cover to cover Besides updating and expanding the entire text of the book Migliore has added two completely new chapters The first Confessing Jesus Christ in Context explores the unique contributions to Christian theology made by recent theologians working in the African American Asian American Latin American Hispanic feminist womanist and mujerista traditions The second new chapter The Finality of Jesus Christ and Religious Pluralism addresses the growing interest in the relationship of Christianity to other religions and their adherents Migliore's three delightful theological dialogues are followed by a new appendix an extensive glossary of theological terms making the book even more useful to students seeking to understand the history themes and challenges of Christian belief

Korean American Evangelicals New Models for Civic Life Elaine Howard Ecklund, 2006-11-09
Studies of religion among our nation's newest immigrants largely focus on how religion serves the immigrant community for example by creating job networks and helping retain ethnic identity in the second generation In this book Ecklund widens the inquiry to look at how Korean Americans use religion to negotiate civic responsibility as well as to create racial and ethnic identity She compares the views and activities of second generation Korean Americans in two different congregational settings one ethnically Korean and the other multi ethnic She also conducted more than 100 in depth interviews with Korean American members of these and seven other churches around the country and draws extensively on the secondary literature on immigrant religion American civic life and Korean American religion Her book is a unique contribution to the literature on religion race and ethnicity and on immigration and civic life
