Fables of Aesop, 2008-07-26 Fables of Aesop and others translated into English with instructive applications and a print before each fable by Samuel Croxall Aesop's Fables or Aesopica refers to a collection of fables credited to Aesop 620-560 BC a slave and story teller who lived in Ancient Greece Aesop's Fables have become a blanket term for collections of brief fables usually involving anthropomorphic animals His fables are some of the most well known in the world The fables remain a popular choice for moral education of children today Many stories included in Aesop's Fables such as The Fox and the Grapes from which the idiom sour grapes was derived The Tortoise and the Hare The North Wind and the Sun and The Boy Who Cried Wolf are well known throughout the world Sunday school tracts, moral, religious and entertaining, etc Henry George Watkins, 1823 Select Fables of Esop and Other Fabulists Robert Dodsley, Aesop, 1761 Select Fables of Esop & Other Fabulists ... Aesop, 1781 The History of the Death Penalty in Colorado Michael Radelet, 2017-01-15 In The History of the Death Penalty in Colorado noted death penalty scholar Michael Radelet chronicles the details of each capital punishment trial and execution that has taken place in Colorado since 1859 The book describes the debates and struggles that Coloradans have had over the use of the death penalty placing the cases of the 103 men whose sentences were carried out and 100 more who were never executed into the context of a gradual worldwide trend away from this form of punishment For more than 150 years Coloradans have been deeply divided about the death penalty with regular questions about whether it should be expanded restricted or eliminated It has twice been abolished but both times state lawmakers reinstated the contentious punitive measure Prison administrators have contributed to this debate with some refusing to participate in executions and some lending their voices to abolition efforts Colorado has also had a rich history of experimenting with execution methods first hanging prisoners in public and then starting in 1890 using the twitch up gallows for four decades In 1933 Colorado began using a gas chamber and eventually moved to lethal injection in the 1990s Based on meticulous archival research in official state archives library records and multimedia sources The History of the Death Penalty in Colorado will inform the conversation on both sides of the issue anywhere the future of the death penalty is under debate
