Modern Art In Thailand Nineteenth And Twentieth Centuries:

Modern Art in Thailand in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries Apinan Poshyananda, 1990 Modern Art in Thailand Apinan Poshyananda, 1992 Special attention is given in the early chapters to King Chulalongkorn whose patronage played a major role in disseminating Western art in Bangkok and to the Italian art teacher Silpa Bhirasri a pivotal figure in the institutional development of modern art in Thailand in the 1930s and 1940s Modern Art of Southeast Asia: Introductions from A to Z Roger Nelson, 2019-08-31 Modern Art of Southeast Asia Introductions from A to Z features 60 concise and accessibly written accounts of the key ideas and currents underlying modern art in the region These are accompanied by over 250 beautifully reproduced artworks from the collection of National Gallery Singapore and other public and private collections in Southeast Asia and beyond The book offers an informative first encounter with art as well as refreshing perspectives and is a rewarding resource for students Thai Art David Teh, 2017-03-31 The interplay of the local and the global in contemporary Thai art as artists strive for international recognition and a new meaning of the national Since the 1990s Thai contemporary art has achieved international recognition circulating globally by way of biennials museums and commercial galleries Many Thai artists have shed identification with their nation but Thainess remains an interpretive crutch for understanding their work In this book the curator and critic David Teh examines the tension between the global and the local in Thai contemporary art Writing the first serious study of Thai art since 1992 and noting that art history and criticism have lagged behind the market in recognizing it he describes the competing claims to contemporaneity as staked in Thailand and on behalf of Thai art elsewhere He shows how the values of the global art world are exchanged with local ones how they do and don't correspond and how these discrepancies have been exploited How can we make sense of globally circulating art without forgoing the interpretive resources of the local national or regional context Teh examines the work of artists who straddle the local and the global becoming willing agents of assimilation yet resisting homogenization He describes the transition from an artistic subjectivity couched in terms of national community to a more qualified postnational one against the backdrop of the singular but waning sovereignty of the Thai monarchy and sustained political and economic turmoil Among the national currencies of Thai art that Teh identifies are an agricultural symbology a Siamese poetics of distance and itinerancy and Hindu Buddhist conceptions of charismatic power Each of these currencies has been converted to a legal tender in global art signifying sustainability utopia the conceptual and the relational but what is lost and what may be gained in such exchanges Global Modern Art Margaret A. Richardson, 2025-08-29 This accessible foundational volume explores how modern art developed around the world by comparing contexts and artistic production in Europe the Americas Asia and Africa from the 1850s through the 1960s To provide a broader more comprehensive view of modern art both chronological and thematic approaches will be used and selections from all regions of the world will be included from Africa Asia the Americas as well as Europe Each section begins with an overview of the region leading into more detailed case studies of specific countries historical contexts including their cultural and aesthetic values and the ways in which cultures have interacted with regional neighbors and outside forces Examples of specific artists and groups will be discussed for each country and will illuminate themes that illustrate cultural distinctions and connect to broader modern trends traced throughout the text This book will be of interest to students and scholars working in art history modernism globalization and decolonization Woman, Man, Bangkok Scot Barmé,2002 During the early decades of the twentieth century Thailand's capital Bangkok took on an increasingly cosmopolitan character a development fueled both by global economic forces and a local revolution in communications The 1920s were a particularly dynamic period of social and cultural transformation that had a profound impact on the development of Thai modernity This book examines the growth of a polyphonous and often vociferous Thai public a public that used a range of new media outlets to express themselves and clamor for a more just and equitable social order Scot Barmé mines a rich lode of previously ignored cultural ephemera found in popular newspapers magazines novels short stories film booklets and cartoons to create a vibrant cultural history of early modern Thailand that moves beyond conventional elite based historical studies of the period By focusing on such controversies and conflicts as the status of women relations between the sexes class antagonisms and the growth of a commercial mass culture this book offers a new interpretation of the key decade of the 1920s and its significance for contemporary Thailand War

Memorialization and Nation-Building in Twentieth-Century Southeast Asia John Lee Candelaria,2025-02-18 War Memorialization and Nation Building in Twentieth Century Southeast Asia explores how three Southeast Asian countries the Philippines Thailand and Singapore have utilized war memorialization in their nation building efforts Set against the backdrop of colonialism world wars independence struggles and the Cold War the book interrogates how these nations war experiences have shaped national myths and legitimized state narratives Examining the role of state sponsored monuments and memorials in these countries the author sheds light on their impact on national identity formation state legitimacy and citizen unity Through these three distinct case studies the book highlights the complexity and diversity of memorialization practices within the region their intersections with state agendas and the international context that backdropped the region's nation building projects Utilizing war monuments and memorials as its primary data source the author explains the temporal dynamics of peace and conflict and the significance of tangible history in these nations He critically examines the transition from heroic to victimhood narratives in war memorialization and its implications for memory cultures and societies at large A unique study of the commemoration of war experiences in Southeast Asia this book offers a nuanced understanding of how war memories and memorialization practices have shaped and continue to influence Southeast Asia's political and social landscapes through the cases of the Philippines Thailand and Singapore It will be of interest to researchers studying Southeast Asian Studies History and International Relations Cultural Crisis and Social Memory Charles F. Keyes,Shigeharu Tanabe,2013-10-18 This book explores social memory in the context of cultural crises of modernity in Thailand and Laos It explicates the ways in which social memory constructed by the people enters modernity and how this in turn causes fundamental ruptures with their past as well as the various ways cultural crises are experienced in their lives The essays in this book consider how in these crises the people constitute their cultural social or individual identities particularly focusing on the theoretical issues of identifications and their relevance to distinct historical processes in Thailand and Laos Both countries particularly in the two decades since the 1970s have been undergoing radical social and economic changes Whilst Thailand has travelled down the road to industrialization neighbouring Laos experienced a communist revolution in 1975 and only since the late 1980s has attempted to follow a reformist path to development Increasingly influenced by globalised economic and social institutions both countries have come to face crises that have made people insecure in the present and anxious about the future

In the Cool Shade of Compassion Kamala Tiyavanich, 2018-09-04 A fascinating collection of stories of the Thai forest monks that illuminates the Thai Forest tradition as a vibrant compassionate and highly appealing way of life This work ingeniously intermingles real life stories about nineteenth and early twentieth century Buddhist monks in old Siam today s Thailand with experiences recorded by their Western contemporaries Stories of giant snakes bandits boatmen midwives and guardian spirits collectively portray a Buddhist culture in all its imaginative and geographical brilliance By juxtaposing these eyewitness accounts Kamala Tiyavanich presents a new and vivid picture of Buddhism as it was lived and of the natural environments in which the Buddha s teachings were practiced This book was previously published under the title The Buddha in the Jungle

Architects of Buddhist Leisure Justin Thomas McDaniel, 2018-04-30 Buddhism often described as an austere religion that condemns desire promotes denial and idealizes the contemplative life actually has a thriving leisure culture in Asia Creative religious improvisations designed by Buddhists have been produced both within and outside of monasteries across the region in Nepal Japan Korea Macau Hong Kong Singapore Laos Thailand and Vietnam Justin McDaniel looks at the growth of Asia s culture of Buddhist leisure what he calls socially disengaged Buddhism through a study of architects responsible for monuments museums amusement parks and other sites In conversation with noted theorists of material and visual culture and anthropologists of art McDaniel argues that such sites highlight the importance of public leisure and spectacle culture from a Buddhist perspective and illustrate how secular and religious public and private are in many ways false binaries Moreover places like Lek Wiriyaphan s Sanctuary of Truth in Thailand Su i Ti n Amusement Park in Saigon and Shi Fa Zhao s multilevel museum ritual space tea house in Singapore reflect a growing Buddhist ecumenism built through repetitive affective encounters instead of didactic sermons and sectarian developments They present different Buddhist traditions images and aesthetic expressions as united but not uniform collected but not concise Together they form a gathering not a movement Despite the ingenuity of lay and ordained visionaries like Wiriyaphan and Zhao and their colleagues Kenzo Tange Chan soo Park Tadao Ando and others discussed in this book creators of Buddhist leisure sites often face problems along the way Parks and museums are complex adaptive systems that are changed and influenced by budgets available materials local and global economic conditions and visitors Architects must often compromise and settle at local optima and no matter what they intend their buildings will develop lives of their own Provocative and theoretically innovative Architects of Buddhist Leisure asks readers to question the very category of religious architecture It challenges current methodological approaches in religious studies and speaks to a broad audience interested in modern art architecture religion anthropology and material culture Theravāda Buddhist Encounters with Modernity Juliane Schober, Steven Collins, 2017-09-14 Although recent scholarship has shown that the term Therav da in the familiar modern sense is a nineteenth and twentieth century construct it is now used to refer to the more than 150 million people around the world who practice that form of Buddhism Buddhist practices such as meditation amulets and merit making rituals have always been inseparable from the social formations that give rise to them their authorizing discourses and the hegemonic relations they create This book is composed of chapters written by established scholars in Buddhist studies who represent diverse disciplinary approaches from art history religious studies history and ethnography It explores the historical forces both external to and within the tradition of Therav da Buddhism and discusses how modern forms of Buddhist practice have emerged in South and Southeast Asia in case studies from Nepal to Sri Lanka Burma Cambodia and Southwest China Specific studies contextualize general trends and draw on practices institutions and communities that have been identified with this civilizational tradition throughout its extensive history and across a highly diverse cultural geography This book foreground diverse responses among Therav dins to the encroaching challenges of modern life ways communications and political organizations and will be of interest to scholars of Asian Religion Buddhism and South and Southeast Asian Studies Realism in Asia Yeo Wei Wei, 2010 What is the place of realism in Asian art histories What is the real How do reality and realism relate and differ The six essays in the present volume explore the manifestations of realism in Asian art relating this art of description to issues of colonialism world and civil wars nation building religion and contemporary culture in Asia Power, Identity, and the Rise of Modern Architecture Koompong Noobanjong, 2003 This dissertation examines the evolution of Western and Modern architecture in Siam and Thailand It illustrates how various architectural ideas have contributed to the physical design and spatial configuration of places associated with negotiation and allocation of political power which are throne halls parliaments and government and civic structures since the 1850s Architecture of Thailand Nithi Sathāpitānon, Brian Mertens, 2012 Beginning with a history of the country and its cultural influences this book describes and illustrates a range of structures from Thai houses to elaborate temples and even crematoriums It concludes with a look at contemporary Thai architecture and how traditional architecture practices have been adapted to suit modern needs The Making of Saints James F Hopgood, 2005-04-24 A multidisciplinary study of the commonalities between heroes icons saints and their institutions across several cultures Modern Asian Art John Clark, 1998-01-01 A seminal publication focusing on the modern art of Japan China India
