Schwartz, 2023-09-01 Casting aside the traditional conception of film as an outgrowth of photography theater and the novel the essays in this volume reassess the relationship between the emergence of film and the broader culture of modernity Contributors leading scholars in film and cultural studies link the popularity of cinema in the late nineteenth century to emerging cultural phenomena such as window shopping mail order catalogs and wax museums Casting aside the traditional conception of film as an outgrowth of photography theater and the novel the essays in this volume reassess the relationship between the emergence of film and the broader culture of modernity Contributors leading scholars Film in the Post-Media Age Ágnes Pethő, 2012-03-15 Ever since the centenary of cinema there have been intense discussions in the field of film studies about the imminent demise of the cinematic medium endless articles championing the spirit of genuine cinephilia have proclaimed the death of classical cinema and mourned the end of an era while new currents in media studies introduced such buzzwords into the discussions as remediation Bolter and Grusin media convergence Jenkins post media aesthetics Manovich or the virtual life of film Rodowick By the turn of the millennium the whole ecosystem of media had been radically altered through processes of hybridization and media convergence Some theorists even claim that now that the term medium has triumphed in the discussions around contemporary art and culture the actual media have already deceased as digitized imagery absorbs all media Moving images have entered the art galleries and new forms of inter art relationships have been forged They have also moved into the streets and our everyday life as a domesticated medium at everybody s reach into new private and public environments and into a fusion of both via the Internet Consequently should we speak of an all pervasive cinematic experience instead of a cinematic medium What really happens to film once its traditional medium has shape shifted into various digital forms and once its traditional locations institutions and usages have been uprooted What do these re locations and re configurations really entail What are the most important new genres in post media moving pictures Is it the web video is it 3D cinema is it the computer game that operates with moving image narratives is it the new vernacular database the DVD or the good old television adjusted to all these new forms How does theatrical cinema itself adapt to or reflect on these new image forms and technologies How can we interpret the convergence of older cinematic forms with an emerging digital aesthetics traceable in typical post media hosts of moving images These are only some of the major questions that the theoretical investigation and in depth analyses in this volume try to answer in an attempt at exploring not the disappearance of cinema but the blooming post media life of film Cinepoetry Christophe Wall-Romana, 2013-01-28 Cinepoetry analyzes how French poets have remapped poetry through the lens of cinema for more than a century In showing how poets have drawn on mass culture technology and material images to incorporate the idea technique and experience of cinema into writing Wall Romana documents the long history of cross media concepts and practices often thought to emerge with the digital In showing the cinematic consciousness of Mallarm and Breton and calling for a reappraisal of the influential poetry theory of the early filmmaker Jean Epstein Cinepoetry reevaluates the bases of literary modernism The book also explores the crucial link between trauma and trans medium experiments in the wake of two world wars and highlights the marginal identity of cinepoets who were often Jewish gay foreign born or on the margins What results is a broad rethinking of the relationship between film and literature The episteme of cinema the book demonstrates reached the very core of its supposedly highbrow rival while at the same time modern poetry cultivated the technocultural savvy that is found today in slams e poetry and poetic digital hybrids

Photography and Cinema Teresa M. Flores,Joana Cunha Leal,Margarida Medeiros,2015-09-18 Eclecticism seems to be one of the most recognized features of Chris Marker s work He is often presented as a filmmaker and a photographer a poet a translator a cartoonist a visual artist an editor a software designer and a television and video director Given the 50 years since the release of his most well known film La Jet e 1963 this volume fosters discussion of the intertwining of photography and cinema within a framework that analyses Marker s influence in film and photography s scholarship In the last ten years many books have been published on the subjects of photography and Cinema of Ozu Yasujiro Woojeong Joo,2017-05-18 A re interpretation of the master of Japanese cinema from a socio historical perspective One of the most well regarded of non Western film directors responsible for acknowledged classics like Tokyo Story 1953 Ozu Yasujiro worked during a period of immense turbulence for Japan and its population This book offers a new interpretation of Ozus career from his earliest work in the 1920s up to his death in 1963 focusing on Ozus depiction of the everyday life and experiences of ordinary Japanese people during a time of depression war and economic resurgence Firmly situating him within the context of the Japanese film industry Woojeong Joo examines Ozus work as a studio director and his relation to sound cinema and looks in depth at his wartime experiences and his adaptation to post war Japanese society Drawing on Japanese materials not previously examined in western scholarship this is a ground breaking new study of a master of cinema Case studies include Ozus shAshimin films Ozus wartime films including the script of The Flavour of Green Tea over Rice Postwar script of The Moon Has Risen Tokyo Story Cinematic Interfaces Seung-hoon Jeong,2013-07-11 In this book Seung hoon Jeong introduces the cinematic interface as a contact surface that mediates between image and subject proposing that this mediation be understood not simply as transparent and efficient but rather as asymmetrical ambivalent immanent and multidirectional Jeong enlists the new media term interface to bring to film theory a synthetic notion of interfaciality as underlying the multifaceted nature of both the image and subjectivity Drawing on a range of films Jeong examines cinematic interfaces seen on screen and the spectator s experience of them including the direct appearance of a camera filmstrip screen the character s bodily contact with such a medium interface the object s surface and the subject s face as quasi interface and the image itself Each of these case studies serves as a platform for remapping and revamping major concepts in film studies such as suture embodiment illusion signification and indexicality Looking to such theories as the ontology of the image and the phenomenology of the body this original theorization of the cinematic interface not only offers a conceptual framework for rethinking and re linking film and media studies but also suggests a general theory of the interface

Rites of Realism Ivone Margulies,2003-03-27 A collection of essays rethinking and reviving realism as a focus for film theory particularly emphasizing the relation of the genre to issues of the body

Agnes Varda between Film, Photography, and Art Rebecca J. DeRoo,2017-10-17 Agn s Varda is a prolific film director photographer and artist whose cinematic career spans more than six decades Today she is best known as the innovative mother of the French New Wave film movement of the 1950s and 60s and for her multimedia art exhibitions Varying her use of different media she is a figure who defies easy categorization In this extensively researched book Rebecca J DeRoo demonstrates how Varda draws upon the histories of art photography and film to complicate the overt narratives in her works and to advance contemporary cultural politics Based on interviews with Varda and unparalleled access to Varda s archives this interdisciplinary study constructs new frameworks for understanding one of the most versatile talents in twentieth and twenty first century culture

BOOK JACKET Camera ,1929 Cinematic Representations of Women in Modern Celebrity Culture, 1900-1950 María Cristina C. Mabrey,Leticia Pérez Alonso,2022-04-19 The purpose of this edited volume is to explore the contributions of women to European Mexican American and Indian film industries during the years 1900 to 1950 an important period that signified the rise and consolidation of media technologies Their pioneering work as film stars writers directors designers and producers as well as their endeavors to bridge the gap between the avant garde and mass culture are significant aspects of this collection This intersection will be carefully nuanced through their cinematographic production performances and artistic creations Other distinctive features pertain to the interconnection of gender roles and moral values with ways of looking which paves the way for realigning social and aesthetic conventions of femininity Based on this thematic and diverse sociocultural context this study has an international scope their main audiences being scholars and graduate students that pursue to advance interdisciplinary research in the field of feminist theory film gender media and avant garde studies Likewise historians art and literature specialists will find the content appealing to the degree that intermedial and cross cultural approaches are presented philosophical investigation into the differing sensations of time in cinema and photography Throughout the work Sutton connects and grounds cinema and photography as starting points to comprehend how we come to terms ultimately with time itself as pure immanent change Contemporary Art, World Cinema, and Visual Culture Hamid

Keshmirshakan,2019-03-29 Contemporary Art World Cinema and Visual Culture Essays by Hamid Dabashi is a collection of writings by the acclaimed cultural critic and scholar A thorough Introduction rigorously frames chapters and identifies in Dabashi s writings a comprehensive approach which forms the criteria for selecting the essays for the volume The Introduction also teases out of these essays the overarching theme that holds them together the manner they inform a particularly critical angle in them and the way they cohere The Introduction dwells on the work of one scholar public intellectual and theorist of modern and contemporary arts to extrapolate more universal issues of concern to art criticism in general These scattered materials and their underlying theoretical and critical logic are a unique contribution to the field of modern and contemporary arts The Uncanny Nicholas Royle,2003 This is the first book length study of the uncanny an important concept for contemporary thinking and debate across a range of disciplines and discourses including literature film architecture cultural studies philosophy psychoanalysis and queer theory Much of this importance can be traced back to Freud s essay of 1919 The uncanny where he was perhaps the first to foreground the distinctive nature of the uncanny as a feeling of something not simply weird or mysterious but more specifically as something strangely familiar As a concept and a feeling however the uncanny has a complex history going back to at least the Enlightenment Nicholas Royle offers a detailed historical account of the emergence of the uncanny together with a series of close readings of different aspects of the topic Following a major introductory historical and critical overview there are chapters on the death drive d j vu silence solitude and darkness the fear of being buried alive doubles ghosts cannibalism telepathy and madness as well as more applied readings concerned for example with teaching politics film and religion This is a major critical study that will be welcomed by students and academics but will also be of interest to the general reader The SAGE Handbook of Film Studies James Donald,Michael Renov,2008-04-16 Written by a team of veteran scholars and exciting emerging talents The SAGE Handbook of Film Studies maps the field internationally drawing out regional differences in the way that systematic intellectual reflection on cinema and film has been translated into an academic discipline It examines the conversations between Film Studies and its contributory disciplines that not only defined a new field of discourse but also modified existing scholarly traditions It reflects on the field s dominant paradigms and debates and evaluates their continuing salience Finally it looks forward optimistically to the future of the medium of film the institution of cinema and the discipline of Film Studies at a time when the very existence of film and cinema are being called into question by new technological industrial and aesthetic developments Ventriloquism, Performance, and Contemporary Art Jennie Hirsh,Isabelle Loring Wallace,2023-05-31 Ventriloquism Performance and Contemporary Art volume calls attention to the unexpected prevalence of ventriloqual motifs and strategies within contemporary art Engaging with issues of voice embodiment power and projection the case studies assembled in this volume span a range of media from painting sculpture and photography to installation performance architecture and video Importantly they both examine and enact ventriloquial practices and do so as a means of interrogating and performatively bearing out contemporary conceptions of authorship subjectivity and performance Put otherwise the chapters in this book oscillate seamlessly between art history theory and criticism through both analytical and performative means Across twelve essays on ventriloquism in contemporary art the authors who are curators historians and artists shine light on this outdated practice repositioning it as a conspicuous and meaningful trend within a range of artistic practices today This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history contemporary art media studies performance museum curatorial studies and theater
