Modern Colonization R.J. Harrison Church, 2025-10-01 First published in 1951 Modern Colonization breaks new ground in British geographical literature since it aims at outlining the geographical factors in colonization particularly that of the tropics French geographers have contributed much to what they have termed colonial geography but this is the first British study and follows a plan different from that of any French writer The first chapters review the unfortunate lack of our work in this field and define the content of the subject geographical factors in the evolution of past and present empires are briefly summarized Succeeding chapters are devoted to the physical social and economic geography of colonization including colonial transport Finally some political aspects are reviewed such as colonial frontiers and colonies in world strategy

Modern Colonization by Medical Intervention Nicole Trujillo-Pagan, 2013-09-12 Modern Colonization by Medical Intervention adds to our understanding of the political and economic transformations establishing colonial modernity in Puerto Rico By focusing on influential physicians clinical work and their access to a remote and inaccessible rural population this volume details how rural areas suffered the ravages of social dislocation unemployment and hunger The colonial administration's hookworm campaign involved many Puerto Rican physicians in complex struggles with other elites rural peasants and U S colonial administrators for political legitimacy Puerto Rican physicians did not gain the professional autonomy their counterparts in the United States enjoyed Instead they became centrally implicated in the struggle between labor and capital enforcing the island's subordination to a colonial modernity and the development of capitalism on the island

Historical Archaeology of Early Modern Colonialism in Asia-Pacific Maria Cruz Berrocal, Cheng-hwa Tsang, 2017-12-28 The essential source for scholarly reassessment of the Asia Pacific region's diverse and significant archaeology and history James P Delgado coauthor of The Maritime Landscape of the Isthmus of Panama Underpins a nuanced picture of Asia Pacific that shows how the activities of the Chinese and Japanese in East Asia the spread of Islam from South Asia and the efforts of the Iberians and especially the Spanish from southern Europe ushered in a world of complex interaction and rapid and often profound change in local regional and wider cultural patterns Ian Lilley editor of Archaeology of Oceania Australia and the Pacific Islands The history of Asia Pacific since 1500 has traditionally been told with Europe as the main player ushering in a globalized capitalist world But these volumes help decentralize that global history revealing that preexisting trade networks and local authorities influenced the region before and long after Europeans arrived In the volume The Southwest Pacific and Oceanian Regions case studies from Alofi Vanuatu the Marianas Hawaii Guam and Taiwan compare the development of colonialism across different islands Contributors discuss human settlement before the arrival of Dutch French British and Spanish explorers tracing major exchange routes that were active as early as the tenth century They highlight rarely examined sixteenth and seventeenth century encounters between indigenous populations and Europeans and draw attention to how cross cultural interaction impacted the local peoples of Oceania The volume The Asia Pacific Region looks at colonialism in the Philippines China Japan and Vietnam emphasizing the robust trans regional networks that existed before European contact Southeast Asia had long been influenced by Buddhist Hindu and Muslim traders in ways that helped build the region s ethnic and political divisions Essays show the complexity and significance of maritime trade during European colonization by investigating galleon wrecks in Manila Japan s porcelain exports and Spanish coins discovered off China s coast Packed with archaeological and historical evidence from both land and underwater sites impressive in geographical scope and featuring perspectives of scholars from many different countries and traditions these volumes illuminate the often misunderstood nature of early colonialism in Asia Pacific

Colonization and Subalternity in Classical Greece Gabriel Zuchtriegel,2018 By taking a look at colonization and subalternity this book offers a different view on Classical Greece and its modern legacy

Archaeologies of Early Modern Spanish Colonialism Sandra Montón-Subías,María Cruz Berrocal,Apen Ruiz Martínez,2016-02-22 Archaeologies of Early Modern Spanish Colonialism illustrates how archaeology contributes to the knowledge of early modern Spanish colonialism and the first globalization of the 16th and 17th centuries Through a range of specific case studies this book offers a global comparative perspective on colonial processes and colonial situations and the ways in which they were experienced by the different peoples But we also focus on marginal unsuccessful colonial episodes Thus some of the papers deal with very brief colonial events even marginal in some cases considered failures by the Spanish crown or even undertook without their consent These short events are usually overlooked by traditional historiography which is why archaeological research is particularly important in these cases since archaeological remains may be the only type of evidence that stands as proof of these colonial events At the same time it critically examines the construction of categories and discourses of colonialism and questions the ideological underpinnings of the source material required to address such a vast issue Accordingly the book strikes a balance between theoretical methodological and empirical issues integrated to a lesser or greater extent in most of the chapters

Portuguese and Spanish Asia Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      The Making of Modern Libya Ali Abdullatif Ahmida, 2011-03-23 The Making of Modern Libya is a thorough examination of the social cultural and historical background of modern Libya Ali Abdullatif Ahmida examines the reaction of the ordinary Libyan people to colonialism and nationalism from the early nineteenth century through the end of anticolonial resistance to the rise of the modern Libyan state in 1951 Weaving together insights drawn from Arabic French English and Italian sources he challenges Eurocentric theories of social change that ignore the internal dynamics of native social history Among other things he shows that Sufi Islam tribal military organization and oral traditions were crucial in the fight against colonialism The political and cultural legacy of the resistance has been powerful strengthening Libyan nationalism and leading to the revival of strong attachments to Islam The memory of this period has not yet faded and appreciation of this background is essential to understanding modern Libya This new edition also investigates Libya's postcolonial nationalist policies bringing the argument up to the present      Private Colonization of Land Richard Theodore Ely, 1918      Colonization and Colonial Government John Elliott Cairnes, 1864      The Ashgate Research Companion to Modern Imperial Histories John Marriott, 2016-03-23 Written by leading scholars this collection provides a comprehensive and authoritative overview of modern empires Spanning the era of modern imperial history from the early sixteenth century to the present it challenges both the rather insular focuses on specific experiences and gives due attention to imperial formations outside the West including the Russian Japanese Mughal Ottoman and Chinese The companion is divided into three broad sections Part I Times surveys the three main eras of modern imperialism The first was that dominated by the settlement impulse with migrants many voluntarily and many more by force making new lives in the colonies This impulse gave way most especially in the nineteenth century to a period of busy and rapid expansion which was less likely to promote new settlement and in which colonists more frequently saw their sojourn in colonial lands as temporary and related to the business mostly of governance and trade Lastly in the twentieth century in particular empires began to fail and to fall Part II Spaces studies the principal imperial formations of the modern world Each chapter charts the experience of a specific empire while at the same time placing it within the complex patterns of wider imperial constellations The individual chapters thus survey the broad dynamics of change within the empires themselves and their relationships with other imperial formations and reflect critically on the ways in which these topics have been approached in the literature In Part III Themes scholars think critically about some of the key features of imperial expansion and decline These chapters are brief and many are provocative They reflect the current state of the field and suggest new lines of inquiry which may follow from more comparative perspectives on empire The broad range of themes captures the vitality and diversity of contemporary scholarship on questions of empire and colonialism encompassing political economic and cultural processes central to the formation and maintenance of empires as well as institutions ideologies and social categories that shaped the lives both of those implementing and those experiencing the force of empire In these pages the reader will find the slave and the criminal the merchant and the maid the scientist and the artist alongside the structures which sustained their lives and their livelihoods Overall the companion emphasises the diversity of imperial experience and process Comprehensive in its scope it draws attention to the particularities of individual empires rather than over generalising as if all empires at all times and in all places behaved in a similar manner It is this contingent and historical specificity that enables us to explore in expansive ways precisely what constituted the modern empire

Freedom, Imprisonment, and Slavery in the Pre-Modern World Albrecht Classen, 2021-04-19 Contrary to common assumptions medieval and early modern writers and poets often addressed the high value of freedom whether we think of such fable authors as Marie de France or Ulrich Bonerius Similarly medieval history knows of numerous struggles by various peoples to maintain their own freedom or political independence Nevertheless as this study illustrates throughout the pre modern period the loss of freedom could happen quite easily affecting high and low including kings and princes and there are many literary texts and historical documents that address the problems of imprisonment and even enslavement Georgius of Hungary Johann Schiltberger Hans Ulrich Krafft etc Simultaneously philosophers and theologians discussed intensively the fundamental question regarding free will e g Augustine and political freedom e g John of Salisbury Moreover quite a large number of major pre modern poets spent a long time in prison where they composed some of their major works Boethius Marco Polo Charles d Orlans Thomas Malory etc This book brings to light a vast range of relevant sources that confirm the existence of this fundamental and impactful discourse on freedom imprisonment and enslavement Prof Albrecht Classen is the joint winner of The Literary Encyclopedia book prize for 2023 Literatures written in languages other than English for this book https://www.litencyc.com/book/prizes/book\_prizes\_2023.php

Domestic Colonies Barbara Arneil, 2017-09-29 Modern colonization is generally defined as a process by which a state settles and dominates a foreign land and people This book argues that through the nineteenth and into the first half of the twentieth centuries thousands of domestic colonies were proposed and or created by governments and civil society organizations for fellow citizens as opposed to foreigners and within their own borders rather than overseas Such colonies sought to solve every social problem arising within industrializing and urbanizing states Domestic Colonies argues that colonization ought to be seen during this period as a domestic policy designed to solve social problems at home as well as foreign policy designed to expand imperial power Three kind of domestic colonies are analysed in this book labour colonies for the idle poor farm colonies for the mentally ill and disabled and utopian colonies for racial religious and political minorities All of them were justified by an ideology of colonialism that argued if people were segregated in colonies located on empty land and engaged in agrarian labour this would improve both the people and the land Key domestic colonialists analysed in this book include Alexis de Tocqueville Abraham Lincoln Peter Kropotkin Robert Owen and Booker T Washington The turn inward to colony thus requires us to rethink the meaning and scope of colonization and colonialism in modern political theory and practice
