Technical Abstract Bulletin , Diversification in Modern Language Teaching Caroline Filmer-Sankey, David Phillips, 2023-04-21 As the effects of European integration become more widely felt the effective teaching of modern languages is moving towards the centre of the educational agenda and more and more schools are considering starting pupils on a first foreign language other than French a development encouraged by the National Curriculum orders in Modern Languages Diversification in Modern Language Teaching gives language teachers and heads of department the evidence upon which to decide if diversification is right for them It looks at the factors which effect children s learning in this area and at the managerial issues both within and outside the school Throughout it argues that the decision must be a purely educational one based on pupil motivation and accessibility as well as on particular local strengths among staff and parents

The Cambridge Companion to the Novel Eric Bulson, 2018-06-30 This Companion focuses on the novel as a global genre with a 2 000 year history The first section includes an examination of the various genres out of which it emerged epic history romance the picaresque and the different ways in which fiction and realism magical hyper and social were developed in response to specific political social and economic forces The second section focuses on how the novel works considering how it has played a crucial role in the formation of more abstract social political and familial identities The third section considers what the novel has become and will continue to become in the twenty first century It examines the recent interest in graphic novels as well as data digitization and a global literary marketplace s role in shaping the future of the novel This book will be a key resource for students and scholars studying the novel as a genre Modelling and Assessing Second Language Acquisition Kenneth Hyltenstam, Manfred Pienemann, 1985 This book forms an invaluable reference work for all teachers of second languages and researchers in the field of L2 acquisition It discusses the contribution that modern research into L2 acquisition makes to the curriculum development process It also provides the reader with arguments for and against the various approaches to teaching Proceedings of the 20th AsiaTEFL-68th TEFLIN-5th iNELLTAL

Shaolin Brew Troy D. Smith, 2024-06-17 Shaolin Brew Race Comics and the Evolution of the Superhero looks at how the comic book industry developed from a white perspective and how minority characters were and are viewed through a stereotypical white gaze Further the book explores how voices of color have launched a shift in the industry taking nonwhite characters who were originally viewed through a white lens and situating them outside the framework of whiteness The financial success of Blaxploitation and Kung Fu films in the early 1970s led to major comics publishers creating for the first time Black and Asian superhero characters who headlined their own comics The introduction of Black and Asian main characters who previously only served as guest stars or sidekicks launched a new kind of engagement between comics companies and minority characters and readers However scripted as they were by white writers these characters were mired in stereotypes Author Troy D Smith focuses on Asian Black and Latinx representation in the comic industry and how it has evolved over the years Smith explores topics that include Orientalism whitewashing Black respectability politics the model minority myth and political controversies facing fandoms In particular Smith examines how fans take the superheroes they grew up with such as Luke Cage Black Lightning and Shang Chi and turn them into the characters they wished they had as children Shaolin Brew delves into the efforts of fans of color who urged creators to make these characters more realistic This refining process increased as more writers and artists of color broke into the industry bringing their own perspectives to the characters As many of these characters transitioned from page to screen a new generation of writers artists and readers have cooperated to evolve one dimensional stereotypes into multifaceted dynamic heroes University Bibliography Columbia University. Libraries, 1910 A listing of the publications of the university including official publications departmental publications alumni and student publications publications of the officers and dissertations Bibliography in Britain, 1972

Poetry as Resistance Nukhbah Taj Langah, 2020-11-29 Focusing on the culturally and historically rich Siraiki speaking region often tagged as South Punjab this book discusses the ways in which Siraiki creative writers have transformed into political activists resisting the self imposed domination of the Punjabi Mohajir ruling elite Influenced by Sufi poets their poetry takes the shape of both protest and dialogue This book reflects upon the politics of identity and the political complications which are a result of colonisation and later neo colonisation of Pakistan It challenges the philosophy of Pakistan a state created for Muslims which is now taking the shape of religious fanaticism while disregarding ethnic and linguistic issues such as that of Siraiki The Literary Subversions of Medieval Women Jane Chance, 2007-08-06 This study of medieval women as postcolonial writers defines the literary strategies of subversion by which they authorized their alterity within the dominant tradition To dismantle a colonizing culture they made public the private feminine space allocated by gender difference they constructed unhomely spaces They inverted gender roles of characters to valorize the female they created alternate idealized feminist societies and cultures or utopias through fantasy and they legitimized female triviality

the homely female space to provide autonomy While these methodologies often overlapped in practice they illustrate how cultures impinge on languages to create what Deleuze and Guattari have identified as a minor literature specifically for women as dis placed Women writers discussed include Hrotsvit of Gandersheim Hildegard of Bingen Marie de France Marguerite Porete Catherine of Siena Margery Kempe Julian of Norwich and Christine de Pizan South Asian Regionalism Bhumitra Chakma,2020-07-22 Leading South Asia expert Bhumitra Chakma explains the politics of regionalism in South Asia and traces the origins and evolution of the South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation SAARC from its inception to the present day He takes an International Relations perspective and engages three major IR theoretical approaches neorealism institutionalism and constructivism to explain the complex dynamics of South Asian regionalism Using comparative perspectives based on the experiences of similar regional organizations the author provides an in depth analysis of the challenges of cooperation in the region and explores how progress might be made in the future The Oxford Handbook of Developmental Psychology, Vol. 1 Philip David Zelazo,2013-03-21 This handbook provides a comprehensive survey of what is now known about psychological development from birth to biological maturity and it highlights how cultural social cognitive neural and molecular processes work together to yield human behavior and changes in human behavior Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1971 Endless Flight Keiron Pim,2022-10-06 The brilliant mercurial self mythologising novelist and journalist Joseph Roth author of the European 20th century masterpiece The Radetzky March was an observer and chronicler of his times Born and raised in Galicia on the eastern edge of the Austro Hungarian Empire his life s decline mirrored the collapse of civilised Europe in his last peripatetic years he was exiled from Germany his wife driven into an asylum and he died an alcoholic on the eve of the World War II With keen insight rigor and sensitivity Keiron Pim delivers a visceral portrait of Roth s internal restlessness and search for belonging from his childhood in the town of Brody to his Vienna years and his unsettled roaming of Europe Exploring the role of Roth s absent father in his imaginings and his attitude to his Jewishness Roth s biography has particular relevance to us now not only in the growing recognition and revival of his works but also because his life s trajectory speaks powerfully to us in a time of uncertainty fear refugee crises and rising ethno nationalism The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1919
