Modern Nature Derek Jarman,1991-01-01      Derek Jarman Michael Charlesworth,2011-11-15 Derek Jarman 1942-94 is known as one of Europe's greatest independent film makers his films call into question and reconsider the nature of filmmaking itself But as Michael Charlesworth shows in this new biography Jarman was also a painter writer gardener set designer and an influential campaigner for gay rights and other social causes Charlesworth discusses the entire diverse range of Jarman's works in order to provide a thorough portrait from childhood to his untimely death Charlesworth is the first scholar to properly integrate Jarman's paintings and writings with his films demonstrating the strong connections between his varied areas of artistic practice He also draws invaluable insights from Jarman's extraordinary series of journals that offer a look into the nature of the society in which he lived as well as his own creative process And through the thoughts and memories of Jarman's friends Charlesworth reveals how Jarman was an important voice on behalf of many one who espoused love and friendship while fearlessly campaigning for the virtues and the value of art in an often hostile and unappreciative political and social atmosphere Fresh in its conclusions and engaging in style Derek Jarman is an accessible and thought provoking analysis of Jarman's phenomenal creativity and a perfect complement to Jarman's works      Derek Jarman's Visionary Arts Michael Charlesworth,2024-05-16 Derek Jarman's place in the history of film is assured by virtue of his vibrant defiant films that experiment with the very process of film making and create new forms His paintings their excitements and their profundity are less well known Michael Charlesworth sheds light on the varied ramifications of Jarman's artistic practice from his years at Prospect Cottage Dungeness and provides the first book length study of his interest in depth psychology He draws on Jarman's paintings especially his landscapes from the 1960s and 70s his multiple series such as black and broken glass GBH Queer and Evil Queen and his last Ecstatic Landscapes 1991-3 He also showcases Jarman's excellence as a writer with respect to his memoir Kicking the Pricks In a novel approach to Jarman's cinema selecting films such as Journey to Avebury 1973 Caravaggio 1986 The Garden 1990 and Blue 1993 Charlesworth emphasizes themes and artistry rather than narrative Exploring the ways in which Jungian and post Jungian psychology were absorbed into Jarman's varied works Derek Jarman's Visionary Arts provides a fresh perspective on his painting film and writing It celebrates him as one of the major British artists of the late 20th century engaging with current debates about queer sexualities environmentalism and climate catastrophe      The Garden Retreat in Asia and Europe Yue Zhuang,Alasdair Forbes,Michael Charlesworth,2025-01-23 The Garden Retreat in Asia and Europe explores the meaning of gardens and designed landscapes as places of retreat and refuge in times of need or emergency In the current times of war pandemic climate change and global anxiety the value of the garden as a sanctuary a space where we can find refuge in a natural environment has taken on new and poignant meanings and has attracted increasing academic interest Multidisciplinary and multicultural in scope this book explores the meaning of gardens and designed landscapes as places of retreat and refuge in times of need or emergency Examining perspectives from scholars including art historians architects philosophers landscape architects and garden practitioners it reassess the restorative impact of the garden whether understood from an individual cultural or environmental point of view Ranging widely across Asia and Europe its chapters examine ideas narratives and practices from the 4th century Chinese poet Tao Yuanming to the 12th century Iranian polymath Omar Khayyam through to the late 20th century British artist and film maker Derek Jarman Drawing upon traditional Asian philosophies like Buddhism Daoism and Sufism and combining these with more recent western philosophies the aim is to question how the unique virtues of gardens and designed landscapes can help to poise educate and possibly transform attitudes and behaviours in a time of personal environmental or cultural crisis At once poetic scholarly and rigorous this book provides insightful reading for students and researchers in landscape architecture garden history architectural history art history and cultural history

Visions of Queer Martyrdom from John Henry Newman to Derek Jarman Dominic Janes, 2015-04-27 With all the heated debates around religion and homosexuality today it might be hard to see the two as anything but antagonistic But in this book Dominic Janes reveals the opposite Catholic forms of Christianity he explains played a key role in the evolution of the culture and visual expression of homosexuality and male same sex desire in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries He explores this relationship through the idea of queer martyrdom closeted queer servitude to Christ a concept that allowed a certain degree of latitude for the development of same sex desire Janes finds the beginnings of queer martyrdom in the nineteenth century Church of England and the controversies over Cardinal John Henry Newman's sexuality He then considers how liturgical expression of queer desire in the Victorian Eucharist provided inspiration for artists looking to communicate their own feelings of sexual deviance After looking at Victorian monasteries as queer families he analyzes how the Biblical story of David and Jonathan could be used to create forms of same sex partnerships Finally he delves into how artists and writers employed ecclesiastical material culture to further queer self expression concluding with studies of Oscar Wilde and Derek Jarman that illustrate both the limitations and ongoing significance of Christianity as an inspiration for expressions of homoerotic desire Providing historical context to help us reevaluate the current furor over homosexuality in the Church this fascinating book brings to light the myriad ways that modern churches and openly gay men and women can learn from the wealth of each other's cultural and spiritual experience

New Queer Cinema B. Ruby Rich, 2013-03-26 B Ruby Rich designated a brand new genre the New Queer Cinema NQC in her groundbreaking article in the Village Voice in 1992 This movement in film and video was intensely political and aesthetically innovative made possible by the debut of the camcorder and driven initially by outrage over the unchecked spread of AIDS The genre has grown to include an entire generation of queer artists filmmakers and activists As a critic curator journalist and scholar Rich has been inextricably linked to the New Queer Cinema from its inception This volume presents her new thoughts on the topic as well as bringing together the best of her writing on the NQC She follows this cinematic movement from its origins in the mid 1980s all the way to the present in essays and articles directed at a range of audiences from readers of academic journals to popular glossies and weekly newspapers She presents her insights into such NQC pioneers as Derek Jarman and Isaac Julien and investigates such celebrated films as Go Fish Brokeback Mountain Itty Bitty Titty Committee and Milk In addition to exploring less known films and international cinemas including Latin American and French films and videos she documents the more recent incarnations of the NQC on screen on the web and in art galleries

Straight Girls and Queer Guys Pullen Christopher Pullen,2016-01-18 Exploring the archetypal representation of the straight girl with the queer guy in film and television culture from 1948 to the present day Straight Girls and Queer Guys considers the process of the hetero media gaze and the way it contextualizes sexual diversity and gender identity Offering both an historical foundation and a rigorous conceptual framework Christopher Pullen draws on a range of case studies including the films of Doris Day and Rock Hudson the performances of Kenneth Williams television shows such as Glee Sex and the City and Will and Grace the work of Derek Jarman and the role of the gay best friend in Hollywood film Critiquing the representation of the straight girl and the queer guy for its relation to both power and otherness this is a provocative study that frames a theoretical model which can be applied across diverse media forms

Film and the Imagined Image Sarah Cooper,2019-07-03 From documentary to art house cinema and from an abundance of onscreen images to their complete absence films that experiment variously with narration voice over and soundscapes do not only engage viewers thoughts and senses They also make an appeal to visualise more than is perceptible on screen This book explores the extraordinary ways in which film can stimulate and direct the image making capacity of the imagination Bringing together an international range of films with debates in philosophy film theory literary scholarship and cognitive psychology author Sarah Cooper charts the key processes that serve the imagining of images in the light of the mind Through its navigation of a labile and vivid mental terrain this innovative work makes a profound contribution to the study of spectatorship The Assassin's Cloak Irene Taylor, Alan Taylor, 2020-11-05 A diary is an assassin's cloak which we wear when we stab a comrade in the back with a pen wrote William Soutar in 1934 But a diary is also a place for recording everyday thoughts and special occasions private fears and hopeful dreams The Assassin's Cloak gathers together some of the most entertaining and inspiring entries for each day of the year as writers ranging from Queen Victoria to Andy Warhol Samuel Pepys to Adrian Mole pen their musings on the historic and the mundane Spanning centuries and international in scope this peerless anthology pays tribute to a genre that is at once the most intimate and public of all literary forms This new updated edition is published to mark the twentieth anniversary of the book's original publication Shakespearean Echoes Kevin J. Wetmore Jr., 2015-05-07 Shakespearean Echoes assembles a global cast of established and emerging scholars to explore new connections between Shakespeare and contemporary culture reflecting the complexities and conflicts of Shakespeare's current international afterlife

Postcolonial Nations, Islands, and Tourism Helen Kapstein, 2017-07-11 Postcolonial Nations Islands and Tourism examines how real and literary islands have helped to shape the idea of the nation in a postcolonial world Through an analysis of a variety of texts ranging from literature to prison correspondence to tourist questionnaires it exposes the ways in which nationalism relies on fictions of insularity and intactness which the island and island tourism appear to provide The island space seems to offer the ideal replica of the nation and tourist practices promise the liberation of leisure the gaze and mobility However the very reliance on the constantly shifting and eroding island form exposes an anxiety about boundaries and limits on the part of the postcolonial nation In appropriating island tourism the new nation tends to recapitulate the failures and crises of the colonial nation before it Starting with the first literary tourist Robinson Crusoe Postcolonial Nations Islands and Tourism goes on to show how authors such as JM Coetzee Romesh Gunsekera and Julian Barnes have explored the outlines and implications of islandness It argues that each text expresses a profound discomfort with national form by undoing the form of the island through a variety of narrative strategies and rhetorical manoeuvres By throwing the category of the island into crisis these texts let uncertainties about the postcolonial nation and its violent practices emerge as doubt in the narratives themselves Finally in its selection of texts that shuttle between South Africa Great Britain and Sri Lanka equalizing the former colonial metropole and its outposts it offers an alternative disciplinary mapping of current postcolonial writing Racine's Tragedies of Tyranny, 2024-04-22 In Bajazet and Mithridate Racine depicts the tragedies of characters who either wield tyrannic power or are subjected to tyranny This international collection of essays deploys cutting edge research to illuminate the plays and their contexts The contributors to this volume examine Racine's stagecraft his exploration of space sound and silence his language and the psychology of those who exercise power or who attempt to maintain their freedom in the face of oppression The reception and reworking of his plays by contemporaries and subsequent generations round off this wide ranging study Sex, Time and Place Simon Avery, Katherine M. Graham, 2016-10-06 Sex Time and Place extensively widens the scope of what we might mean by queer London studies Incorporating multidisciplinary perspectives including social history cultural geography visual culture literary representation ethnography and social studies this collection asks new questions widens debates and opens new subject terrain Featuring essays from an international range of established scholars and emergent voices the collection is a timely contribution to this growing field Its essays cover topics such as activist and radical communities and groups AIDS and the city art and literature digital archives and technology drag and performativity lesbian Londons notions of bohemianism and deviancy sex reform and research and queer Black history Going further than the existing literature on Queer London which focuses principally on the experiences of white gay men in a limited time frame Sex Time and Place reflects the current state of this growing and important field of study It will be of great value to scholars students and general readers who have an interest in queer history London studies cultural geography visual cultures and literary criticism Georgic Literature and the Environment Sue Edney, Tess Somervell, 2022-11-18 This expansive edited collection explores in depth the georgic genre and its connections to the natural world Together its chapters demonstrate that georgic a genre based primarily on two classical poems about farming Virgil's Georgics and Hesiod's Works and Days has been reworked by writers throughout modern and early modern English language literary history as a way of thinking about humans relationships with the environment The book is divided into three sections Defining Georgic Managing Nature and Eco Georgic for the Anthropocene It centres the georgic genre in the ecocritical conversation giving it equal prominence with pastoral elegy and lyric as an example of nature writing that can speak to urgent environmental questions throughout literary history and up to the present day It provides an overview of the myriad ways georgic has been reworked in order to address human relationships with the environment through focused case studies on individual texts and authors including James Grainger William Wordsworth Henry David Thoreau George Eliot Thomas Hardy Seamus Heaney Judith Wright and Rachel Blau DuPlessis This is a much needed volume for literary critics academics and students engaged in ecocritical studies environmental humanities and literature addressing a significantly overlooked environmental literary genre All the Living and the Dead Hayley Campbell, 2022-08-16 A deeply compelling exploration of the death industry and the people morticians detectives crime scene cleaners embalmers executioners who work in it and what led them there We are surrounded by death It is in our news our nursery rhymes our true crime podcasts Yet from a young age we are told that death is something to be feared How are we supposed to know what we're so afraid of when we are never given the chance to look Fueled by a childhood fascination with death journalist Hayley Campbell searches for answers in the people who make a living by working with the dead Along the way she encounters mass fatality investigators embalmers and a former executioner who is responsible for ending sixty two lives She meets gravediggers who have already dug their own graves visits a cryonics facility in Michigan goes for late night Chinese with a homicide detective and questions a man whose job it is to make crime scenes disappear Through Campbell s incisive and candid interviews with these people who see death every day she asks Why would someone choose this kind of life Does it change you as a person And are we missing something vital by letting death remain hidden A dazzling work of cultural criticism All the Living and the Dead weaves together reportage with memoir history and philosophy to offer readers a fascinating look into the psychology of Western death
