The History of Modern Korean Fiction (1890-1945) Young Min Kim, 2020-11-09 This book explores the history of modern Korean literature from a sociocultural perspective Rather than focusing solely on specific authors and their works Young Min Kim argues that the development of modern media shifting conceptualizations of the author and a growing mass readership fundamentally shaped the types of narratives that appeared at the turn of the twentieth century In particular Kim follows the trajectory of the sin sosol new fiction as it meshed with the new print and media culture to give rise to innovative and hybrid genres and literary styles In doing so he compellingly illuminates the relationship between literary systems and forms and underscores the necessity of re locating literary texts in their sociohistorical contexts

Modern Korean Literature Chung Chong-Wha, 2012-10-12 The sixth book in Kegan Paul International's Korean Culture Series this volume contains thirty stories that have been selected on the basis of historical interest and literary worth each representing a monumental moment in the history of Korean Literature The ten stories in the first part share the common theme of the Korean experience of the confrontation between man and woman in some stories the relationship is portrayed as innocent and pure in others the relationship becomes more sophisticated and complex The ten stories in the second part all deal with old Korean or the old Korean way of life the Korea of bygone days which is gradually disappearing in the face of industrialization and internationalization The third group of stories reveals modern Korea in the process of change during the period of the Japanese Occupation the liberation from the Occupation and the Korean War All thirty stories may serve as social documents From the time of ideological chaos following

Under Heaven: A Modern Korean Novel Man-Sik Chae, Kyung-Ja Chun, 2015-07-17 Originally published in Seoul in 1938 soon after the outbreak of the Pacific War Peace Under Heaven is a satirical novel centering on the household of a Korean landlord during the Japanese colonial occupation Master Yun embodying the traditional ambitions of a standard Korean paterfamilias by being projected fast forward into a modern urban environment caricatures the increasing irrelevance of Confucian mores to 20th century social reality Depicting the anomic lives of the Yun household in colonial Seoul Chase Man Sik one of modern Korea's best known writers uses black comedy to underscore the collapse of ritualistic traditional values in the face of capitalist modernisation The decadence of the nouveau riche pseudo aristocrat Master Yun is interwoven with insights into the customary bases of oppression of Korean women into the self deceptions underlying collaboration by Koreans with the Japanese oppressor The savage hilarity of Chae's style lends force and historical relevance to his insight into the attitudes of the milieu in which his narrative is set Kinship Novels of Early Modern Korea Ksenia

Chizhova, 2021-01-12 The lineage novel flourished in Korea from the late seventeenth to the early twentieth century These vast works unfold genealogically tracing the lives of several generations New storylines often written by different authors follow the lives of the descendants of the original protagonists offering encyclopedic accounts of domestic life cycles and relationships Elite women transcribed these texts which span tens and even hundreds of volumes in exquisite vernacular calligraphy and transmitted them through generations in their families In Kinship Novels of Early Modern Korea Ksenia Chizhova foregrounds lineage novels and the domestic world in which they were read to recast the social transformations of Chosŏn Korea and the development of early modern Korean literature She demonstrates women's centrality to the creation of elite vernacular Korean practices and argues that domestic focused genres such as lineage novels commemorative texts and family tales shed light on the emergence and perpetuation of patrilineal kinship structures The proliferation of kinship narratives in the Chosŏn period illuminates the changing affective contours of familial bonds and how the domestic space functioned as a site of their everyday experience Drawing on an archive of women centered elite vernacular texts Chizhova uncovers the structures of feelings and conceptions of selfhood beneath official genealogies and legal statutes revealing that kinship is as much a textual as a social practice Shedding new light on Korean literary history and questions of Korea s modernity this book also offers a broader lens on the global rise of the novel Korea Journal ,1983
