The Culture and Development Manifesto Robert Klitgaard, 2021 With fascinating examples from around the world this inspiring manifesto shows how to account for cultural diversity in reshaping economic and political development Around the world the realities of underdevelopment are harsh and galling and current strategies are not working well enough or quickly enough One reason Robert Klitgaard argues in this pathbreaking book is that the strategies don't take cultural diversity into account Gently but firmly he shows how and why anthropology and cultural studies have not been effectively applied But it need not be so The Culture and Development Manifesto shows how to mobilize knowledge from and for the disadvantaged the indigenous and the voiceless Looking beyond interactions between cultural contexts and particular projects Klitgaard seeks new ways to think about goals new kinds of alternatives new and perhaps hybrid ways to implement or resist and as a result new kinds of politics In short this remarkable book fundamentally re-envisions what development policy can be

Modern Gnosis and Zionism Yotam Hotam, 2013-05-20 In the late nineteenth and early twentieth century the German intellectual world was challenged by a growing distrust in the rational ideals of the enlightenment and consequently by a belief in the existence of a radical cultural crisis One response to this crisis was the emergence of Life Philosophy which celebrated the irrational expressive instinctive and spontaneous while rejecting the rational conscious and logical Around the same time and place Zionist thought crystallized It discussed issues like the Jewish essence the creation of a new Jewish person and a new Jewish community return to the Jewish homeland and the negation of the diasporic way of life This book explores the connections between Zionism and Life Philosophy and argues that Life Philosophy represents a modern secularized version of gnostic dualism between God and world and that this was a particular secular impulse that lay at the core of the Zionist political mission Consisting of two main sections the book first shows the manner in which Life Philosophy should be understood as a modern secularized gnostic theology before concluding by discussing its political Zionist interpretation Drawing on published works of a wide range of thinkers and intellectuals alongside a variety of unpublished materials this book will be welcomed by students and scholars of Jewish studies the philosophy of Judaism and religion and philosophy more generally

World Anglophone Studies Pavan Kumar Malreddy, Frank Schulze-Engler, 2024-10-30 This book explores core issues in the emerging field of World Anglophone Studies. It shows that traditional frameworks based on the colonial and imperial legacies of English need to be revised and extended to understand the complex adaptations, iterations and incarnations of English in the contemporary world. The chapters in this volume make three significant interventions in the field. First, they showcase the emergence of Anglophone literatures and cultures in parts of the world not traditionally considered Anglophone: Cuba, the Arab world, the Balkan region, Vietnam, Algeria, and Belize, among others. Second, they feature new zones of contact and creolization between Anglophone literatures, cultures, and languages such as Swahili, Santhali, Ojibway, and Hindi, as well as Anglophone representations of colonial encounters and contemporary experiences in non-Anglophone settings such as Cuba, Angola, and Algeria. And finally, the volume turns to Anglophone literary and cultural productions on new platforms such as social media and Netflix, and highlights the role of English in emergent sites of resistance involving women, Indigenous populations, queer, and other non-heteronormative sexualities, as well as post-conflict societies. Mapping linguistic transgressions and the transmigration of cultural tropes between Englishes, vernaculars, and a wide variety of other languages, with a rich set of case studies, this volume will be essential reading for courses such as world literatures in English, postcolonial studies, Anglophone studies, literature and culture, Indian Ocean worlds, Global Englishes, and Global South studies.

Between Manuscript and Print Sylvia Brockstieger, Paul Schweitzer-Martin, 2023-07-24 A cross-cultural comparative view on the transition from a predominant culture of handwriting to a predominant culture of print in the late medieval and early modern periods is provided here, combining research on Christian and Jewish European book culture with findings on East Asian manuscript and print culture. This approach highlights interactions and interdependencies instead of retracing a linear process from the manuscript book to its printed successor. While each chapter is written as a disciplinary study focused on one specific case from the respective field, the volume as a whole allows for transcultural perspectives. It thereby not only focusses on change but also on simultaneities of manuscript and printing practices, as well as on shifts in the perception of media, writing surfaces, and materials. Which values did writers, printers, and readers attribute to the handwritten and printed materials? For which types of texts was handwriting preferred or perceived as suitable? How and under which circumstances could handwritten and printed texts coexist even within the same document, and which epistemic dynamics emerged from such textual assemblages?
