Reconsidering Colonial Heritage in West African Cities Krzysztof Górny, 2023-12-12 The material heritage of the colonial era is built into Africa's cities from their urban layouts to their architecture monuments and street names This book discusses the varying responses to colonial heritage in West African cities with a particular focus on the case studies of Praia in Cape Verde Dakar in Senegal and Banjul in The Gambia Europeans tended to focus on cities as centres of administration and they were often both the starting points for settlement and the locations in which power was formally handed over to new African governments Colonialism in Praia Dakar and Banjul was abolished at different times under different colonial powers Portuguese French and British and amongst vastly different conditions of unrest Based on extensive original research this book demonstrates that the contemporary approach to the contentious issue of urban colonial heritage is often determined by metropolis colony relationship before decolonisation postcolonial diplomatic relations as well as present day political decisions The book uncovers a rich relationship between politics and urban space and between new and old Combining insights from political sciences history critical geography heritage studies and urban planning this book will be of interest to a wide range of researchers

Bearing Witness Wendy Griswold, 2018-06-05 Greed frustrated love traffic jams infertility politics polygamy These together with depictions of traditional village life and the impact of colonialism made familiar to Western readers through Chinua Achebe's writing are the stuff of Nigerian fiction Bearing Witness examines this varied content and the determined people who against all odds write publish sell and read novels in Africa's most populous nation Drawing on interviews with Nigeria's writers publishers booksellers and readers surveys and a careful reading of close to 500 Nigerian novels from lightweight romances to literary masterpieces Wendy Griswold explores how global cultural flows and local conflicts meet in the production and reception of fiction She argues that Nigerian readers and writers form a reading class that unabashedly believes in progress rationality and the slow but inevitable rise of a reading culture But they do so within a society that does not support their assumptions and does not trust literature making them modernists in a country that is simultaneously premodern and postmodern Without privacy reliable electricity political freedom or even social toleration of bookworms these Nigerians write and read political satires formula romances war stories complex gender fiction blood and sex crime capers nostalgic portraits of village life and profound explorations of how decent people get by amid urban chaos Bearing Witness is an inventive and moving work of cultural sociology that may be the most comprehensive sociological analysis of a literary system ever written

Cities in Motion Su Lin Lewis, 2016-07-19 In the 1920s and 1930s the port cities of Southeast Asia were staging grounds for diverse groups of ordinary citizens to experiment with modernity as a rising Japan and American capitalism challenged the predominance of European empires after the First World War Both migrants and locals played a pivotal role in shaping civic culture Moving away from a nationalist reading of the period Su Lin Lewis explores layers of cross cultural interaction in various spheres the urban built environment civic associations print media education popular culture and the emergence of the modern woman While the book focuses on Penang Rangoon and Bangkok three cities born amidst British expansion to the region it explores connected experiences across Asia and in Asian intellectual enclaves in Europe Cosmopolitan sensibilities were severely tested in the era of post colonial nationalism but are undergoing a resurgence in Southeast Asia s civil society and creative class today Sex, politics and empire Richard Phillips,2018-02-01 Colonial governments institutions and companies recognised that in many ways the effective operation of the Empire depended upon sexual arrangements For example nuclear families serving agricultural colonization and prostitutes working for single men who powered armies and plantations mines and bureaucracies For this reason they devised elaborate systems of sexual governance such as attending to marriage and the family However they also devoted disproportionate energy to marking and policing the sexual margins In Sex Politics and Empire Richard Phillips investigates controversies surrounding prostitution homosexuality and the age of consent in the British Empire and revolutionises our notions about the importance of sex as a nexus of imperial power relations

Church, State, and the Crisis in American Secularism Bruce Ledewitz,2011-06-01 Since 1947 the Supreme Court has promised government neutrality toward religion but in a nation whose motto is In God We Trust and which pledges allegiance to One Nation under God the public square is anything but neutral a paradox not lost on a rapidly secularizing America and a point of contention among those who identify all expressions of religion by government as threats to a free society Yeshiva student turned secularist Bruce Ledewitz seeks common ground for believers and nonbelievers regarding the law of church and state He argues that allowing government to promote higher law values through the use of religious imagery would resolve the current impasse in the interpretation of the Establishment Clause It would offer secularism an escape from its current tendency toward relativism in its dismissal of all that religion represents and encourage a deepening of the expression of meaning in the public square without compromising secular conceptions of government Cleavage, Connection and Conflict in Rural, Urban and Contemporary Asia Tim Bunnell,D. Parthasarathy,Eric C.

Thompson,2012-12-11 Asia the location of the world s fastest growing economies is also home to some of the fastest rates of urbanization humanity has ever seen a process whose speed renders long term outcomes highly unpredictable This volume contrasts with much published work on the rural urban divide which has tended to focus on single case studies It provides empirical perspectives from four Asian countries India Indonesia Malaysia and Thailand and includes a wealth of insights that both critique and expand popular notions of the rural urban divide The volume is relevant not just to Asian contexts but to social scientific research on population dynamics more generally Rather than deploying a single study to chart national trends three chapters on each country make possible much more complex perspectives As a result this volume does more than extend our understanding of the interplay between cities and hinterlands within Asia It enhances our notions of rural urban cleavages connections and conflicts more generally with data and analysis ready for application to other contexts Of interest to diverse scholars across the social sciences and Asian studies this work includes accounts ranging from rural youth real estate entrepreneurs in Hyderabad India to social development in Aceh province in Indonesia devastated by the 2004 tsunami to the relationship between urban space and commonly held notions of the supernatural in Thailand s northern city of Chiang Mai
