Modern Muslim Intellectuals And The Quran:

Modern Muslim Intellectuals and the Qur'an Suha Taji-Farouki, Institute of Ismaili Studies, 2006-01-26 This volume examines the writings of ten Muslim intellectuals working in the Muslim world and the West who employ contemporary critical methods to understand the Qur'an. Their work points to a new trend in Muslim interpretation characterised by a direct engagement with the Word of God while embracing intellectual modernity in a global context. The volume situates and evaluates their work and responses to it among Muslim and non-Muslim audiences. Islam in Contemporary World Asghar Ali Engineer, 2007 This book reflects on and re-evaluates various socially relevant topics of present times by bringing out the transcendental nature of the Qur'an and relating them to the demands of the contemporary world. Written lucidly, this well-researched and informative book will be a delightful read for scholars, students of Islamic Study, social scientists as well as lay readers. Modern Muslim Intellectuals and the Qur'an, 2006 Makers of Contemporary Islam John L. Esposito, John O. Voll, 2001-05-03 In this timely and important work, John Esposito and John Voll explore the development of contemporary Islamic movements and thought through the biographies of nine major activist intellectuals who represent a wide range of Muslim societies. Many Muslims have combined revivalist activism with intellectual efforts, but only a few have achieved significant international visibility and influence. By examining the lives and work of nine such internationally recognized figures, Esposito and Voll provide a new understanding of the intellectual foundations of contemporary Islamic awareness and politics. Included are profiles of Ismail Ragi al-Faruqi (U.S.), Palestine Khurshid Ahmad (India), Pakistan Maryam Jameelah (U.S.), Pakistan Hasan Hanafi (Sudan), Rashid Ghannouchi (Tunisia), Hasan al-Turabi (Sudan), Abdolkarim Soroush (Iran), Anwar Ibrahim (Malaysia), and Abdurrahman Wahid (Indonesia). These thinkers contributed to some of the most significant intellectual and activist developments in the Muslim world during the 1980s and 1990s, the period during which Islamic movements became a major force in Muslim societies and international affairs. They helped to organize and lead the movements of Islamic renewal and provided the conceptual foundations for the programs those movements advocate. Together, they represent a distinctive phase in the evolution of Islamic thinking, the ongoing effort to create an effective synthesis of modernity and Islamic tradition. Their work supplies the core of the Islamic resurgence of the 1990s and the foundation for what it can become in the twenty-first century. The Many Faces of Political Islam Mohammed Ayooob, 2009-12-21 Analysts and pundits from across the American political spectrum describe Islamic fundamentalism as one of the greatest threats to modern Western-style democracy. Yet very few non-Muslims would be able to venture an accurate definition of political Islam. Mohammed Ayooob's The Many Faces of Political Islam thoroughly describes the myriad manifestations of this rising ideology and analyzes its impact on global relations. In this beautifully crafted and utterly compelling book, Mohammed Ayooob accomplishes admirably the difficult task of offering a readily accessible yet nuanced and comprehensive analysis of an issue of enormous political importance. Both students and specialists will learn a great deal.

A Companion to the Muslim World Amyn Sajoo, 2009-07-07 The eBook editions of this book are available open access under a CC BY NC ND 4.0 licence on bloomsburycollections.com Open access was funded by Islamic Publications Ltd What is the extraordinary text that is the Quran and how does it relate to the life and times of the Prophet Muhammad How did a legacy so richly varied in faith law and civilization emerge from the message of the Revelation that came to be called Islam or submission to God's will This immaculately researched yet thoroughly accessible book offers a journey into the full range of experience past and present secular and sacred of the diverse people and cultures of the Muslim world Threads of continuity and change are woven through each chapter to make a coherent narrative covering a broad variety of themes and topics Poets cities and the architecture of mosques are as much a part of the exploration as multiple aspects of scripture the status of women in the faith and the emergence of a digital community of believers In the aftermath of September 11 2001 understanding what Islam is about and what Muslims believe is a vital concern across all frontiers A Companion to the Muslim World is an attractive venture by distinguished scholars to contribute toward this urgent process of comprehension Gender and Muslim Constructions of Exegetical Authority Aisha Geissinger, 2015-06-02 A number of classical Sunn Quran commentaries quote several different types of exegetical materials attributed to a few female figures from the first century A H seventh century C E th r ad ths legal opinions and variant readings as well as lines of poetry In Gender and Muslim Constructions of Exegetical Authority Aisha Geissinger provides a comprehensive introduction to such quotations and offers an analysis of their place and significance within the pre modern genre of Quran commentary demonstrating that key hermeneutical concepts in classical quranic exegesis tafs r are gendered Bringing together materials which have not previously been examined in detail and utilising gender as a lens through which to study them this work provides a new approach to the study of pre modern tafs r Contemporary Qur'ānic Hermeneutics Georges Tamer, 2025-04-21 This project presents the hermeneutical approaches to the Qur n of the most prominent Qur nic scholars in Islamic intellectual history Not only scholars who wrote commentaries on the Qur n in the narrow sense of the word taf s r are to be presented but also those who dealt hermeneutically with the Qur n in various ways The Handbook of Qur nic Hermeneutics is the first book that discusses all the hermeneutical fields of the Qur n It will be published in seven volumes Studying the Qur'an in the Muslim Academy Majid Daneshgar, 2019-11-01 Studying the Qur an in the Muslim Academy examines what it is like to study and teach the Qur an at academic institutions in the Muslim world and how politics affect scholarly interpretations of the text Guided by the author s own journey as a student university lecturer and researcher in Iran Malaysia and New Zealand this book provides vivid accounts of the complex academic politics he encountered Majid Daneshgar describes the selective translation and editing of Edward Said s classic work Orientalism into various Islamic languages and the way Said s work is weaponized to question the credibility of contemporary Western produced scholarship in Islamic studies Daneshgar also examines networks of journals research centers and universities in both Sunni and Shia contexts and looks at examples of Quranic interpretation there Ultimately he offers a constructive program for enriching Islamic studies by fusing the best of Western theories with the best philological practices developed in Muslim academic contexts aimed at encouraging respectful but critical engagement with the Qur an The Rule of Law, Freedom of Expression and Islamic Law Hossein Esmaeili, Irmgard Marboe, Javaid Rehman, 2017-12-14 The importance of the rule of law is universally recognised and of fundamental value for most societies Establishing and promoting the rule of law in the Muslim world particularly in the Middle East North Africa and Central Asia has become a pressing but complicated issue These states have Muslim majority populations and the religion of Islam has an important role in the traditional structures of their societies While the Muslim world is taking gradual steps towards the establishment of rule of law systems most Muslim majority countries may not yet have effective legal systems with independent judiciaries which would allow the state and institutions to be controlled by an effective rule of law system One important aspect of the rule of law is freedom of expression Given the sensitivity of Muslim societies in relation to their sacred beliefs freedom of expression as an international human rights issue has raised some controversial cases This book drawing on both International and Islamic Law explores the rule of law and freedom of expression and its practical application in the Muslim world

American Muslim Women, Religious Authority, and Activism Juliane Hammer, 2012-04-01 Hammer looks at the work of significant female American Muslim writers scholars and activists since 1990 using their writings as a lens for a larger discussion of Muslim intellectual production in America and beyond Centered on the controversial women led Friday prayer in March 2005 Hammer uses this event and its aftermath to address themes of faith community and public opinion While gender is the catalyst for Hammer's study her examination of these women's intellectual output touches on themes central to contemporary Islam authority tradition Islamic law justice and authenticity

Advancing the Legal Status of Women in Islamic Law Mona Samadi, 2021-05-25 Mona Samadi examines the sources of gender differences within the Islamic legal tradition and describes how Islamic law entitles individuals to justice according to their status abilities and potential In the case of men and women's capabilities the underlying principle is that they are entitled to the same rights as long as their capabilities are the same In the legal construction of women's status women have been prescribed lacking the same abilities and capabilities as men As such their status and rights differ justifying men to be the maintainers of women By presenting the historical development of women's status and how women's legal status is debated in contemporary Muslim societies Mona Samadi convincingly provides various methods for facilitating change within the Islamic legal theory framework

Islam in Global Modernity Dietrich Jung, 2023-01-01 This book combines sociological theorising with studies on the Middle East and Islam The diversity of modernities that can be observed in our world is linked to the claim of living in a global modernity in a world society The book underpins this claim with numerous excursions into Islamic history It criticises the view that modernisation can be equated with westernisation and considers different projects of specifically Islamic modernities as integral parts of world society From this perspective the study contributes to the provincialisation of European history in contemporary social scientific thought Contrary to the theories of postcolonialism associated with the call for the provincialisation of Europe however this book adheres to essential traditions of classical sociology It thus aims to make a contribution to the social theoretical discussion on modernity which is empirically underpinned with the help of data from the history of the Middle East and Islam The translation was done with the help of artificial intelligence A subsequent human revision was done primarily in terms of content
