Modernization and Revolution in China June M. Grasso, Jay P. Corrin, Michael Kort, 2004 The drama of China's struggle to modernize unfolds against the backdrop of a proud and enduring history in the new and completely revised edition of this classic text Spanning the years of the Opium War to twenty first century China the book covers the great episodes that highlight that journey the breakdown of Imperial China in the face of relentless Western and Japanese encroachments the rise of the new Chinese republic the decades long struggles between the ideologies and armies of Chiang Kai shek and Mao Zedong China's bitter and costly war with Japan the years of the People's Republic punctuated by the Great Leap Forward the Cultural Revolution and Tiananmen up to the rise of the Fourth Generation leadership and the tenure of Jiang Zemin with special emphasis on China's role in the Gulf wars North Korea and the war on terrorism As China continues to develop as a political and economic superpower this book will help students understand how the nation reached new heights from the depths in which it found itself during the nineteenth century China's Path to Modernization Ranbir Vohra, 1992 Modernization and Revolution in China June M. Grasso, Jay P. Corrin, Michael Kort, 1991

Reform and Revolution in China's Political Modernization Michael Gasster, 1968 China's Long March to Freedom Kate Zhou, 2011-12-31 China is more than a socialist market economy led by ever more reform minded leaders It is a country whose people seek liberty on a daily basis Their success has been phenomenal despite the fact that China continues to be governed by a single party Clear distinctions between the people and the government are emerging underlining the fact that true liberalization cannot be imposed from above Although a large percentage of the Chinese people have been part of China's long march to freedom farmers entrepreneurs migrants Chinese gays sex pleasure seekers and black marketers played a particularly important role in the beginning Lawyers scholars journalists and rights activists have jumped in more recently to ensure that liberalization continues Social dissatisfaction with the government is now published in the media addressed in public forums and deliberated in courtrooms Intellectuals devoted to improvement in human rights and continued liberalization are part of the process This grassroots social revolution has also resulted from the explosion of information available to ordinary people especially via the Internet and far reaching international influences All have fundamentally altered key elements of the moral and material content of China's party state regime and society at large This social revolution is moving China towards a more liberal society despite its government The Chinese government reacts rather than leads in this transformative process This book is a landmark a decade in the making

The Modernization of China Rozman, 1982-08 In the Modernization of China an interdisciplinary team of scholars collaborate closely to provide the first systematic integrated analysis of China in transformation from an agrarian based to an urbanized and industrialized society Moving from the legacy of the Ming and Qing dynasties to the reforms and revolutions of the 20th century the authors seek reasons for China's inability to achieve rapid steady growth during a 200 year long struggle to modernize They examine the changing shape of Chinese society the role of the state in local politics military affairs economics the development of the educational system changes in family population and settlement patterns science and technology world views and foreign relations And they make frequent comparisons between China's experience with growth and that of two other latecomers to modernization Japan and Russia The result is a book that brings much needed clarity and perspective to our understanding of China and the way a great civilization attempts to meet the challenge of modernity

China's Four Modernizations Richard Baum, 2019-03-13 With the death of Mao Tse tung and the subsequent purge of the Gang of Four China's new pragmatic leaders have embarked on a crash program of national development known as the Four Modernizations This program is geared to the primary objective of turning China into a major world economic and military power by the year 2000 In this book the outgrowth of a major international conference on China's post Maoist development ten distinguished analysts examine one of the core issues in China's current modernization drive the acquisition and use of modern industrial science and technology The authors address the politics of China's technological modernization the institutional structure of technological research the purchase of foreign technology constraints on technological absorption the growth potential of China's critical energy sector and the modernization of China's military establishment Supplemented with brief commentaries by leading academic government and private sector contributors their chapters provide an in depth look at the process problems and prospects of China's widely heralded technological revolution

Special Economic Zones and China's Development Path Yitao Tao, Zhiguo

Lu,2018-10-05 The book provides insights into the development of special economic zones which are an important factor in the political and economic reforms in China It discusses a number of topics including the history and the modernization of special economic zones in China the contributions of special economic zones to China s economic success and cultural change as well as the new mission of special economic zones in the current economic social context Applying institutional economics and growth poles theory it discusses the mechanism of China s path driven by special economic zone practices The book is a valuable resource for researchers interested in special economic zones political and institutional reforms and economic transformation during China s modernization China in Revolution Mark Selden,2016-09-16 Originally published in the early 1970s The Yanan Way in Revolutionary China has proved to be one of the most significant and enduring books published in the field In this new critical edition of that seminal work Mark Selden revisits the central themes therein and reconsiders them in light of major new theoretical and documentary understandings of the Chinese communist revolution

Great Power Strategies - The United States, China and Japan Quansheng Zhao,2022-09-05 This book provides a comparative study of the strategies of great powers in the Asia Pacific namely the United States China and Japan known as the Pacific Three It examines the evolution of each power s strategic thinking and analyzes the three powers respective foreign policies and internal debates in the policymaking process It analyzes the three countries conflict and cooperation from past to the present It stresses the importance of the interactions between internal and external factors in the policymaking process and emphasizes the great significance of these interactions for international relations theory For example it highlights the role of strategic advisers in think tanks and government agencies in the United States Japan s informal and balanced policymaking process and the impact of traditional culture in China especially Confucianism and the part played by Chinese think tanks Postwar Revisited Okwui Enwezor,Atreyee Gupta,2025-03-28 Okwui Enwezor s 2016 exhibition Postwar Art between the Pacific and the Atlantic 1945 1965 redefined the history of art produced in those two decades Nearly a decade later Postwar Revisited returns to these debates to present an image of a historical period in which Western conceptions of art aesthetics and philosophy are all thrown into intense flux after Auschwitz and Hiroshima while the cultural energies of decolonization generate myriad artistic and intellectual practices across the globe which re engage the connections of art to life itself Focusing on modernist artists artist collectives and architects central to dissonant regional traditions as well as influential exhibitions and patronage systems the contributors produce a new understanding of emergent postwar global art Provoking new ways of thinking engaging and narrating art history Postwar Revisited is essential reading for those interested in debates on global art history and global modernism the intersections between art and decolonization the cultural aspects of the Cold War and the Non Aligned Movement and modern and contemporary art more generally Contributors Iftikhar Dadi Okwui Enwezor Patrick Flores Hal Foster Boris Groys Atreyee Gupta Elizabeth Harney Jennifer Josten Vivian Li Tara McDowell Alexandra Munroe Nada Shabout Terry Smith Jenni Sorkin Ming Tiampo
