On The Choice Of A Mistress:

Benjamin Franklin Christopher J. Murrey, 2002 Benjamin Franklin is generally considered one of America's most versatile and talented statesmen, scientists, and philosophers. His achievements include publisher of Poor Richard's Almanac and many articles on political, economic, religious, philosophical, and scientific subjects. He was the inventor of bifocals, the Franklin stove, lightning rod; he was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence and the founder of what is now the University of Pennsylvania. This book presents a detailed and riveting review of Franklin's life based on excerpts from the renowned 1899 book on Franklin by Sydney George Fisher. This overview is augmented by a substantial selective bibliography which features access through title, subject, and author indexes. Advice to a Young Man on the Choice of a Mistress and Fart Proudly Benjamin Franklin, 2016-11-30 Included in this edition are two of Benjamin Franklin's humorous essays. Advice to a Friend on Choosing a Mistress is a letter by Benjamin Franklin dated June 25, 1745, in which Franklin counsels a young man about channeling sexual urges. Due to its licentious nature, the letter was not published in collections of Franklin's papers in the United States during the 19th century. Federal court decisions from the mid to late 20th century cited the document as a reason for overturning obscenity laws. Fart Proudly, also called A Letter to a Royal Academy and To the Royal Academy of Farting, is the popular name of a notorious essay about flatulence written by Benjamin Franklin c. 1781 while he was living abroad as United States Ambassador to France. The Mistress's Dog David Medalie, 2010-05-01 The Mistress's Dog is an engaging collection of twelve short stories by David Medalie, including two award winners, Recognition and The Mistress's Dog, and a foreword and afterword by Michael Titlestad. Deft, subtle, and nuanced, Medalie's stories show an accomplished and mature writer at his best. Their focus is the lived experience of people ostensibly uneventful lives into which the unexpected erupts. These stories find significance in the reversals, ironies, and coincidences of existence. They bring the characters and the reader to the brink of recognition. The Mistress's Dog was short-listed in 2011 for the University of Johannesburg Literary Award and was awarded the Thomas Pringle Award by the English Academy of Southern Africa in 2008. It was also short-listed in 2011 for the Caine Prize for African Writing and was selected as one of the best twenty short stories of the post-apartheid period and was published in 2014 along with the other nineteen stories in a collection entitled Twenty in 20. How to Beat My Husband's Mistress. Scholastica Bassey, 2016-05-18 How to Beat My Husband's Mistress is the first book of its kind. While many women choose divorce in the face of infidelity, this book argues wives don't have to abandon their marriages, lives, or accomplishments nor subject their children, if they have them, to the cruel effects of infidelity and divorce. Instead, it offers wives alternatives to beat their husbands' mistresses with dignity and class without any physical or electronic contact. Why should you allow fellow women to beat you out of your home and marriage? You have everything in your power as a woman and as a wife to beat his mistress. You're not a quitter. You should take the bull by the horns, do what needs to be done, and beat the mistress out of your life and marriage for good. Narrating Marriage in

Eighteenth-Century England and France Chris Roulston, 2016-04-22 In the eighteenth century when the definition of marriage was shifting from one based on an hierarchical model to one based on notions of love and mutuality marital life came under a more intense cultural scrutiny This led to paradoxical forms of representation of marriage as simultaneously ideal and unlivable Chris Roulston analyzes how as representations of married life increased they challenged the traditional courtship model offering narratives based on repetition rather than progression Beginning with English and French marital advice literature which appropriated novelistic conventions at the same time that it cautioned readers about the dangers of novel reading she looks at representations of ideal marriages in Pamela II and The New Heloise Moving on from these ideal domestic spaces bourgeois marriage is then problematized by the discourse of empire in Sir George Ellison and Letters of Mistress Henley by troublesome wives in works by Richardson and Samuel de Constant and by abusive husbands in works by Haywood Edgeworth Genlis and Restif de la Bretonne Finally the alternative marriage narrative in which the adultery motif is incorporated into the marriage itself redefines the function of heteronormativity In exploring the theoretical issues that arise during this transitional period for married life and the marriage plot Roulston expands the debates around the evolution of the modern couple

On the Choice of a Mistress & Other Satires & Hoaxes Benjamin Franklin, 1983 The Firebird's Vengeance Sarah Zettel, 2012-05-01 Magic and the force of destiny propelled Bridget Lederle across the void between worlds through the Land of Death and Spirit to the world of Isavalt where she discovered secrets about herself and her family that had been hidden since before her birth It seems like only yesterday that a charismatic stranger swept her from her home on the shore of Lake Superior and took her on an impossible journey to a strange bejeweled world where sorcery could spring from the simplest of patterns with most serious effect In Isavalt she also discovered magical powers she had never suspected she possessed before her transit between the worlds More than self knowledge has changed her she is in love with Sakra a powerful sorcerer and her staunch ally And she learns that her daughter who she thought was lost to her is alive But that daughter is also the pawn in a dangerous game of power and politics The powerful spells of a ruler intent on conquest threaten to destroy both mother and daughter Torn between the contending forces of magic and empire Bridget lives an extraordinary adventure replete with unimaginable dangers Beset by enemies on all sides she must rely on the aid of supernatural forces she can't control lest she be destroyed by a fate she cannot imagine
