Understanding Diversity in Global Business 2/E Alfons Trompenaars, Charles Hampden-Turner, 1998 An introduction to culture The one best way of organizing does not exist The meaning of culture Relationships and rules The group and the individual Feelings and relationships How far we get involved How we accord status How we manage time How we relate to nature National cultures and corporate culture Towards international and transnational management Reconciling cultural dilemmas South Africa the rainbow nation Gender ethnicity and functional diversity Riding the Waves of Culture

Alfons Trompenaars, Charles Hampden-Turner, 1997 Management across Cultures Richard M. Steers, Carlos J. Sanchez-Runde, Luciana Nardon, 2010-02-04 Management practices and processes frequently differ across national and regional boundaries What may be acceptable managerial behaviour in one culture may be counterproductive or even unacceptable in another As managers increasingly find themselves working across cultures the need to understand these differences has become increasingly important This book examines why these differences exist and how global managers can develop strategies and tactics to deal with them The text draws on recent research in anthropology psychology and management to explain the cultural and psychological underpinnings that shape managerial attitudes and behaviours whilst introducing a learning model to guide in the intellectual and practical development of managers seeking enhanced global expertise It offers user friendly conceptual models to guide understanding and exploration of topics and summarizes and integrates the lessons learned in each chapter in applications oriented Manager's Notebooks A companion website featuring comprehensive chapter by chapter PPT slides is available at www.cambridge.org/management_across_cultures
