The German Stranger William H. F. Altman, 2012-06-07 Leo Strauss's connection with Martin Heidegger and Carl Schmitt suggests a troubling proximity to National Socialism but a serious critique of Strauss must begin with F H Jacobi While writing his dissertation on this apparently Christian opponent of the Enlightenment Strauss discovered the tactical principles that would characterize his lifework writing between the lines a faith based critique of rationalism the deliberate secularization of religious language for irreligious purposes and an all or nothing antagonism to middling solutions Especially the latter is distinctive of his Zionist writings in the 1920s where Strauss engaged in an ongoing polemic against Cultural Zionism attacking it first from an orthodox and then from an atheist's perspective In his last Zionist article 1929 Strauss mentions the Machiavellian Zionism of a Nordau that would not fear to use the traditional hope for a Messiah as dynamite By the time of his change of orientation National Socialism was being led by a nihilistic Messiah while Strauss had already radicalized Schmitt's political theology and Heidegger's deconstruction of the ontological Tradition Central to Strauss's advance beyond the smartest Nazis is his Second Cave in which he claimed modern thought is imprisoned only by escaping Revelation can we recover natural ignorance By using pseudo Platonic imagery to illustrate what anti Semites called Jewification Strauss attempted to annihilate the common ground celebrated by Hermann Cohen between Judaism and Platonism Unlike those who attacked Plato for devaluing nature at the expense of the transcendent Idea the migr Strauss effectively employed a new Plato who was no more a Platonist than Nietzsche or Heidegger had been Central to Strauss's Platonic political philosophy is the mysterious protagonist of Plato's Laws whom Strauss accurately recognized as the kind of Socrates whose fear of death would have caused him to flee the hemlock Any reader who recognizes the unbridgeable gap between the real Socrates and Plato's Athenian Stranger will understand why the German Stranger is the principal theoretician of an atheistic re enactment of religion of which genus National Socialism is an ultra modern species
