The Contemplative Soul Adena Tanenbaum,2002-11-01 During the eleventh and twelfth centuries Jewish poets in Islamic Spain introduced philosophical themes into their devotional verse Drawn to Neoplatonic thought they made liberal use of its myth of the soul to explore the human relationship with the Divine This novel merger reflected a conviction that ideas borrowed from Greco Arabic philosophy meshed comfortably with traditional Jewish approaches to prayer and spirituality This study focuses on Solomon Ibn Gabirol Moses Ibn Ezra Abraham Ibn Ezra and Judah Halevi polymath poets who also wrote philosophically informed prose works It probes the contemplative motifs in their religious verse uncovering new and at times unorthodox layers of meaning The book includes the Hebrew texts of representative poems accompanied by original English translations and detailed analyses The Soul's Palette Cathy A. experience but also non material factors such as an appreciation of natural beauty art music moral values or beliefs from which a person draws meaning and a sense of transcendence Equally many people are unaware of a spiritual dimension to life and health until illness or trauma strikes However coming to terms with life events deriving meaning from them and incorporating them into their life philosophy may then be experienced as a deep spiritual crisis with ramifications in their wider health and implications for the health professionals who treat them This book considers the meaning of holistic health care and explores the spiritual dimension of health through the narratives of fictional and non fictional patients It discusses how to discern when a patient s distress has a spiritual dimension the implications of this for health professionals and ways in which spiritual factors can be addressed and discussed within healthcare When it comes to questions about meaning and purpose such as what is the point of all this A or why is this happening to me A when we meet patients in the depths of despair at the prospect of imminent death when we ourselves feel hopeless and overwhelmed in the face of an avalanche of human suffering then we begin to struggle We do not know what we could do nor even what we should do Our professional training doesn t help We are stuck With this beautiful book Mabel Aghadiuno comes to our rescue Christopher Dowrick in his Foreword
