The Several Lives of Orphan Jack, 2003 Winner of the Mr Christie's Book Award and the IODE Violet Downey Book Award For young Jack life is tough at the Opportunities School for Orphans But Jack is good at staying out of trouble He has skipped over trouble danced around trouble slid under trouble melted away from trouble talked his way out of trouble and slipped between two close troubles like a cat through a picket fence When Jack turns twelve he is given the biggest opportunity of all but suddenly his life is nothing but trouble Still he is a clever and resilient boy and eventually he makes his way into the big world Jack is rich in ideas and soon he finds there is a place for an enterprising boy who has whims concepts plans opinions impressions notions and fancies to spare In the tradition of Natalie Babbitt Sarah Ellis brings her quirky sense of humor and imagination to bear in this witty warm fable Bruno St Aubin's evocative black and white illustrations capture perfectly the dreadful Schoolmaster Bane the crowlike accountant Mr Ledger Lou the skinny bun merchant and Christabel the miller's little daughter

The Baby Project Sarah Ellis, 2009-04 Excited by the unexpected prospect of a new sibling eleven year old Jessica and her family eagerly prepare for the changes the new arrival will bring to their lives Reprint

Stories for Every Classroom Beverly A. Brenna, 2015 Academic study of children's literature has explored various aspects of diversity however little research has examined Canadian books that portray characters with disabilities This relevant and timely text addresses the significant dearth of research by exploring the treatment of disability in Canadian literature for young people Engaging and highly accessible this text will assist teachers teacher educators and teacher candidates in finding and using books about characters where disability is a part of their characterization supporting the development of curricula that reflect critical literacy and social justice issues Stories for Every Classroom explores the historical patterns and trends theoretical frameworks and critical literacy methods used to understand and teach children's literature and its portrayal of characters with disabilities It provides educators with curriculum ideas and enriches the body of resources shared with children in K 12 settings for the purposes of developing imagination empathy and understanding of self and others Featuring author portraits comprehensive annotated bibliographies of contemporary Canadian children's books that depict characters with disabilities and read on bibliographies that provide connections with other books in the field this unique text will be an invaluable resource for educators

Crossing Boundaries with Children's Books Doris Gebel, United States Board on Books for Young People, 2006-05-25 This annotated bibliography organized geographically by world region and country describing nearly 700 books representing 73 countries is a valuable resource for librarians teachers and anyone else seeking to promote international understanding through children's literature. It is the third volume sponsored by the United States Board on Books for Young People. The first, Carl M. Tomlinson's Children's Books from Other Countries (1998), is a compendium of international children's literature with annotations of both in and out of print books published between 1950 and 1996. Susan Stan's The World Through Children's Books (2002) was the second and it included books published between the years 1997 and 2000. Crossing Boundaries includes international children's books published between 2000 and 2004 as well as selected American books set in countries other than the United States. Editor Doris Gebel has compiled an important tool for providing stories that will help children understand our differences while simultaneously demonstrating our common humanity.

Windows on the World Rosanne Blass, 2009-12-14 This resource book for librarians and teachers of elementary and middle grade readers introduces over 400 titles of books (fiction, nonfiction, and poetry) written and illustrated by international authors and illustrators. Windows on the World: International Books for Elementary and Middle Grade Readers helps librarians and teachers open the eyes of elementary and middle grade readers to what life is like for children like themselves around the globe. In this extraordinary resource you will find introductions to over 400 fiction, nonfiction, and poetry titles for age levels 4-8 and 8-12, written and illustrated by international authors and illustrators, and matched with related curriculum activities correlated with national curriculum standards. Windows on the World consists of over 100 lead books and over 350 related books published in the last ten years, organized by countries and cultures. It includes work from non-American authors working in the United States and abroad as well as reissues of classics and a few American titles noted for their authentic representations of other cultures. Each entry includes bibliographic data, information about the author and illustrator, identification of genre, recommended age level, a synopsis, suggested curriculum responses correlated with national curriculum standards, and related books.

What a Song Can Do Jennifer Armstrong, 2007-12-18 This compelling collection of stories explores the powerful impact that music has in our lives, especially in the lives of teens. Each story strikes a new note. Ron Koertge introduces us to the boys in the band, the marching band. Joseph Bruchac contributes a Native American boy with no rhythm whatsoever. Jennifer Armstrong writes about what was perhaps the first battle of the bands during the American Civil War, and David Levithan offers up a love song that speaks powerfully to an unintended audience. But while each story is different, they combine into a harmonic song of praise for the depths music can reach in us and the power it has to bind us together.

Dear Canada: A Prairie as Wide as the Sea Sarah Ellis, 2011-09-01 Ivy Weatherall is just 11 years old when her family leaves England for the promised riches of Canada's expanding West. They've come to join her uncle for the available land, the lush harvests, and the opportunity for success. But in Milorlie, Saskatchewan, their dreams crumble into dust when they reach Uncle Alf's small sod hut and discover that jobs are scarce and that they can barely make ends meet. Ivy's relatives pack up and head back to England, but to Ivy, Canada is full of wonder and beginning to feel like home. There are challenges in her new life, but Ivy's feisty character and her sense of wonder for a prairie as wide as the sea make her adventure one that readers won't easily forget Vetted by a historical expert this book contains maps period illustrations documents and an extensive historical note
