resentment In fact many rural towns are thriving Commentators have fixated on the steep decline of one region Appalachia and overlooked the millions of rural Americans who are succeeding in the heartland In The Overlooked Americans public policy expert Elizabeth Currid Halkett reveals that rural America has not been left behind the rest of the nation but instead is surprisingly successful Drawing on deep research including data and in depth interviews she traces how small towns are doing as well as or better than cities by many measures including homeownership income and employment She also shows how rural and urban Americans share core values from opposing racism and upholding environmentalism to believing in democracy Looking everywhere from Missouri to Minnesota to her hometown of Danville Pennsylvania Currid Halkett ultimately reveals that the nation is less fractured by geography than many believe This is an urgent appeal for Americans to reconnect across a rural urban divide that isn't so wide after all
