Ferguson,2012-10-18 Democratic theorists frequently assume that the people must have something in common or else democracy will fail This produces an ironically anti democratic tendency to emphasize the passive possession of commonality Sharing Democracy counters this tendency with a radical vision of democracy grounded instead in the active exercise of political freedom      Narrative and Violence Mammad Aidani,2016-04-22 Narrative and Violence explores philosophical and anthropological ideas surrounding the nature of social suffering its relationship to social historical and political contexts and the manner in which diasporic communities narrate their suffering Against the setting of the adverse relationship between Iran and the West it examines the ways in which suffering shapes identity and belonging in the Diaspora for Iranians living in the West Based on rich empirical information drawn from the UK and Australia this book investigates ways in which the lives of Iranians living in the Diaspora are affected by the understanding of Iran in terms of abjection as that which is beyond or outside of The West Exploring the emotions and feelings of pain and suffering as they are rooted in and shape various categories of experience propounds a view of suffering which is thoroughly grounded in culture history and politics Presenting a new theoretical and cultural understanding of experiences of suffering violence war and displacement this book contributes to critical debates within sociology geography anthropology history and cultural and critical theory      Today's Menu: Feeding on God's Word Laura Russell Simpson,2019-08-31 The back cover illustration is to be About the Book      The Origin of Consciousness Graham Little,      Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 United States. The Feral Feasts of Ember Hearth Jody Mayes, Share This! Deanna Zandt, 2011-01-26 Shows how both activists and the casually progressive can leverage the power of social networks for social change Helps readers maintain credibility establish new connections deal with common fears and have a good time Authoritative but aggressively non technical like talking to a real person with a great sense of humor who really knows her stuff Social networks can be so much more than a way to find your high school friends or learn what your favorite celebrity had for breakfast They can be powerful tools for changing the world With Share This both regular folks of a progressive bent and committed activists can learn how to go beyond swapping movie reviews and vacation photos not that theres anything wrong with that At the moment the same kinds of people who dominate the dialog off line are dominating it online and things will never change if that doesnt change Progressives need to get on social networks and share their stories join conversations connect with others and not just others exactly like themselves Its vital to reach out across all those ethnic gender preference class age lines that exist even within the progressive camp As Deanna Zandt puts it creating a just society is sort of like the evolution of the species if you have a bunch of the same DNA mixing together the species mutates poorly and eventually dies off But there are definitely dos and donts Zandt delves into exactly what people are and are not looking for in online exchanges How to be a good guest What to share Why authenticity is more important than just about anything including traditional notions of expertise or authority She addresses some common fears like worrying about giving too much about yourself away blurring the lines between your professional and personal life or getting buried under a steaming heap of information overload And she offers detailed nuts and bolts how to get started advice for both individuals and organizations The Internet is upending hierarchies and freeing the flow of information in a way that makes the invention of the printing press seem like an historical footnote Share This shows how to take advantage of this unprecedented opportunity to make marginalized voices heard and support real fundamental change and incidentally have some fun doing it
