A Shared Vision Sheila McGregor, 1999-01-01 A Shared Vision Sheila McGregor, 1999 The impressive collection of Kathleen Garman the widow of Sir Jacob Epstein and Sally Ryan A Shared Vision Sheila McGregor, 1999 The impressive collection of Kathleen Garman the widow of Sir Jacob Epstein and Sally Ryan British and Irish Paintings in Public Collections Christopher Wright, Catherine May Gordon, 2006-01-01 This book sets a new standard as a work of reference It covers British and Irish art in public collections from the beginning of the sixteenth century to the end of the nineteenth and it encompasses nearly 9 000 painters and 90 000 paintings in more than 1 700 separate collections The book includes as well pictures that are now lost some as a consequence of the Second World War and others because of de accessioning mostly from 1950 to about 1975 when Victorian art was out of fashion By listing many tens of thousands of previously unpublished works including around 13 000 which do not yet have any form of attribution this book becomes a unique and indispensable work of reference one that will transform the study of British and Irish painting Dictionary of Artists' Models Jill Berk Jimenez, 2013-10-15 The first reference work devoted to their lives and roles this book provides information on some 200 artists models from the Renaissance to the present day Most entries are illustrated and consist of a brief biography selected works in which the model appears with location a list of further reading This will prove an invaluable reference work for art historians librarians museum and gallery curators as well as students and researchers A Modernist Museum in Perspective Anthony Alofsin, 2009 This fascinating book is the first critical examination of the East Building I M Pei s celebrated addition to the National Gallery of Art in Washington D C Distinguished contributors consider this iconic building from various historical vantage points from the evolution of its design to its place in 20th century museum architecture Essays by Neil Harris Anthony Alofsin Alona Nitzan Shifan and R jean Legault discuss the building s relationship to the city of Washington its critical and public reception and the special nature of its use of materials Barry Bergdoll and David Brownlee compare it to contemporary works by Marcel Breuer Edward Larrabee Barnes and other modernists Victoria Newhouse Marc Treib Barnabas Calder and Andrew Saint consider it in the context of museum architecture exploring the relationship between art installations and museum design museum additions by other well known architects and the challenges of building and supporting an art museum outside a major metropolitan area Drawings models and photographs provide a visual history of the building s development Published by the National Gallery of Art Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts Distributed by Yale University Press Studies in the History of Art , 2009 Catalogue Raisonné of the Oil Paintings of Matthew Smith John Gledhill, Matthew Smith, 2009 Matthew Smith 1879 1959 is one of the most important British painters of the twentieth century This book provides for the first time a catalogue of the oil paintings by Matthew Smith from 1905 to 1957 and a substantial critical reappraisal of the artist s work Gledhill situates the artist in the context of modernism and his Bloomsbury peers and the London Group Provenance exhibition catalogues and literature are brought together in extensively detailed entries Where possible an illustration of each work is provided and the majority of the paintings are illustrated to assist the scholar who up until now has been confronted with a dearth of information on Matthew Smith

Artbibliographies Modern ,1999 Cityscapes in History Heléna Tóth,2016-05-23 Cityscapes in History Creating the Urban Experience explores the ways in which scholars from a variety of disciplines history history of art geography and architecture think about and study the urban environment The concept cityscapes refers to three different dynamics that shape the development of the urban environment the interplay between conscious planning and organic development the tension between social control and its unintended consequences and the relationship between projection and self presentation as articulated through civic ceremony and ritual The book is structured around three sections each covering a particular aspect of the urban experience The City Planned looks at issues related to agency self perception the transfer of knowledge and the construction of space The City Lived explores the experience of urbanity and the construction of space as a means of social control And finally The City as a Stage examines the ways in which cultural practices and power relations shape and are in turn shaped by the construction of space Each section combines the work of scholars from different fields who examine these dynamics through both theoretical essays and empirical research and provides a coherent framework in which to assess a wide range of chronological and geographical subjects Taken together the essays in this volume provide a truly interdisciplinary investigation of the urban phenomenon By making fascinating connections between such seemingly diverse topics as 15th century France and modern America the collection raises valuable questions about scholarly approaches to urban studies
