Shared Services In Finance And Accounting:

Shared Services in Finance and Accounting Tom Olavi Bangemann, 2017-03-02 Most large companies worldwide today have some kind of shared services concept in place Over half of the medium and large companies are currently engaged in some kind of shared service project activity The investment in shared services is always calculated in millions In other words the costs of getting it right or getting it wrong can be huge Tom Bangemann's book is a concise blueprint for identifying assessing designing implementing and improving the process for shared services in the finance and accounting function The author focuses on critical success factors the people issues involved and learning from other people's big mistakes The book includes a variety of real life examples and real benchmarking data performance metrics and best practices The section on implementation is based on a proven five phase methodology and explains the steps and activities involved as well as showing examples of the deliverables and the results you can expect Any CEO MD CFO Finance Director and senior finance people will find this book a must have guide to the process before they start and an excellent benchmark against which to measure the performance of any existing shared service operation Finance Bundling and Finance Transformation Frank Keuper, Kai-Eberhard Lueg, 2013-11-13 In managerial literature the challenges of ramping up growing and enhancing a Finance Shared Services Organization are regularly neglected Therefore the compilation will address two objectives First based on a generic phase model of an SSO's development frequently arising questions related to the management of SSOs shall be systematically discussed and practicable solutions derived Secondly a picture of the future of SSOs shall be elaborated resulting in new future management implications Improving corporate functions using shared services Great Britain: National Audit Office, 2007-11-29 Corporate services provide often vital support to the delivery of effective and efficient public services and cover such areas as finance and accounting human resources procurement information technology facilities and estates management Sir Peter Gershon's review of public sector efficiency available on the HM Treasury website http://www.hm-treasury.gov.uk/media/C/A/efficiency\_review120704 identified benefits from shared services but found that departments' efficiency targets did not include savings specifically from shared corporate services This NAO report has been conducted to take account of developments between the 2004 Spending Review Cm 6237 ISBN 9780101622728 and the 2007 Comprehensive Spending Review Cm 7227 ISBN 0101722729 on shared services and focuses mainly on finance and human resources which are generally the more developed areas of shared service in the public sector The publication is divided into four parts and looks at general and specific areas including the potential of shared services in the public sector the problems of customer satisfaction experienced by the NHS and HM Prison Service with shared services the variable progress across government the lack of a clear overview from the Cabinet Office on shared services The NAO has also set out 9 recommendations including public bodies should streamline their corporate service processes in line with best practice they should also improve how they analyse the performance of their corporate services and whether there are more cost effective ways to obtain such services Departments should increase public transparency of corporate service performance

Public Shared Service Centers Gerd Schwarz,2014-06-20 Gerd Schwarz analyzes the pros and cons of shared service centers for the implementation of IT finance personnel and purchasing processes and make design suggestions on the empirical study of American public companies are based at 72 It describes how through the development of shared service centers achieved cost and quality improvements and shows based on the transaction cost approach to outsourcing to the differences in detail

Shared Services in Local Government Ray Tomkinson,2017-03-02 Despite the pressure for local councils to follow the lead of the private sector and develop shared service and partnership arrangements the barriers in terms of culture differences in priorities across councils and lack of experience are formidable yet this is the most likely source of meeting government targets for reduced overheads and improved organizational effectiveness By using extensive case studies drawn from across local councils in England Ray Tomkinson explains the implications of sharing service delivery addresses concerns about loss of control and accountability and demonstrates the potential advantages He shows how to set up collaborative ventures formal partnerships shared service centres or special purpose vehicles while pointing out possible pitfalls thus enabling senior managers to follow all the necessary project steps to create an appropriate shared service It seeks to examine the evidence of the cost effectiveness and quality improvements achieved from sharings This ground breaking book has been written for everyone in local government it explores the political and cultural barriers and legislative legal framework for joint workings explains how to find an appropriate governance vehicle and how to gain the commitment of partners It deals with political and managerial concerns risk aversion and parochial issues and the possible impact on the reputation and performance of both sharers Shared Services in Local Government is the only comprehensive study for the UK and it will ensure any public sector organization pursuing this route is able to approach the task of creating a shared service with a real understanding of the issues involved
