Sharks In Action:

Sharks in the Shallows: Attacks on the Carolina Coast Clay Creswell, Registered Environmental Health Specialist Clay Creswell, 2021-06-14 Powerful and mysterious sharks inspire both fascination and fear Worldwide oceans are home to some five hundred species and of those fifty six are known to reside in or pass through the waters off the coast of both North and South Carolina At any given time waders swimmers and surfers enjoying these waters are frequently within just one hundred feet of a shark While it s unnerving to know that sharks often swim just below the surface in the shallows Clay Creswell a shark bite investigator for the Shark Research Institute s Global Shark Attack File explains that attacks on humans are extremely rare In 2019 the International Shark Attack File confirmed sixty four unprovoked attacks on humans including three in North Carolina and one in South Carolina While acknowledging that they pose real dangers to humans Creswell believes the fear of sharks is greatly exaggerated During his sixteen year association with the Shark Research Institute he has investigated more than one hundred shark related incidents and has maintained a database of all shark human encounters along the Carolina coastlines back to 1817 Creswell uses this data to expose the truth and history of this often sensationalized topic Beyond the statistics related to attacks in the Carolina waters Sharks in the Shallows offers a history of shark human interactions and an introduction to the world of shark attacks Creswell details the conditions that increase a person s chances of an encounter profiles the three species most often involved in attacks and reveals the months and time of day with the highest probability of an encounter With a better understanding of sharks responses to their environment and what motivates them to attack humans he hopes people will develop a greater appreciation of the invaluable role sharks play in our marine environment

When Sharks Attack! Richard Marshall Gaines, 2006 This book describes sharks predators that attack whether provoked or unprovoked and recounts documented shark attacks

Great White Sharks in Action Buffy Silverman, 2017-08-01 What are the biggest hunting fish in the ocean Great white sharks But do you know how great white sharks find food Or how many teeth they have Find out everything about these ferocious fish from how they reproduce to how they hunt in this book packed with full color photos and fascinating facts

Shark Attacks Blake Chapman, 2017-11 Humans spend more time in or on the water than ever before We love the beach But for many people getting in the water provokes a moment s hesitation Shark attacks are big news events and although the risk of shark attack on humans is incredibly low the fact remains that human lives are lost to sharks every year Shark Attacks explores the tension between risk to humans and the need to conserve sharks and protect the important ecological roles they play in our marine environments Marine biologist Blake Chapman presents scientific information about shark biology movement patterns and feeding behaviour She discusses the role of fear in the way we think about sharks and the influence of the media on public perceptions Moving first hand accounts describe the deep and polarising psychological impacts of shark attacks from a range of perspectives This book is an education in thinking through these emotive events and will help readers to navigate the controversial issues around mitigating shark attacks while conserving the sharks themselves The Shark Attack Files

Jeff Klinkenberg, University of Florida, 2016-11-14 The University of Florida has an ambitious goal to harness the power of its faculty staff students and alumni to solve some of society's most pressing problems and to become a resource for the state of Florida the nation and the world In 1958 a panel funded by the Office of Naval Research initiated the formation of the International Shark Attack File the first comprehensive documentation of shark attacks on a global and historical level In 1988 the file was transferred to the Florida Museum of Natural History at the University of Florida It is part of the Florida Program for Shark Research directed by George H Burgess the planet's expert on shark attacks and staffed by a world renowned team of research scientists and educators Travel the globe with Burgess the Sherlock Holmes of shark attacks as he studies mauled remains and the scars of the lucky survivors His most famous case took him to an idyllic Red Sea resort where panic had set in after five attacks occurred in a single week The attacks were carried out by Oceanic White Tips and a Mako deep water species that had no business being so close to the beach Following the clues dive boat operators feeding sharks by hand to entertain tourists the disappearance of the yearly tuna catch and the dead sheep New Zealand cargo companies had been tossing overboard Burgess solves the mystery of the shark attacks for Egyptian tourism officials and offers a list of best practices But not all cases end with an easy prescription In St Petersburg Beach Florida he visits a recent shark attack victim bitten just off her dock on Boca Ciega Bay While the victim would prefer to forget the fateful day the sharp toothed jaws of the Bull Shark latched onto her leg just below the knee Burgess gently coaxes the story from her It will go in the file to educate other shark researchers and educators and help us better understand the world's most feared predator The stories chronicled in Gatorbytes span all colleges and units across the UF campus They detail the far reaching impact of UF's research technologies and innovations and the UF faculty members dedicated to them Gatorbytes describe how UF is continuing to build on its strengths and extend the reach of its efforts so that it can help even more people in even more places The Mammoth Book of Shark Attacks Alex MacCormick, 2013-11-07 The biggest ever selection of first hand accounts and news reports of shark attacks both recent and historical shows how sharks are masters of the ocean and how we enter their domain at our own risk Think you're safe in the Med Read about the Great Whites that thrive near holiday beaches Think you're safe in large groups Read about the sinking of the USS Indianapolis in 1945 when hundreds of sailors floated for days in shark infested waters being picked off one by one Think you're safe at home Read about the 69 year old man taking his regular evening swim jumping off his backyard dock straight into the mouth of a bull shark Many more extraordinary and gruesome accounts including the shark boat skipper who slit open the belly of a 360 kg tiger shark only to have a human head pelvis and arm come tumbling out provide horrific and moving tales of shark encounters The courage of survivors and those who have risked their lives to save shark attack victims is truly inspirational Where can you find sharks Features on different shark species with illustrations fact boxes and maps show where they lurk around the world Also
