Approaching the World's Religions, Volume 1 Robert Boyd, 2017-05-04 Philosophically Thinking about World Religions is different from other works in the discipline today It deviates from the typical approaches used for the study of world religions Its goal is to engage readers in thinking hard about world religions not about the data surrounding those traditions By focusing on philosophical questions each reader should be challenged to do their own investigations that may reveal the heart of these traditions Another stance that this project takes that distinguishes it from other texts in the discipline is that it advocates an inclusivist perspective regarding the world religions Pluralism which is the predominate assumption today ends either in contradiction or in the development of a metatheory that dismisses crucial distinctions between the various traditions or eliminates some ancient religions because they do not fit the metatheory By taking an open inclusivist approach all religious traditions may engage at the table of dialogue The final essay is about justice and social affairs While that discussion is couched within the context of a particular tradition each religious tradition must have the discussion But it must be more than an intrareligious dialogue it must become an interreligious dialogue The

Leroy Forlines, 2001 This invaluable tool seriously discusses profound truths that apply to every facet of life Biblical truth should be made applicable to the total personality The inescapable questions of life are answered from the standard of God s authoritative Word Does God Love All or Some? Ronnie W. Rogers, 2019-04-19 The term extensivism describes my position regarding the doctrine of salvation Specifically extensivism believes that man was created in the image of God with otherwise choice God s salvation plan involves an all inclusive unconditional offer of salvation to every person reception of which is conditioned upon grace enabled faith rather than Calvinism s exclusive plan of a limited actual offer of salvation to only the unconditionally elected Generally it replaces the term non Calvinism These are the five primary objectives of the book First my considerations would result in a deeper understanding of God Second I will demonstrate that God salvationally loves every single person Third I intend to offer a precise and respectful critique of Calvinism s internal and biblical inconsistencies these are largely due to its commitment to compatibilism and unconditional election Fourth I will demonstrate that God s free choice to endow man with libertarian freedom is a more biblical perspective Fifth because a significant percentage of people who become Calvinists do not actually understand Calvinism I seek to present Calvinism and extensivism in language that is precisely and consistently reflective of the commitments of each perspective regarding God's sovereignty salvific love foreknowledge and man's freedom this so a person can make an informed choice about Calvinism

The Heart of Dogmatics Bruce R. Pass, 2020-11-16 The christocentric character of Herman Bavinck's thought has long been acknowledged but an analysis of Bavinck's christocentrism has not been forthcoming The Heart of Dogmatics redresses this situation offering a comprehensive study of Bavinck's concept of a christocentric theological system Building on the more recent secondary literature Pass draws attention to many unexplored avenues in Bavinck's writings In particular Pass sheds light on the intimate connection between Bavinck's christocentrism and his organicism Delving deeply into Bavinck's appropriation of Reformed Orthodoxy and German Idealism Pass presents a compelling account of this thinker's attempt to establish Neo Calvinism as a modern orthodoxy By way of conclusion pertinent ways in which Bavinck's christocentrism may prove a useful resource for contemporary projects of theological retrieval are explored in a comparison of Bavinck and John Webster Publishers Weekly, 1905 The Cross Douglas Vickers, 2010-04-02 A question has challenged the human conscience for two thousand years How are we to explain the presence of Jesus Christ in this world Or who indeed was Jesus Christ A man like the rest of men Or was he a divine Person Why was it that well practiced soldiers who failed to fulfill their commission to arrest him said Never man spoke like this man The early church confirmed the apostles declaration that Jesus Christ was the eternal Son of God and that he came into the world to fulfill a messianic redemptive assignment Christ Jesus the apostle to the Gentiles explained came into the world to save sinners In The Cross Its Meaning and Message in a Postmodern World Douglas Vickers sees the cross as the watershed of history The divine objectives that the cross addressed bear vitally on the human condition vitiated as that is by the entailment of sin In an age in which postmodernist claims have rejected absolute criteria of truth and validity the Christ of the cross provides the only refuge for those burdened by the search for meaning The Cross explores the way of reconciliation between God and man It affirms the apostolic claim that In Christ are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge

Theologia Revere Franklin Weidner, 1902 Impeccability and Temptation Johannes Grössl, Klaus von Stosch, 2021-04-12 In Christian theology the teaching that Christ possessed both a human and divine will is central to the doctrine of two natures but it also represents a logical paradox raising questions about how a person can be both impeccable and subject to temptation This volume explores these questions through an analytic theology approach bringing together 15 original papers that explore the implications of a strong libertarian concept of free will for Christology With perspectives from systematic theologians philosophers and biblical scholars several chapters also offer a comparative theology approach examining the concept of impeccability in the Muslim tradition Therefore this volume will be of interest to scholars and graduate students working in analytic theology biblical scholarship systematic theology and Christian Islamic dialogue
