Joseph Conrad's Letters to R. B. Cunninghame Graham Joseph Conrad, 2011-09-22 An illuminating sequence of letters between Conrad and his provocative correspondent and friend R B Cunninghame Graham published in 1969

Conrad's Fiction as Critical Discourse Richard Ambrosini, 1991-07-26 Joseph Conrad s comments about his works have commonly been dismissed as theoretically unsophisticated while the critical notions of James Woolf and Joyce have come to shape our understanding of the modern novel Richard Ambrosini s study of Conrad s Fiction as Critical Discourse makes an original claim for the importance of his theoretical ideas as they are formed tested and eventually redefined in Heart of Darkness and Lord Jim Setting the narrator s discourse in these tales in the context of the dynamic interplay of Conrad s fictional with his non fictional writings and of the transformations in his narrative forms Ambrosini defines Conrad s view of fiction and the artistic ideal underlying his commitment as a writer in a new and challenging way Conrad s innovatory techniques as a novelist are shown in the continuity of his theoretical enterprise from the early search for an artistic prose and a personal novel form to the later dislocations of perspective achieved by manipulation of conventions drawn from popular fiction This reassessment of Conrad s critical thought offers a new perspective on the transition from the Victorian novel to contemporary fiction

Lives of Victorian Literary Figures, Part VII, Volume 1 Ralph Pite, Keith Carabine, Tom Hubbard, Lindy Stiebel, 2024-05-31 This volume presents documents that roughly follow the chronology of Joseph Conrad s life and deliberately considers two documents that reveal surprising and important facts that Conrad had carefully concealed

The Origin of Species and The Voyage of the 'Beagle' Charles Darwin, 2012-08-15 Easily the most influential book published in the nineteenth century Darwin's The Origin of Species is also that most unusual phenomenon an altogether readable discussion of a scientific subject On its appearance in 1859 it was immediately recognized by enthusiasts and detractors alike as a work of the greatest importance its revolutionary theory of evolution by means of natural selection provoked a furious reaction that continues to this day The Origin of Species is here published together with Darwin's earlier Voyage of the Beagle This 1839 account of the journeys to South America and the Pacific islands that first put Darwin on the track of his remarkable theories derives an added charm from his vivid description of his travels in exotic places and his eye for the piquant detail

Antoninus A D 121 180 embodied in his person that deeply cherished ideal figure of antiquity the philosopher king Written in moments snatched from military campaigns and the rigors of politics these ethical and spiritual reflections reveal a mind of exceptional clarity and originality and a spirit attuned to both the particulars of human destiny and the vast patterns that underlie it A S L Farquharson 1871 1942 spent a lifetime on his edition of the Meditations which is one of the outstanding twentieth century achievements of classical scholarship All the notes to the Farquharson translation amplifying the twelve books of the Meditations are included in this volume Joseph Conrad and the Imperial Romance L. Dryden,1999-11-24 Linda Dryden places Almayer's Folly An Outcast of the Islands Karain and Lord Jim in the context of the nineteenth century imperial romance Through the thwarted dreams and aspirations of his central characters she argues that Conrad exposes the empty promises of such fiction and challenges assumptions about the superiority of European imperialists and the imperial venture itself Using illustrations from and references to many well known novels of Empire Dryden demonstrates how Conrad's Malay fiction alludes to the conventions and stereotypes of popular imperial fiction The Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Fiction, 3 Volume Set Brian W. this world The quality of the resultant self scrutiny enables the author to transform everyday reflex into the act of attention that results in formal achievement a uniquely crafted structure Meihuizen s book helps demonstrate how each piece of autobiographical writing under consideration in it works by Yeats Conrad Martin Amis Frank Kermode Andrew Motion Roy Campbell Richard Murphy and J M Coetzee discovers a unique form

The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries

Silence, Space and Absence in Conrad's Works John G. Peters,2023-10-12 This book considers the relationship between sound and silence in the works of Joseph Conrad along with their ties to Western and non Western space Throughout Conrad s works a pattern emerges where Western space is associated with sound and non Western space is associated with silence similarly Western space is portrayed as full of objects and activity whereas non Western space is portrayed as empty As these tales progress though Conrad s characters embark on transformational journeys that cause them to reassess the world they live in and sometimes even the nature of the universe These journeys invariably occur through encountering non Western space and during the course of these journeys the dichotomy between Western space perceived as replete with sound and activity and non Western space empty of such blurs such that the fullness of the West is revealed to be simply a surface hiding the emptiness beneath In the end both Western and non Western space are revealed to be absences as the absence of sound becomes a correlative for the emptiness of space and the emptiness of space becomes a metonym for the cosmological emptiness of nothingness
