the bad the inspired and the pedestrian the worthwhile and the questionable The Algarrobos Quartet Gerardo Mario Goloboff, 2002 The Algarrobos Quartet is a series of four short enigmatic novels set on the northern pampas of Argentina. In the town of Algarrobos the rules of the game are mysterious and terrible events occur without warning. Unexpected deaths remain unexplained. Soldiers attack innocent workers. Pampered doves die brutally as well and a Biblical flood threatens to wash everything away. Most people in Algarrobos don't know why these things happen and they don't want to know. Puzzles and multiple meanings abound in Goloboff's writing. A central character is known as El Negro though he isn't black. In three of these Argentine Jewish novels only a few characters identify themselves as Jews. There are assimilated Jews, an old broken down Jewish cemetery and some stories of the Jewish past. The fourth novel deals with Italian Argentine anarchists. These novels are a transmutation of reality, a veil, a facade. Goloboff's prose takes on multiple meanings and the translation masterfully captures his use of language to evoke enigmas that challenge us to understand both the stories and how chaos and the unexpected engulf us all.

I Am of the Tribe of Judah Stephen A. Sadow, 2024-04-15 The first anthology of its kind. I Am of the Tribe of Judah Poems from Jewish Latin America brings together poetry from the Mexican border to the tip of South America. Originally written in Spanish, Portuguese, Yiddish, Ladino, Castilian and Hebrew, these poems have been translated into English many for the first time by a group of prize winning translators. This multilingual collection looks at the tradition across more than five hundred years featuring poems that exalt being Jewish whether Ashkenazi or Sephardic and poems that express humor and satire. Conversely there are poems in response to anti-Semitism and poems of exile of protest and of the Holocaust. In a different mode there are wondrous poems on mysticism and Kabbalah. The book includes an insightful introduction and historical background by world renowned literary and social critic Ilan Stavans, professor at Amherst College.

Unbroken Charles Papiernik, 2004 Twentieth century Jewish history is embodied in this autobiography of a World War II Holocaust survivor who lives today in Argentina. Charles Papiernik was educated in a Polish shtetl, a small town. Breaking away from his ultra orthodox Hasidic teachers he became active in socialist youth movements in Warsaw and moved to Paris to join his brothers. In spite of being deported and spending time in concentration camps including Auschwitz he survived the war and immigrated to Montevideo, Uruguay where he opened a business and prospered. After twenty five years in Uruguay political and economic turmoil prompted him to immigrate once again this time to Buenos Aires where once again his business acumen led to financial success. He eventually retired, devoting his energies to telling the public about the horrors of the Holocaust. One of the few South American Holocaust memoirs available in English, Papiernik's story is very different from the stereotypical image of Holocaust survivors in South America forced to live cheek by jowl with ex-Nazis. Papiernik took Uruguay and Argentina by storm and claims never to have encountered anti-Semitism.

Like a Bride and Like a Mother Rosa Nissán, 2013-02-15 These two autobiographical novels lay bare the life journey of a Mexican Jewish woman reconciling herself with a Sephardic background, her parents' dictates and her husband's and family's expectations.

The only constant in her life is a need to find her own way and the story of how she does so is intensely personal and yet universal in its humanness This quest begins in Oshinica's childhood at about age ten she's taken from the public school in Mexico City and placed in a Jewish one There she begins to understand what it means to be Jewish Though somewhat indifferent to Hebrew lessons she warms to the teacher who shares experiences of the Holocaust and learns that being Jewish means being different Oshinica's family thwarts her desire to enter the university and instead she's pushed into marriage at age seventeen Children follow quickly four in all and into the 1960s Oshinica tries to be a dutiful wife and mother while continuing to be an obedient daughter But the insular Jewish neighborhood that sheltered and defined her life is impinged upon as modernity transforms Mexico City Seeing films like the Fellini movie 8 1 2 and experiencing a culturally changing capital city sets her on a quest for her own voice and space Eventually she separates and divorces supports herself as a commercial photographer and enrolls in a creative writing course taught by Elena Poniatowska one of Mexico's most prominent women authors The short pieces begun in that course evolved into these two novels The remarkable story they tell is how Oshinica's many and often painful journeys of discovery led to a personal peace I've never met a person so natural and spontaneous Rosa Niss n adapts herself to life the way a plant adapts itself to the soil or the sun Elena Poniatowska

Pomegranate Seeds Nadia Grosser Nagarajan, 2005 Pomegranate Seeds is the first collection of the oral tradition of Latin American Jews to be presented in English These thirty four tales span the 500 years of Jewish presence in Latin America and the Caribbean The folktales and cultural oral narratives were often based on actual events recorded not only from the Ashkenazi perspective but from the Sephardic and Oriental as well Like dispersed pomegranate seeds all the stories come from a common cluster yet each is a separate kernel The stories are short between five and fifteen pages and each is carefully annotated In addition to gathering stories from eleven Latin American countries the author found material in the United States and Israel Regardless of their origin several tales have to do with personal feelings emotional insights and interpretation of the protagonists while others deal with happy or traumatic events that cannot be forgotten and dreams that have not been fulfilled Not surprisingly trauma and bigotry are common threads through some of the stories These are tales as Nadia Grosser Nagarajan says concealed by tropical greenery encircled by vast jungles and flowing majestic rivers that echo many voices and reflect many views and visions South American Explorer, 2000 Book Review Digest, 2002-08
