The Infinite Thread (EasyRead Edition) , The Infinite Thread Alexandra Kennedy,2011-03-15 The loss we feel when a loved one dies is profound often accompanied by regret for all that we didn t say or do Such regret can hinder emotional growth and create wounds that affect all other aspects of our lives But loss doesn t necessarily mean the end of a connection with a loved one In fact it can open the doors to a unique relationship that offers intimacy healing and renewal In The Infinite Thread author Alexandra Kennedy helps us deal with loss in a powerful new way by using active imagination letters and inner dialogue to re create and heal past relationships In doing so we also amend the often strained ties with those still living The Infinite Thread strips away the veils of mystery surrounding death and transcends preconceptions about death and dying Rich with opportunities for reflection it brings enormous comfort to anyone who has ever lost a loved one or been faced with their own mortality      The Emotional Dynamics of Law and Legal Discourse Heather Conway, John Stannard, 2016-12-15 In his seminal work Emotional Intelligence Daniel Goleman suggests that the common view of human intelligence is far too narrow and that emotions play a much greater role in thought decision making and individual success than is commonly acknowledged The importance of emotion to human experience cannot be denied yet the relationship between law and emotion is one that has largely been ignored until recent years However the last two decades have seen a rapidly expanding interest among scholars of all disciplines into the way in which law and the emotions interact including the law's response to emotion and the extent to which emotions pervade the practice of the law In The Emotional Dynamics of Law and Legal Discourse a group of leading scholars from both sides of the Atlantic explore these issues across key areas of private law public law criminal justice and dispute resolution illustrating how emotion infuses all areas of legal thought The collection argues for a more positive view of the role of emotion in the context of legal discourse and demonstrates ways in which the law could in the words of Goleman become more emotionally intelligent      From Child to Elder Alan Pope, 2006 From Child to Elder explores the personal growth that can arise when a middle aged adult loses his or her last living parent Based on an empirical phenomenological study this book details the complex ways in which the adult orphan's ongoing relationship to the deceased parents combined with the unique meanings of the loss leads to a deepening of individual autonomy and spiritual awakening Confrontation with mortality and fundamental aloneness promotes among other things an increased sense of existential responsibility toward self and others as the adult orphan psychologically assumes its new role as an elder These and many other themes are structured into an integrated whole and amplified through developmental existential and Jungian perspectives The result is a compelling portrait of the processes by which the death of one's parents can accelerate psychospiritual development

Nobody's Child Diane Lutovich, 2016-12-05 When Diane Sher Lutovich set out to attain closure of her mother's death she simultaneously discovered how other women address their losses Nobody's Child How Older Women Say Good bye to Their Mothers in poetry and prose tells the big and little stories of women who having come of age during the feminist revolution lived very different lives than their mothers The author addresses the guilt a daughter feels when confronted by her mother's life choices the loss of family history and a belated recognition of her mother's legacy The voices are heard within these pages giving occasion for the reader to learn about the multiplicity of feelings including remorse fear frustration compassion and deep admiration that many daughters experience at their mother's passing      The Grief Club Melody Beattie, 2009-08-07 The Grief Club is Melody Beattie's profoundly personal powerfully healing book to help readers through life's most difficult times Part memoir part self help book part journalism The Grief Club is a book of stories bound together by the human experience of loss in its many forms such as death divorce drug addiction and the tumultuous yet tender process of recovery It s a book you need to read and share Twenty years ago Codependent No More established Melody Beattie as a pioneering voice in self help literature and endeared her to readers who longed for healthier relationships Over the years Melody has invited readers into her life with several more best selling books each punctuated with her trademark candor and intuitive wisdom

Tarot Shadow Work Christine Jette,2000 In Tarot Shadow Work Christine Jette bravely takes the practice of tarot readings to new depths and places many people fear to go She shows us how we can use the cards to trigger awareness in ourselves of troubling aspects of our lives and histories and then go beyond discovery to use the cards as tools for healing This is part of the work that needs to be done with tarot in this new century Rachel Pollack author of 78 Degrees of Wisdom and the forthcoming Shining Tribe Tarot Deep within our psyches the unconscious holds our forbidden feelings secret wishes and creative urges Over time these dark forces take on a life of their own and form the shadow a powerful force of unresolved inner conflicts and unexpressed emotions that defies our efforts to control it The shadow takes its shape from a menagerie of archetypes each recognizable throughout time and around the world troubling characters who thrive within our persona The shadow is saboteur martyr victim addict sadist masochist or tyrant all the dark figures that prey on the lighter qualities of the human personality The shadow also represents those latent talents and positive traits that were banished from us at some time along our life path artistic musical athletic or creative talents An undeveloped ability a dream that has gone unexpressed a fantasy of what might have been these too make up the personal shadow the lost parts of ourselves Tarot Shadow Work shows you how to free yourself from the shackles of the shadow s power Through tarot work journaling meditation creative visualization and dream work you will bring the shadow into the light This book is ideal for those who are in recovery from a serious addiction or illness as well as any person seeking a deeper understanding of his or her true self By exploring the dark and uncharted territory of the unconscious mind you will work towards understanding and integrating the shadow No prior knowledge of the tarot is required You will learn to use the cards as a tool to help you break free from negative patterns and self destructive behavior Once we realize that we are made of both light and darkness life will start to make sense When we accept our dual natures we stop sabotaging our own efforts and learn to be compassionate with others and with ourselves

Tarot for the Healing Heart Christine Jette,2001 Jette details how to create a healing atmosphere through tarot One does not need to be a tarot expert or a healing practitioner to benefit from this book All that is needed is a desire to heal an open mind and a courageous heart
