Losing A Parent Practical Help For You And Other Family Members:

Losing A Parent Fiona Marshall, 2009-04-28 Whether from a sudden accident or a slow terminal illness the death of a parent is devastating to adults and children alike In Losing a Parent Fiona Marshall helps readers understand the process of coping with a parent's death from preparing for death to recognizing the different stages of grief from nurturing the relationship with the surviving parent to harnessing new strength to carry on with life Wise compassionate and practical Losing a Parent is an invaluable source of support for a time of overwhelming loss Living, Loving and Loss Brad DeFord, Richard Gilbert, 2016-12-05 One of the unspoken aspects of mourning concerns the ways that loss affects our intimate relationships and our sexual expressiveness This text opens these subjects for conversation with the aim of promoting the trust care and respect that enable us to be vulnerable It purposefully covers a range of topics including 1 the meaning of intimacy and the significance of sexuality providing a basis for the use of these terms throughout the book 2 death grief and differences in sexual orientation including death and intimacy in the lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT community and the losses endured by young people due to gender issues 3 loss of relationship and restoration of intimacy in families including pharmacological effects on the grief processes of widowers grieving a not so loved parent the layered losses of infertility and intimacy and the tolls of war intimacy and sexuality challenges for soldiers and their families 4 adjusting to life's losses associated with aging or illness or infirmity including Alzheimer's and dementia related illnesses physical health losses after 50 and intimacy sex and hospice self determination and dignity at the end of life and 5 religious bases that have shaped our perspectives for understanding intimacy sexuality and healing after loss and which give us hope including the spiritual reflections of a rabbi and a Christian voice in defining what is right Set in a framework that is both psychological and spiritual the well researched contributions are intended to acknowledge these experiences both professionally and personally The book concludes with an extensive bibliography valuable for research and reference This book will be of value in undergraduate and graduate courses on thanatology as well as for anyone interested in knowing more about grief both those currently bereaved and those who wish to support others in mourning The contributors appreciate both the importance of our capacities for intimacy and sexuality and our inhibitions and hesitations in giving voice to our needs and concerns perhaps especially when we are grieving The information and compassionate understanding they provide encourage us to bridge the gap between the secret and the private and to share what is close to our hearts

Losing a Parent Fiona Marshall, 1993-01-01 Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill

When Parents Die Rebecca Abrams,1999 This new edition covers the entire course of grieving from the immediate aftermath of a parent s death through to the point of recovery paying particular attention to the many circumstances that can prolong and complicate mourning

Losing a Parent to Suicide Marty Loy,Amy Boelk,2013-09-05 The suicide of a parent has life long consequences few more traumatic scenarios exist and counselors often struggle for ways to help clients deal with its effects Few understand the pain and life altering effects of these tragedies better than children who have experienced the suicide of a parent Despite this there are few texts that incorporate and evaluate the first person accounts of grief following a suicide while advancing a method for helping Losing a Parent to Suicide analyzes stories of parent suicides and explores the grief and coping processes that follow discovering the strategies methods and modes of therapy that have empowered grieving individuals and helped them rebuild their lives

Helping Those Experiencing Loss Robert J. Grover Professor Emeritus,Susan G. Fowler,2011-07-13 This book provides a guide for grieving youth and adults as well as extensive descriptive lists of recommended professional literature resources Grief caused by loss is both a very common human experience and a highly individualized one For example children experience a number of losses that are unique to their young age such as sibling and parent death adoption or divorce and should be given special consideration by professionals and parents helping them in these situations For gay lesbian or cohabiting heterosexual couples that suffer the loss of a partner societal standards often deny the survivors in these relationships the right to grieve Helping Those Experiencing Loss A Guide to Grieving Resources is a book like no other supplying compassionate information for navigating the emotional distress that every man and woman will experience in their lifetime as well as a comprehensive guide to the literature of bereavement and grieving It explains the grieving process interpreting the results of research on the topic in plain language and addressing specific groups children young adults parents who have lost a child adults who have lost spouses and the aging population
