Still Here with Me Suzanne Sjöqvist, Margaret Myers, 2007 A collection of stories by young people who have faced the death of a parent Each child and adolescent creates a picture of their journey through grief with compassion and insight

A Music I No Longer Heard Leslie Simon, Jan Johnson Drantell, 2010-07-18 Parents die At any age the loss of a parent marks a profound and often overlooked transition in life When the parent leaves a young child to grow up without guidance nurturing goading and love the event becomes a landmark a defining moment When authors Leslie Simon and Jan Johnson Drantell learned of their common experience of losing a parent at a young age they set out to discover the experiences and effects that unite those who have lived through this same signal event Every tragedy has its before and after they write One day a child s life feels normal the next it feels as if the world has torn apart This is a rent that can never be repaired a wound that despite the passage of time and the coming of age never truly heals In A Music I No Longer Heard Simon and Drantell have collected the voices of seventy men and women who share this poignant life s journey Even three or four years later the noted filmmaker Ken Burns remembered my wish would be that my mother would come back I think I just submerged the fact that she had died As life progresses the authors point out every new experience is filtered through the lens of loss The dead parent remains a vibrant presence in these lives My relationship with my father doesn t seem finished or sealed Or in the words of another I feed myself with memories of my mother I think about her and it is just a wonderful feeling Most of all these children of loss experience adulthood differently always compensating in some way when choosing a mate or a career in developing the ability to trust and to love and in the willingness to take risks and live life to the fullest Maybe my dad s death in some small way one woman wonders helped me to wake up and see what the world is what the world could offer What emerges from these stories is a moving portrait of the many and various ways that the death of a parent shapes one s life A Music I No Longer Heard will be therapeutic for those who have lost a parent and will enable those who have not to understand the complex emotions that surround this all too common experience

Losing a Parent to Suicide Marty Loy, Amy Boelk, 2013-09-05 The suicide of a parent has life long consequences few more traumatic scenarios exist and counselors often struggle for ways to help clients deal with its effects Few understand the pain and life altering effects of these tragedies better than children who have experienced the suicide of a parent Despite this there are few texts that incorporate and evaluate the first person accounts of grief following a suicide while advancing a method for helping Losing a Parent to Suicide analyzes stories of parent suicides and explores the grief and coping processes that follow discovering the strategies methods and modes of therapy that have empowered grieving individuals and helped them rebuild their lives
