Losing Our Virtue:

Losing Our Virtue David F. Wells, 1999-02 Why the Church must recover its moral vision The Making of Evangelical Spirituality Jason Cherry, 2023-01-05 How did it come to be that evangelicals expect individualized extrabiblical revelation from God What has happened culturally historically and theologically to make this the ubiquitous assumption of evangelical spirituality The Making of Evangelical Spirituality is a compound of history and theology applied to the subject of evangelical spirituality specifically the phenomenon of evangelicals thinking God spoke to me in a still quiet voice The story is complex multifaceted and urgently in need of telling Few Christians know the history of the spiritual expectations heaped upon them Few know the individuals who gave shape to evangelical spirituality spiritual chieftains who were often guided by uniquely ephemeral social and cultural forces There is no towering figure like Martin Luther that stands as the lone front man for the esoterica of evangelical spirituality Instead it's the osmosis of many fascinating people struggling through life in the storm of worldly and cultural momentum This book is the story of those hermits monks reformers heretics politicians outcasts and preachers who gave shape Failure to tell the story now risks it becoming just another part of historical compost threatening to make evangelicals forever ignorant of what they are tossing into the garden of their soul Difficult Virtues Howard J.

Curzer, 2024-03-07 In this book Howard J Curzer describes eight virtues that have proven problematic to virtue ethicists Integrity has been the subject of wildly different accounts Open mindedness and forgiveness are described in ways that many endorse but few seek to practice Accounts of tolerance and civility generally fit only the privileged Finally good timing ambition and creativity have attracted almost no attention at all Curzer offers novel plausible accounts of all of these eight difficult virtues and demonstrates that they possess the standard features of Aristotelian virtues for example conformity to the Doctrine of the Mean This enlarges the scope of Aristotelian virtue ethics by enabling it to cover eight additional spheres of human life Using these difficult virtues as springboards and extrapolating from some of Aristotle's remarks Curzer codifies some standard features of Aristotelian virtues and speculatively suggests additional features to enhance the descriptive and prescriptive power of Aristotelian virtue ethics Thus Curzer adds to the standard list of Aristotelian virtues and to the standard list of features that make virtues Aristotelian Each difficult virtue is different but certain themes thread through all of them self construction social critique and significant creation Curzer's accounts of these virtues illuminate the ways people forge their own identities struggle to acquire virtue despite disadvantage and produce and appreciate novelty Our Paper

, 1892 Losing Our Heads Regina Janes, 2005-08-01 What is the fascination that decapitation holds for us as individuals and as a culture Why does the idea make us laugh and the act make us close our eyes Losing Our Heads explores in both artistic and cultural contexts the role of the chopped off head It asks why the practice of decapitation was once so widespread why it has diminished but not as scenes from contemporary Iraq show completely disappeared and why we find it so peculiarly repulsive that we use it as a principal marker to separate ourselves from a more barbaric or primitive past

Although the topic is grim Regina Janes s treatment and conclusions are neither grisly nor gruesome but continuously instructive about the ironies of humanity s cultural nature Bringing to bear an array of evidence the book argues that the human ability to create meaning from the body motivates the practice of decapitation its diminution the impossibility of its extirpation and its continuing fascination Ranging from antiquity to the late nineteenth century passion for Salom and John the Baptist and from the enlightenment to postcolonial Africa s challenge to the severed head as sign of barbarism Losing Our Heads opens new areas of investigation enabling readers to understand the shock of decapitation and to see the value in moving past shock to analysis Written with penetrating wit and featuring striking illustrations it is sure to captivate anyone interested in his or her head

Jr.,2005 Trust in an Age of Arrogance C FitzSimons Allison,2011-05-26 God is in the dock Shall we convict him or forgive him Shall we replace the God of Scripture with another of our choosing mock and deride him or ignore him Shall we replace revelation with the chaos of speculation We perceive ourselves ratherthan God as the center of the world and this universal condition leads to conflict with others and with God Maintaining our center causes cheating lying litigation divorce wars genocide and human misery Western civilization is giving up trust in the promise of God s mercy justice and forgiveness and replacing it with trust in the goodness of man Jesus warned us to beware the teaching of the Sadducees and Pharisees The Sadducees who denied hope of eternal life are a rough equivalent of our modern day secularists with their religious trust that this world is all there is Replacing God with trust in flawed human nature is a mark of arrogance that even pagans would have characterized as hubris evoking divine wrath The Pharisee s yeast of self righteousness is a natural condition of us all Even when cleansed it reappears in every tradition rendering forgiveness and transformation a promise only for those who think they have earned and deserve it Such a distortion of God s word is congenial to our self as center but it robs us sinners of the justice and mercy of a loving God Following Jesus s warning we have the opportunity to wipe away the Sadducee arrogance and the Pharisee self righteousness and discover anew the supreme power and joy of the Christian faith

David F. Wells,2006-08 In this prophetic call to the evangelical church Wells stresses that Christians need to confess Christ as the center in a society lacking a center as the sovereign in a world seemingly ruled by chance and as the one who can give meaning in a nihilistic culture David--Dancing Like a King Larry Lichtenwalter,Larry L.

Lichtenwalter,2005-02 At last David is king He can defeat the Philistines But can he resist a beautiful woman In his third book walking through the life of David Larry Lichtenwalter shows us the qualities David possessed as a leader Each chapter gives the reader an abundance of theological insights and pulls an enormous amount of spiritual lessons from the exciting exploits of David a man after God s own heart Practice of Perfection and Christian Virtues Alfonso Rodríguez,1929

Can Evangelicals Learn from World Religions? Gerald R. McDermott,2000-08-15 More than ever before Christians need to explain why they follow Jesus and not the Buddha or Confucius or Krishna or Muhammed This evangelical theology of religions addresses the problem of truth and revelation and takes seriously the normative claims of other traditions McDermott shows readers what Christians can learn from world religions without sacrificing the finality of Christ No Partiality Douglas R. Sharp,2002-01-01 Douglas Sharp explores the theoretical constructions of race including its psychological sociopolitical and socioeconomic dimensions Finally Sharp carefully weaves a theological model of racial reconciliation for a new humanity
