Lost And Found A Second Generation Response To The Holocaust:

From Things Lost Shirli Gilbert, 2017-05-15 An intimate history of the Holocaust that casts new light on our understanding of victimhood and survival In May 1933 a young man named Rudolf Schwab fled Nazi Germany His departure allegedly came at the insistence of a close friend who later joined the Party Schwab eventually arrived in South Africa one of the few countries left where Jews could seek refuge and years later resumed a relationship in letters with the Nazi who in many ways saved his life From Things Lost Forgotten Letters and the Legacy of the Holocaust is a story of displacement survival and an unlikely friendship in the wake of the Holocaust via an extraordinary collection of letters discovered in a forgotten trunk Only a handful of extended Schwab family members were alive in the war's aftermath Dispersed across five continents their lives mirrored those of countless refugees who landed in the most unlikely places Over years in exile a web of communication became an alternative world for these refugees a place where they could remember what they had lost and rebuild their identities anew Among the cast of characters that historian Shirli Gilbert came to know through the letters one name that appeared again and again was Karl Kipfer He was someone with whom Rudolf clearly got on exceedingly well there was lots of joking familiarity and sentimental reminiscing That was Grandpa's best friend growing up Rudolf's grandson explained to Gilbert He was a Nazi and was the one who encouraged Rudolf to leave Germany He also later helped him to recover the family's property Gilbert takes readers on a journey through a family's personal history wherein we learn about a cynical Karl who attempts to make amends for his undemocratic past and a version of Rudolf who spends hours aloof at his Johannesburg writing desk dressed in his Sunday finest holding together the fragile threads of his existence The Schwab family's story brings us closer to grasping the complex choices and motivations that even in extreme situations or perhaps because of them make us human In a world of devastation the letters in From Things Lost act as a surrogate for the gravestones that did not exist and funerals that were never held Readers of personal accounts of the Holocaust will be swept away by this intimate story

Letters from the Lost Helen Waldstein Wilkes,2010 On March 15 1939 Helen Waldstein s father snatched his stamped exit visa from a distracted clerk to escape from Prague with his wife and child As the Nazis closed in on a war torn Czechoslovakia only letters from their extended family could reach Canada through the barriers of conflict The Waldstein family received these letters as they made their lives on a southern Ontario farm where they learned to be Canadian and forget their Jewish roots Helen Waldstein read these letters as an adult this changed everything As her past refused to keep silent Helen followed the trail of the letters back to Europe where she discovered living witnesses who could attest to the letters contents She has here interwoven their stories and her own into a compelling narrative of suffering survivor guilt and overcoming intergenerational obstacles when exploring a traumatic past

Breaking the Silence Marilyn Moos,2015-02-04 There has been extensive research into the impact of the Holocaust on the children of survivors who immigrated to the US and Israel But very little work in this space has looked at children whose parents fled Nazi persecution before the Holocaust Even less attention has been paid to those who ended up in Britain from Germany Austria Czechoslovakia and Hungary What was the impact on this second generation How have the lives of these ordinary people been shaped by their parents dislocation Using a series of interviews with members of the second generation Breaking the Silence is a qualitative interdisciplinary exploration how their lives were shaped by their parents escape from persecution It offers an insight into how the exile and fear of persecution of the parents and the deaths murder of unknown relatives has left this generation both bereft of memories and haunted by the past

Britzman, 1998-01-01
