Lost Between Houses:

Lost Between Houses David Gilmour, 2011-02-04 Lost Between Houses is about a turbulent year in the life of Simon Albright a fifteen year old private school boy struggling to be his sophisticated mother's best friend the rebel his girlfriend adores and the son his father respects Which is a hard act to pull off when your mother is distracted your girlfriend too beautiful and your father in and out of a mental institution Lost Between Houses unfolds with mingled sarcasm grief and awe and grips the reader until its startling climax From the Hardcover edition Lost Auburn Ralph Brown Draughon (Jr.), Delos Hughes, 2012-01-01 Lost Auburn A Village Remembered in Period Photographs offers a dynamic record of the buildings that once stood in Auburn Alabama which have fallen to natural disaster war poverty and neglect and to what some would call progress More than two hundred photographs of lost buildings give three historians the opportunity to relate stories of those who once worshipped learned and lived in Auburn Together these photographs and the accompanying text vividly convey the uniqueness of the village of Auburn that was Lost Auburn is more than just a document about the lost architectural fabric of a charming village It is both a volume of insightful commentary and an opportunity to reflect on the role of community in the life of a Southern town Practical House Building Robert Matthews, 1991 Lost illusions. Gaudissart II Honoré de Balzac, 1899 Lost New York Nathan Silver, 2000 Contains photographs and descriptions of mansions nightclubs opera houses churches parks and other places that once graced the city of New York Lost Mansions J. Raven, 2015-04-29 This provocative volume stimulates debate about lost heritage by examining the history of the hundreds of great houses demolished in Britain and Ireland in the twentieth century Seven lively essays debate our understanding of what is meant by loss and how it relates to popular conceptions of the great house Excavating Çatalhöyük Ian Hodder, 2017-10-01 Ian Hodder's campaigns of excavation at the world famous Neolithic settlement of atalhyk are one of the largest most complex and most exciting archaeological field projects in the world and recognized as agenda setting not only in terms of our understanding of early farming communities in the Near East particularly the central role religion played in their daily lives but also in terms of the interaction between theory and practice in the trenches and on site laboratories This volume presents the results of excavation in three areas of the site known as South North and KOPAL excavated between 1995 and 1999 The book describes aspects of the excavation recording and sampling methodologies that are necessary for an understanding of the results presented plus it incorporates interpretive discussion It brings in data from the study of animal bones lithics ceramics micromorphology and the full suite of analyses conducted on the material These accounts are interspersed with individual specialists commentaries and conclusions that mimic the process of collaborative interpretation that takes place during excavation and post excavation The objective descriptions of the archaeology are thus exposed as interpretations involving a balancing of a variety of different types of data and scholarly input Another thought provoking volume in the atalhyk excavation series which will be read with profit by any archaeologist engaged in working at volume presents fourteen papers by Roman archaeologists and historians discussing approaches to the economic history of Pompeii and the role of the Pompeian evidence in debates about the Roman economy Four themes are discussed The first of these is the position of Pompeii and its agricultural environment discussing the productivity and specialization of agriculture in the Vesuvian region and the degree to which we can explain Pompeii s size and wealth on the basis of the city s economic hinterland A second issue discussed is what Pompeians got out of their economy how well off were people in Pompeii This involves discussing the consumption of everyday consumer goods analyzing archaeobotanical remains to highlight the quality of Pompeian diets and discussing what bone remains reveal about the health of the inhabitants of Pompeii A third theme is economic life in the city how are we to understand the evidence for crafts and manufacturing How are we to assess Pompeii s commercial topography Who were the people who actually invested in constructing shops and workshops In which economic contexts were Pompeian paintings produced Finally the volume discusses money and business how integrated was Pompeii into the wider world of commerce and exchange and what can the many coins found at Pompeii tell us about this What do the wax tablets found near Pompeii tell us about trade in the Bay of Naples in the first century AD Together the chapters of this volume highlight how Pompeii became a very rich community and how it profited from its position in the centre of the Roman
