Lost for Words Edward St. Aubyn, 2014-05-20 A laugh out loud sendup of literary prizes Like a long Monty Python sketch from the author of the Patrick Melrose novels Kirkus Reviews Winner of the 2014 Wodehouse Prize A withering satire a deliciously irreverent novel Jonathan Yardley The Washington Post The judges on the panel of the Elysian Prize for Literature must get through hundreds of submissions to find the best book of the year Meanwhile a host of writers are desperate for Elysian attention the brilliant writer and serial heartbreaker Katherine Burns the lovelorn debut novelist Sam Black and Bunjee convinced that his magnum opus The Mulberry Elephant will take the literary world by storm Things go terribly wrong when Katherine's publisher accidentally submits a cookery book in place of her novel one of the judges finds himself in the middle of a scandal and Bunjee aghast to learn his book isn't on the short list seeks revenge Lost for Words is a witty fabulously entertaining satire that cuts to the quick of some of the deepest questions about the place of art in our celebrity obsessed culture and asks how we can ever hope to recognize real talent when everyone has an agenda Lost for Words is a satirical romp that showcases St Aubyn's Waugh like talent for comedy and his unsparing eye for people's pretensions and self delusions Michiko Kakutani The New York Times

Lost for Words? Goetz Frank Ottmann, 2010-10-06 Lost for Words explores the rise and decline of progressive Catholic grassroots activism and its drive for social justice and democratic change in four low income neighborhoods in S o Paulo Brazil Ottmann focuses on the obstacles faced by the poor who took seriously the claim that the people were to transform Brazilian society from the bottom up He follows their travails through periods of democratization mass unemployment and conservative backlash within the Church Goetz Frank Ottmann moves beyond purely political analysis to record how residents and progressive Catholic activists were drawn into a struggle for a juster society and how this movement began to unravel even before it reached its peak in the early 1980s Based on in depth interviews and participant observation and drawing on theoretical insights from recent debates on social movements and the sociology of religion he examines how by the early 1990s the liberationist movement had lost its following lost its allies failed to achieve its core goals and seemed to die Ottmann then shows how in recent years activists have worked to create a new and pragmatic form of religious activism one that draws on a range of agendas including Catholic feminism
