More junior authors Muriel Fuller, 1977 Young Adult Science Fiction C. W. Sullivan III, 1999-03-30 At the close of the nineteenth century American youths developed a growing interest in electricity and its applications machines and gadgetry When authors and publishers recognized the extent of this interest in technology they sought to create reading materials that would meet this market need The result was science fiction written especially for young adults While critics tended to neglect young adult science fiction for decades they gradually came to recognize its practical and cultural value Science fiction inspired many young adults to study science and engineering and helped foster technological innovation At the same time these works also explored cultural and social concerns more commonly associated with serious literature Nor was young adult science fiction a peculiarly American phenomenon authors in other countries likewise wrote science fiction for young adult readers This book examines young adult science fiction in the U S and several other countries and explores issues central to the genre The first part of the book treats the larger contexts of young adult science fiction and includes chapters on its history and development Included are discussions of science fiction for young adults in the U S and in Canada Great Britain Germany and Australia These chapters are written by expert contributors and chart the history of young adult science fiction from the nineteenth century to the present The second section of the book considers topics of special interest to young adult science fiction Some of the chapters look at particular forms and expressions of science fiction such as films and comic books Others treat particular topics such as the portrayal of women in Robert Heinlein's works and representations of war in young adult science fiction Yet another chapter studies the young adult science fiction novel as a coming of age story and thus helps distinguish the genre from science fiction written for adult readers All chapters reflect current research and the volume concludes with extensive bibliographies

Writers of Multicultural Fiction for Young Adults M. Daphne Kutzer, 1996-01-09 Multicultural fiction is an essential part of the American literary landscape This reference helps scholars teachers and librarians choose significant texts from both the past and present and provides guidance in approaching multicultural issues as they are discussed in fiction for young adults Included are entries for 51 writers some of whom have nearly been forgotten others who are just emerging Each entry provides biographical critical and bibliographical information while a general bibliography of works on multicultural literature concludes the book Authors included range from the nearly forgotten such as Laura Adams Armer to the newly discovered such as Graham Salisbury winner of the 1994 Scott O Dell Award for Historical Fiction The breadth of authors covered ensures an historical context for the issues raised by multiculturalism and the sections on the critical reception of each author address such important issues as the authority and authenticity of the writer to comment on a different culture Contributors are of many different ethnicities and include important scholars of children's literature lending authenticity and authority to the volume itself

Beyond Good Night, Moon - 75 Reviews of Classic Books for Young Children Joan Ayer, 2006-11 According to a recent census there are more than 18 million preschoolers in this country and hopefully all of them have a caring adult who reads to them on a regular basis Whether you are the parent of a young child an early primary teacher a busy nanny a doting grandparent or simply a wise and loving aunt or uncle I have written Beyond Good Night Moon 75 Reviews of Classic Books For Young Children just for you As the title suggests it contains concise reviews of classic children's books that are appropriate to be read aloud to little ones Here are some titles reviewed in the book 1 Madeline 2 Clifford the Small Red Puppy 3 Jesse Bear What Will You Wear 4 Freight Train 5 Jamberry 6 Are You My Mother 7 Corduroy 8 Millions of Cats 9 Bedtime For Frances 10 The Snowy Day 11 Little Bear and 12 The Monster at the End of this Book Joan Louthain Ayer graduated from the University of Wisconsin at Platteville and received her Master's Degree in Elementary Education from Butler University in Indianapolis She has taught in the public schools in Madison Wisconsin and in several Indiana communities She has taught all of the early primary grades and five years of preschool Joan reviewed children's books for the Tribune Star newspaper in Terre Haute for 15 years She and her husband Gordon live in Indianapolis and have been married for 41 years They have three adult children a daughter in law and three very young grandchildren All are book lovers
