On the Fringe

Various, 2003-03-24 Lacey is afraid to death that standing up for the school freak will destroy her popularity Gene mocked one time too many heads for class with a loaded rifle High school can be a war zone of popularity and persecution where no one really looks at the kids on the fringe In this powerful and timely collection some of today's most acclaimed authors bring to life eleven stories of outsiders facing the constant struggle of hate and acceptance Kids who are geeks unathletic poor emotionally fragile loners or unattractive by current standards form the heart of this collection of exceptional stories by well known YA authors such as Joan Bauer Chris Crutcher and M E Kerr Inspired by the events at Columbine High School the authors pondered what sorts of heartbreak could cause teens to react so powerfully and violently and how being isolated and shut out of high school groups could tear down the fragile walls of self esteem making vulnerable individuals snap and cause massive destruction The result is a compilation of short stories from the point of view of those tormented and those who view others being bullied and how their perceptions change as they examine the situations While all the stories are excellent Jack Gantos's Muzak for Prozac is an exceptional example of the fragile balance that one teen struggles to maintain through the use of mood stabilizing chemicals A must buy for all libraries SLJ

The United Stories of America Rolf

Lundén, 2022-06-08 This book discusses the American short story composite or short story cycle a neglected form of writing consisting of autonomous stories interlocking into a whole The critical work done on this genre has so far focused on the closural strategies of the composites on how unity is accomplished in these texts This study takes into consideration to a greater degree than earlier criticism the short story composite as an open work emphasizing the tension between the independent stories and the unified work between the discontinuity and fragmentation on the one hand and the totalizing strategies on the other The discussion of the genre is illustrated with references to numerous American short story composites

The Bully in the Book and in the Classroom C.J. Bott, 2004-07-08 Noted expert on bullying and English teacher Bott hand picked this selection of 40 books to use to successfully address the kinds of bullying behavior that occur at a particular age Arranged by grade level from K 12 chapters describe particular types of bullying and offer summaries and annotations reviews and evaluations with quotations that illustrate themes in each Activities and questions for discussion make this a particularly useful resource for the home school or public library

Formation of the Bible: the Story of the Church's Canon Lee Martin McDonald, 2012 Well known for his scholarly works on the formation of the biblical canon Lee McDonald has written a carefully researched and reasoned explanation on the history of the formation of the Bible expressly for the interested pastor and curious layman Combining a lifelong commitment to the Scriptures both as a pastor and as a scholar McDonald approaches his task with sensitivity to the importance of these sacred texts as well as with the thoughtful practice of a person steeped in the process by which these texts were brought together to form the Bible as the church knows it now From the collection and translations of the Hebrew Scriptures through the collection of the New Testament Scriptures and finally the process of settling on the final forms for these collections McDonald leads his reader right up to the present moment The Story of the Circle Curtain Bunny Kidd,2005 The Story of the Circle Curtain is a unique craft book which brings a fictional novella to life and gives the specific how to techniques for making these whimsical and unusual curtains The author creates her fictional heroine Lydia to represent the all consuming nature of crafts and sewing compelling activities that can absorb the seamstress or crafter so completely that one is tempted to call the desire to create an obsession All those who create artists musicians metallurgists printers bakers writers crafters seamstresses sculptors and designers understand the drive their form of expression demands The Story of the Circle Curtain is a unique expression of the creative drive which provides the reader the tools to join in the fun of making these decorative wall window and door hangings

The Sunnier Side and Other Stories Charles Jackson,2013-02-12 A masterful collection of short stories exposing the seamy undercurrents of small town American life from Charles Jackson celebrated author of The Lost Weekend A selection of Jackson s finest tales The Sunnier Side and Other Stories explores the trials of adolescence in America during the tumultuous years of the early twentieth century Set in the town of Arcadia in upstate New York the stories in this collection address the unspoken issues homosexuality masturbation alcoholism to name a few lurking just beneath the surface of the small town ideal The Sunnier Side showcases Jackson at the height of his storytelling powers reaffirming his reputation as a boundary pushing irreverent writer years ahead of his time The Story of the Stūpa Albert Henry Longhurst,1992 The Umbrella As A Symbol Of Religious Sovereignty The Evolution Of Stupa Kerala Architecture And Himalayan Architecture Prose fiction

the love affair that has captured the nation Prince Harry and Meghan Markle After much speculation in the national media Prince Harry finally confirmed the rumours about his relationship with American actress Meghan Markle Now on the news of their much anticipated engagement prominent columnist Emily Herbert tells the exclusive story of how the American actress stole the heart of a much loved British Prince From how they met their courtship and how they fell in love as well as insight into Ms Markle s upbringing in America readers will learn exactly how the Prince s heart was finally won Revealing the truth behind the headlines and the media speculation Harry Meghan The Love Story lets readers into the heart of a thoroughly modern royal love affair Montana, Its Story and Biography Tom Stout,1921 Motion Picture Story Magazine ,1923

An Old Sailor's Story George Eliel Sargent,1874 The Circle & the Spiral Eva Rask Knudsen,2021-11-01 In Aboriginal and M ori literature the circle and the spiral are the symbolic metaphors for a never ending journey of discovery and rediscovery The journey itself with its indigenous perspectives and sense of orientation is the most significant act of cultural recuperation The present study outlines the fields of indigenous writing in Australia and New Zealand in the crucial period between the mid 1980s and the early 1990s particularly eventful years in which postcolonial theory attempted to centre the margins and indigenous writers were keen to escape the particular centering offered in search of other positions more in tune with their creative sensibilities Indigenous writing relinquished its narrative preference for social realism in favour of traversing old territory in new spiritual ways roots converted into routes Standard postcolonial readings of indigenous texts often overwrite the difference they seek to locate because critical orthodoxy predetermines what difference can be Critical evaluations still tend to eclipse the ontological grounds of Aboriginal and M ori traditions and specific ways of moving through and behaving in cultural landscapes and social contexts Hence the corrective applied in Circles and Spirals to look for locally and culturally specific tracks and traces that lead in other directions than those catalogued by postcolonial convention This agenda is pursued by means of searching enquiries into the historical anthropological political and cultural determinants of the present state of Aboriginal and M ori writing principally fiction Independent yet interrelated exemplary analyses of works by Keri Hulme and Patricia Grace and Mudrooroo and Sam Watson Australia provided the thick description that illuminates the author s central theses with comparative side glances at Witi Ihimaera Heretaunga Pat Baker and Alan Duff New Zealand and Archie Weller and Sally Morgan Australia
