Peep At Washoe Sketches Of Virginia City:

A Peep at Washoe John Ross Browne, 1986 A Peep at Washoe John Ross Browne, 1968 A Peep at Washoe; Or, Sketch of Adventure in Virginia City John Ross Browne, 1875 R024: Bibliography of Nevada mining and geology, 1966-1970 , Mark Twain at the Gallows Jarrod D. Roark, 2019-09-26 This book is a literary exploration of Mark Twain's writings on crime in the American West and its intersection with morality, gender, and justice. Writing from his office at the Enterprise newspaper in the Nevada Territory, Twain employed a distinct style of crime writing, one that sensationalized facts and included Twain's personal philosophies and observations. Covering Twain's journalism, fictional works, and his own personal letters, this book contextualizes the writer's coverage of crime through his anxieties about westward expansion and the promise of a utopian West. Twain's observations on the West often reflected common perceptions of the day, positioning him as a voice of the people on issues like crime, punishment, and gender. Crusoe's Island John Ross Browne, 1871

Plains & Rockies, 1800-1865 , 2001 A new and important bibliographical addition to travel and adventure in the American West, this work expands on the basic reference work in the field, The Plains and the Rockies: A Critical Bibliography of Exploration, Adventure, and Travel in the American West, 1800-1865, begun by Henry R. Wagner and continued by Charles L. Camp and Robert H. Becker. A direct but independent outgrowth of David A. White's 8-volume series News of the Plains and Rockies, 1803-1865 (Spokane, Washington, 1996), this bibliography contains accounts discovered during the series' development and production which fit the guidelines of Wagner, Camp, and Becker but that were not included in their listings. Wagner's basic bibliography expanded from 349 items to 700 from its first issue in 1920 to the Becker revision of 1982. This new work adds 120 items to the catalog. The additions proposed emphasize genuine travels but also include a few historic armchair documents and one piece of fiction. Many are from government documents, some from magazine articles, and a few from the more important and early newspaper accounts. Some promotional tracts are added as well. The names of those whose sources are listed include Ezekiel Williams, his pioneering journeys to Colorado; John Ball, his earliest printed account of Oregon settlers; William Walker, the 1833 letter that touched off the Oregon missionary movement; Virginia E. B. Reed, her account of the Donner Party, 1847; Julia Archibald Holmes, her letter on her 1858 ascent of Pike's Peak; Gov. James Douglas, his 1858-62 first reports of the Fraser River and Cariboo gold rushes; Theodore Judah, his 1860 defining document for the Central Pacific Railroad; Charles Farrar Browne, humorist; Artemus Ward's 1864 travels among the Mormons; and Lucinda Eubank and Nancy Morton, their 1864-65 captivities. The Reprints: A sampling of 33 of the 120 additions to the bibliography judged to be the more important or appealing is reprinted here in the format adopted by the News of the Plains series, with detailed introductions by the editor. The items reprinted are the best of the shortest accounts. Many of these short items are also of the greatest historical interest, including the first good record of fur hunting in the Rocky Mountains, the first enunciation of the Great American Desert concept, the first government report on the Missouri fur trade, the first tribute to the explorations of

Jedediah Smith the first article on white women crossing the Rockies the first notice of Whitman's famous winter ride the first official Mormon confirmation of their intended Western haven the first word on Aubrey's record horseback ride the first news of the Gunnison and Grattan massacres and the first reports of American scientific explorations overland to Alaska Though independent of the News of the Plains and Rockies series this volume offers a fine conclusion to the eight volume set and is designed to complement the series The book contains an introduction annotated bibliography reprints appendix listings and index as well as facsimiles and illustrations Printed on acid free paper and bound in maroon linen cloth with foil stamped spine and front cover Issued in an edition of 1000 copies Black Powder and Hand Steel Otis E. Young, Robert Lenon, 2016-03-14 Mining in the western United States entered its great era after 1860 through use of the double jack black powder hand steel Bickford fuse wire rope and the steam engine Those were the years of bonanza strikes Henry Wickenburg's Vulture Mine in Arizona Territory the main hard rock gold strike in the desert Southwest Ed Schieffelin's discovery of vast silver deposits in Tombstone Arizona and the Tonopah Goldfield strike in Nevada which netted over one hundred million dollars Black Powder and Hand Steel describes the miners and the machinery they used Otis E Young Jr gives an account of the miners particularly the Cornish and Irish their origins character social life pleasures and most important their labors The miner's lot depended on the tools he used and the author traces the evolution of the miner's most important tools from hoisting bucket to mine elevator cold mining to dynamite ore car to skip hemp to wire rope and slow match to Bickford fuse Young reveals the difficulties of prospecting and mining two of the West's most valuable ores gold and silver and gives readers a firsthand look at the challenges of working even the most successful strikes A companion volume to Young's Western Mining Black Powder and Hand Steel is written in the same lively style informative and entertaining for general readers and scholars It is also well illustrated with drawings by Buck O'Donnell The Roar and the Silence Ronald M. James, 2012-05-30 Nevada's Comstock Mining District has been the focus of legend since it first burst into international prominence in the late 1850s and its principal settlement Virginia City endures in the popular mind as the West's quintessential mining camp But the authentic history of the Comstock is far more complex and interesting than its colorful image Contrary to legend Virginia City spent only its first few years as a ramshackle mining camp The mining boom quickly turned it into a thriving urban center at its peak one of the largest cities west of the Mississippi replete with most of the amenities of any large city of its time The lure of the area's fabulous wealth attracted a remarkably heterogeneous population from around the world and offered employment to dozens of trades and thousands of people both men and women representing every one of the region's diverse ethnic groups Ronald James's brilliant account of the Comstock's long and eventful history the first comprehensive study of the subject in over a century examines every aspect of the region and employs information gleaned from hundreds of written sources interviews archeological research computer analysis folklore gender studies physical geography and architectural and art history as well as over fifty rare photographs many of them

Wonham,1993-03-18 Mark Twain and the Art of the Tall Tale is a study of a peculiar American comic strategy and its role in Mark Twain s fiction Focusing on the writer s experiments with narrative structure Wonham describes how Twain manipulated conventional approaches to reading and writing by engaging his audience in a series of rhetorical games the rules of which he adapted from the conventions of tall tale in American oral and written traditions Wonham goes on to show how Twain s appropriation of the genre developed through the course of his career from The Innocents Abroad to Tom Sawyer Huck Finn and Pudd nhead Wilson This eminently readable study will interest Twain enthusiasts and students of nineteenth century American literature as well as anyone interested in American humor and oral narrative traditions Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore Anonymous,2025-07-30 Reprint of the original first published in 1883 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore ,1883 The Mining West Richard E.
