Weaving together theory personal experience and a deep knowledge of the power of Art to transform individuals and communities Mendel has written a comprehensive and accessible book that fills the meaning and how to gap skirted by much of the current discourse around arts for social engagement and community arts Read this book Its pages will inspire and guide artists adult educators and activists to create meaningful arts based opportunities for personal and social change Terri Whetstone Artist and Executive Director 4Cs Foundation Nova Scotia Using the Creative Arts for Transformational Learning is a welcome new resource for all of us working in community engaged arts It expresses the difficulties and desires concerning the combination of personal and social political creative expression with a refreshing mix of subtle thought personal experience and hands on advice Tessa Mendel responds to matters at the heart of our work boldly asking a question that often gets side stepped how exactly does art making cause change In responding to this question she succeeds in the delicate task of offering a coherent analysis and approach that illuminates theory and assists practice without being prescriptive I know that I will be referring to citing and recommending this book for years to come and I m proud that Jumbly is able to help publish and promote it Ruth Howard Artistic Director Jumbly Theatre Toronto Part memoir part work book part theory part exercise guide this is a must read and must use book for any arts practitioner interested in personal and social change As a visual arts university instructor as an individual practicing visual artist and as a community arts facilitator I will be guided by the principles and deepening learning I found in this book Rose Adams Artist and Educator Foundation Faculty NSCAD University

Valuing and Educating Young People Jeremy Harvey, 2006 George Lyward had a gift for working with disturbed young people and the therapeutic community he ran earned an international reputation for its success in rehabilitating adolescents who were excluded from school This book explains his ideas on education and emotional development and shows how his methods are relevant to contemporary practice Kropotkin, Read, and the Intellectual History of British Anarchism M. Adams, 2015-06-04 Although marginal as a political force anarchist ideas developed in Britain into a political tradition This book explores this lost history offering a new appraisal of the work of Kropotkin and Read and examining the ways in which they endeavoured to articulate a politics fit for the particular challenges of Britain s modern history

The Educational Imperative Peter Abbs, 2013-05-13 Written with both the cultural and moral crisis and the challenge of the future in mind Peter Abbs s book charts an open clear and positive way forward for education Divided into four sections the first examines the true and fitting ends of education and outlines a positive conception of education as an initiation into critical enquiry and the personal art of learning The two middle sections consider aesthetic education Abbs confronts government approaches to arts teaching and offers an alternative dynamic paradigm within which the creativity of the culture transmitted down the ages and the creativity of the individual seen as biologically given must be combined The outcome of this is explored in detail in relation to the teaching of literature creative writing and drama The final section offers critical appraisals of influential figures in the arts field Herbert Reid the late Peter

Fuller and David Holbrook Jungian Counseling and Play Therapy Rachel McRoberts, 2024-09-12 Jungian Counseling and Play Therapy is both an introduction to Jung's theory and a practical guide to Jungian informed practice. Readers journey through the development of the mental health crisis of the digital age which Jung foresaw and are presented with solutions he suggested that are still being met with resistance despite compelling facts. This book not only advocates for a more widespread integration of Jungian ideas into clinical practice but also for greater acknowledgement of the integrity, creativity, and intersecting identities of clients, professional counselors, and play therapists. Integrating historical theory with contemporary research, this book helps students to weave creative techniques into their online and in-person clinical work. This is an ideal text for a psychodynamic theory or methods class or to support counseling students and supervisors becoming interested in or familiar with the work of Carl Jung.

Awakening the Slower Mind Violet R. Bruce, 2014-05-15 Awakening the Slower Mind deals with the education of and teaching special needs children. More particularly, this book concerns children in special schools for the educationally subnormal whom the author differentiates from the ineducable child. The first part of this book discusses these children by noting conditions before and during their birth and the background environment of immigrant children and school transferees. The second part of this text is a discussion on the educational system as to how it affects these children and discusses when the child with difficulties cannot keep up with his teachers with the other students and with the system. In a highly industrialized country, literacy becomes an important tool for communication. By making these special students appreciate the value of using language properly through the teacher's efficient use of expressive arts and similar activities, their personality can develop and grow to the point that they will learn to appreciate the value of learning appropriate and correct language skills. The author points out that in this way, these children will become functionally literate. This book is recommended for school administrators, for special learning institutions, school counselors, education majors, pediatricians, and parents of special needs children.

Aa is for Aesthetic (RLE Edu K) Peter Abbs, 2012-05-16 This volume reaffirms the indispensable place of the arts in any coherent curriculum. The author hopes that the specific arguments formulated in the book will advance the conservationist post-Modernist aesthetic.

The Crossing Point Mary Caroline Richards, 2012-01-01 A stunning example of poetic questioning.

Opening Our Moral Eye M C Richards, 1996-09 M C Richards' extraordinary career spanning half a century stretching from the artistic community of Black Mountain to her work in pottery, painting, poetry, and teaching is an occasion for the celebration of life and of the particular life of Mary Caroline Richards, exemplary twentieth-century Renaissance woman, passionate thinker, and philosophical artist. This new collection by the author of the timeless classic Centering explores themes such as the deep sources of creativity, creating wholeness through lifelong learning, Rudolf Steiner and Waldorf education, the sacredness of nature, imagination, and authenticity. With four color plates showing new paintings and a substantial collection of new poems.
