Sloan Woodward,2018-01-30 Excerpt from Roses and Thorns IT IS without any feelings of egotism or of self impor tance that I offer these Simple lines to the public but with the hope that they will be cherished by my friends and also with the belief that they will find an echo in other hearts I make no claim to the divine gift of poesy My poems are unembellished and unadorned and were written under many difficulties The inheritance of defective vision has been a lifelong sorrow and has made my work very arduous and but for the aid of a kind sister who has acted as my amanuensis it would never have been accomplished My affliction has also prevented much of the revision of these poems which would otherwise have been performed I therefore asking the indulgence of my friends Offer them to the public as they are About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works searching for or will the past come back to claim her once more Roses and Thorns; Or, Recollections of an Artist Susanna Paine, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1854 edition Excerpt ROSES AND THORNS Can you tell me who that is she that has just passed us What that tall large lady in a drab bonnet crossing the street yonder Exactly Her name and profession are generally known through the medium of the advertising columns but who or what she really is is a question that probably few in this part of the city could answer She is seen going to her studio every morning and returning about sunset Neither cold heat or even storms prevent her She always goes on foot and alone through all It is well for the omnibusses that all the ladies are not such pedestrians Perhaps poverty makes one of her Very likely for her dress though quite decent would not lead one to suppose she was one of the upper ten How long has she resided here About three years I believe It is said that she resided here formerly and sustains an unblemished character Is she or has she ever been married I do not know it is pretty evident that she has met with heavy trials of some kind In the street she appears in a deep study and wholly unconscious that there is an individual within a mile of her Perhaps it was a matrimonial disappointment Very likely She is seldom if ever met at any place of amusement or public resort does not appear to move in any society high or low or to have any intimacy with any one but seems to be wholly unconnected No one seems to know where her residence is it is probable however that she is a boarder in some obscure private family She is certainly a very eccentric person No doubt of it but it has been ascertained that she holds many testimonials respecting her moral character and from unquestionable sources Will she probably remain long Roses and Thorns Conchita, Dolores Icaza

Conrey, 2006-10 Mary's maternal tenderness for each believer then and now is apparent at every moment in this little book The Venerable Conchita notes that the Blessed Mother's thorns or sorrows are an expression of this tenderness She invites us to receive the rose for our consolation and surrender keeping the thorn for herself In this way we might discover her motherly love and might keep her company as she reflects on her separation from Jesus following the Ascension Conchita has Mary say The sorrows were all for me but the precious fruit derived from them for you These pages will draw a reader to new union with Mary whose help and example will assure a deeper understanding of the Lord's love In the words of Msgr Juan Esquerda Bifet of Rome's Urbaniana Pontifical University Roses and Thorns will be a classic of Marian devotion in the style of The True Devotion to the Blessed Virgin of St Louis Grignion de Montfort and The Glories of Mary of St Alphonsus Maria Liguori Roses and Thorns Priyanshi Vora, 2024-02-13 Through Roses and Thorns embark on a poetic odyssey that celebrates the beauty of roses and embraces the reality of thorns through the intricacies of human emotions relationships and the passage of time These carefully crafted verses provide an intimate exploration of themes such as love family friendship nostalgia and self discovery It offers readers a chance to connect with their own experiences and feelings from the poignant reflections on love and loss to the heartwarming reminiscences of sibling bonds and ever lasting friendships They evoke a deep sense of nostalgia compelling readers to revisit their own memories and connections The collection weaves a tapestry of emotions and experiences from the excitement of new beginnings and the challenges of leaving behind the familiar to the bittersweet recognition of growth and change While each poem presents a unique story and sentiment the collection as a whole serves as a reminder of the enduring power of poetry to capture the essence of the human spirit Readers will find themselves drawn into these verses relating to the universal themes and connections explored within and appreciating the artistry of language and emotions brought to life through the written words Roses Have Thorns
